Free Wage Theft Legal Clinic

Wage theft and worker exploitation is rising in Massachusetts. To help workers, the Attorney General's Office has started a Wage Theft Clinic together with community partners.

Help is available! Lawyers, law students, interpreters, and worker center advocates will be at the Clinic to help workers learn about your rights, draft a demand letter, or prepare a small claims court complaint.

Walk-ins are welcome. If you need an interpreter, please call (617) 963-2327. If you have these papers related to your wages, please bring them with you: pay stubs, time sheets, letters and emails from your employer.

Where: Suffolk Law School, 120 Tremont Street, Boston 02108 (near Park Street Station)

When: February 27th and March 27th from 4:00pm to 7:00pm.

Partners:

Brazilian Women's Group

Harvard Legal Aid Bureau

Justice at Work

Suffolk University Boston

Lawyers for Affordable Justice

Office of the Attorney General, Commonwealth of Massachusetts

Casa del Trabajador
Metrowest Worker Center
Casa do Trabalhador

Brazilian Worker Center Inc.

Greater Boston Legal Services ... and justice for all

華人進步會
Chinese Progressive Association