18 within a deadline, we recognize those. And I'm sure those in 19 charge of the process and timeline will as well.
20 MR. HOFFMAN: Of course, you can't put the cart before
21 the horse because you really need to have a clearly defined 22 process before you can look at what the metrics are going to 23 be.
24 MR. SHUMAVON: Certainly, issues that can be dealt
25 with in the context of future activity. That said, are there 26 more questions? It looks like there might be.
27 MS. ALMAS: Bennie Almas with New Star.
28 I just wanted to respond to Sherry's issue with

1 the list that was provided to New Star. We do have that list
2 and Brent Strothers is coordinating that effort. And we'll 3 have comments back to answer back to you on Friday.
4 MS. LICHTENBERG: Thank you.
5 MS. ALMAS: Additionally, New Star has put out a batch 6 hot cut list, so that if anyone wants to get information or 7 wants to add information to flow between all the different
8 collaboratives and whatnot, you can subscribe to that list
9 and get information from everyone in the collaboratives.
10 I gave that list to Cynthia, so if anyone is 11 interesting in it, she has it.
12 MS. WALKER: I have a question. Could I ask Verizon
13 the same question I asked SBC: If you could provide 14 the number of UNE-P in California that is provided over IDLC.
15 MR. MAGUIRE: I don't -- I guess we could look. My 16 thought on that before when you asked that question is given
