- 1 Type of entity:
 Corporation Trust Partnership Sole proprietorship LLC
- 2 Did Company apply for a sales tax exemption for this production? Yes No
- 3 Is Company or its payroll service provider registered for withholding of Massachusetts personal income tax on salaries paid to its employees?
 Yes No. If no, use our Webfile for Business application to register for withholding and wage reporting and pay over any amounts owed. If Company has already completed production, explain how it met the withholding obligation required by the film credit statute:

- 4 Is Company (including the parent or an affiliate of the company) in default on a loan made or guaranteed by the Commonwealth (see TIR 06-01)?
 Yes No
- 5 Is the Company including on this application qualified expenses (e.g., filming costs clearly and demonstrably incurred in Massachusetts) incurred by another entity in conjunction with this production? Yes No
- 6 If Yes, the Company must certify by signing below that the other entity has allowed the Company to:
 - 1. Include such expenses with the understanding that only one motion picture production company can claim the credit per production and therefore,
 - 2. The other qualifying motion picture production entity cannot also claim the motion picture credit for such expenses, and
 - 3. That the motion picture production company filing this motion picture credit application has a written waiver given by the other qualifying motion picture production entity evidencing their intent to allow the film production company to claim the credit for such expenses; further
 - 4. That the motion picture production company filing this motion picture credit application has records available (including the written waiver referenced above) upon audit that substantiate the qualified expenses incurred by the other qualifying motion picture production entity with the same level of detail required for expenses directly incurred by the motion picture production company filing this motion picture credit application (for example, payroll, production expense, proration if multistate production or unqualified portion such as insurance, etc.); and the expenses are qualified for this one production under this application and not for other productions or joint endeavors between the company and the other entity.
