An Initiative Petition for a Law Relative to Abuse Prevention

Be it enacted by the People, and by their authority:

The citizens of Massachusetts intend under state law that the due process rights of every individual should be protected and that no person should be unjustly deprived of personal liberty, property or right to free association.

Therefore, civil complaints concerning abuse prevention, current laws notwithstanding, shall provide for all due process rights available under the Massachusetts civil laws including the right to trial by jury.

This law shall take effect January 1, 2015.

We, the undersigned petitioners, have individually reviewed the final text of this Initiative Petition, fully subscribe to its contents, and agree to be original signers of the petition.
