

Be it enacted by the People, and by their authority:

Section 1. Notwithstanding any provisions of any general or specific law to the contrary, Section 13 of Chapter 6C of the Massachusetts General Laws is hereby stricken in its entirety.

Section 2. Notwithstanding any provisions of any general or specific law to the contrary, the following language is hereby added to a new Section of Chapter 6C of the Massachusetts General Laws: “The department shall maintain the confidentiality of all information collected under the now stricken Section 13 of Chapter 6C of the Massachusetts General Laws, including, but not limited to, photographs or other recorded images and credit and account data relative to account holders who participated in its electronic toll collection system. Such information shall not be a public record under clause Twenty-sixth of section 7 of chapter 4 or section 10 of chapter 66, and shall be used for enforcement purposes only with respect to former toll collection regulations. An account holder may, upon written request to the department, have access to all information pertaining solely to the account holder. The account holder may also, upon written request to the department, and upon the settlement of the account, have all such information pertaining solely to the account holder destroyed.”
