

Massachusetts College and Private Schools That Purchased Locally Grown Foods in the 2010-11 School Year

An informal survey by the Massachusetts Farm to School Project

The 48 colleges and universities below reported they preferentially purchased local foods during the 2010-11 school year. In addition, 33 private schools reported they preferentially purchased local foods during the 2010-11 school year.

COLLEGES & UNIVERSITIES

Amherst College	Mass. College of Liberal Arts
Assumption College	Mass. College of Pharmacy
Atlantic Union College	Mass. Institute of Technology
Babson College	Merrimack College
Becker College	Mt. Holyoke College
Bentley College	Mt. Wachusett Comm. College
Berklee College of Music	N.E. Conservatory of Music
Boston College	Nichols College
Boston University	Northeastern University
Clark University	Olin College of Engineering
College of the Holy Cross	Salem State College
Curry College	Simmons College
Dean College	Simon's Rock College of Bard
Elms College	Smith College
Emmanuel College	Stonehill College
Endicott College	Suffolk University
Fisher College	Tufts University
Framingham State University	UMASS-Amherst
Gordon-Conwell Theol. Sem.	UMASS-Lowell
Hampshire College	Wellesley College
Harvard University	Wheaton College
Holyoke Community College	Wheelock College
Lesley University	Williams College
Mass. College of Art	Worcester State College

PRIVATE SCHOOLS

Academy at Charlemont	NE Center for Children School
Belmont Day	Northfield Mt. Hermon
Bement School	Perkins Schools for the Blind
Brimmer & May	Phillips Academy
Brooks	Reed Academy School
Buxton School Inc.	Riverview School
Cambridge School of Weston	St Agnes
Concord Academy	Stoneleigh Burnham
Cutchins Program	Valleyview
Dana Hall
Deerfield Academy
Eaglebrook
Eagle Hill
Fenn
Fessenden School
Germaine Lawrence School
Governor's Academy
Groton
Hampden-Wilbraham
Hartsbrook
Italian Home For Children
Latham School
Lawrence Academy
Middlesex	