

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

A Proclamation

His Excellency Governor Deval L. Patrick

Whereas Farmers' markets are essential to the vitality of Massachusetts farms and are part of the cultural tradition of the Commonwealth; and

Whereas Farmers' markets create a festive open air setting which enhances community spirit and civic pride by offering a natural place for community gathering; and

Whereas The Commonwealth is home to more than 215 farmers markets; and

Whereas Over 50 farmers' markets now participate in the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, thereby increasing access to fresh, healthy foods to all citizens of the Commonwealth; and

Whereas Farmers' markets help heighten public awareness of the agricultural diversity of Massachusetts and the benefits of buying local and preserving open space; and

Whereas It is befitting for the citizens of Massachusetts to recognize the continued contribution of farmers' markets to local consumers, as well as their positive impact on the economy of the Commonwealth,

Now, Therefore, I, Deval L. Patrick, Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, do hereby proclaim August 22nd – 28th, 2010 to be,

MASSACHUSETTS FARMERS' MARKET WEEK

And urge all the citizens of the Commonwealth to take cognizance of this event and participate fittingly in its observance.

Given at the Executive Chamber in Boston, first day of August, in the year two thousand and ten, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the two hundred and thirty-fourth.

By His Excellency

DEVAL L. PATRICK
GOVERNOR OF THE COMMONWEALTH

WILLIAM FRANCIS GALVIN
SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH

God Save the Commonwealth of Massachusetts
