CLARIFICATION REGARDING APPEAL RIGHTS

The Civil Service Commission is issuing the following clarification regarding appeal rights:

A motion for reconsideration does not toll the statutorily prescribed thirty-day time limit for seeking judicial review of a Civil Service Commission's final decision.

Thus, parties seeking judicial review of a final decision of the Civil Service Commission must do so within thirty days after receiving the Commission's final decision – regardless of whether a motion for reconsideration has or will be filed with the Commission regarding that decision.
