Connecting Business to Growth Opportunities
Introduction to the Operational Services Division

The Operational Services Division (OSD) administers the procurement process for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts by establishing Statewide Contracts for goods and services that ensure best value, provide customer satisfaction, support the socioeconomic and environmental goals of the Commonwealth, and administer specific operational services.

The Operational Services Division can help you do business with the Commonwealth by providing step-by-step resources on becoming a contractor using COMMBUY (the new Market Center); by explaining how the state buys products and services; and by exploring opportunities for small, minority, women or disadvantaged business enterprises; and, more.

Supplier Diversity Certification (Minority and Women-Owned Businesses)

The Operational Services Division services minority and women-owned business enterprises in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. In addition to servicing minority and women-owned business enterprises, the SDO has the responsibility to certify businesses that meet certain criteria. SDO certification is a marketing tool used to enhance a firm's ability to do business in public markets. Although certification does not guarantee that a business will be successful every time it bids, it may add a competitive edge to a bid. Becoming SDO Certified can help firms seeking contracts with the government. Furthermore, the SDO certifies Disadvantaged Business Enterprises (DBEs). Each month, the SDO provides free training programs to businesses interested in becoming certified.
