General Overview

The Rules Subsystem enables secretariats and departments to customize LCM to meet their varying business needs. By setting up rules tables, departments can fine-tune LCM to meet their cost accounting requirements. LCM checks these tables and processes payroll based on their contents. Rules tables can assist departments in:

- Statutory compliance
- Charging and tracking labor costs.
- Accurately providing an interface that makes data entry easier and less prone to error.

LCM offers 3-different types of rules functionalities – each with different levels of controls and applicability, which departments can use separately or in combination to meet a specific or a set of business requirements. These rules functionalities are:

1. Position Authorized Accounting Rules (POAA)
  - Position Specific
  - Account Specific
  - Department Specific
2. Department Event Accounting Rules (DEACC)
  - Department Level (department wide - all units)
  - Department/Unit Level (unit specific)
3. Alternate Account Rules (PALT)
  - Account Specific

Both, LCM and MMARS, often invoke these rules functionalities for some payroll related document processing. For instance, the following LCM documents: EPPA, DEPTE and LARQ; and MMARS documents: PRLDE, PRLIF and PRADJ, all edit against POAA rules settings (to Fund Accounting elements). Meanwhile, DEACC and PALT, are only invoked during payroll processing/funds availability.

Position Authorized Accounting Rules (POAA)

When a department hires an employee, the employee is appointed or “assigned” to a position within an appropriation that supports the work being performed by that employee. The initial assignment of the employee into an appropriation may require different processes and controls, depending on the type of account, the branch of government, or whether the employee is a regular or contract employee. In the payroll system, that initial hire or “job” is the most basic starting point for accounting of the payroll expenses associated with an employee.

In order for expenditures to be made at the employee level from an appropriation different than the position assigned appropriation, a rule must be in place. CTR retains exclusive rules approval authority; in other words, no other government entity can approve rules. When CTR approves a rule, it does not make expenditures happen – it simply puts the edits in place for employee defaults or employee exceptions, set forth by the department, to be valid. Making expenditures to a different account requires the department to actually enter the accounting information at the employee level. Although a CTR approved rule allows a transaction to be made, it is still, the department's responsibility to ensure the transaction is appropriate.

All CTR approved transactions are subject to audit, therefore, rules application packages are kept on file at CTR for future audits.

The logic of which rule should be requested should follow these general concepts:

Because of the most restrictive processing, departments should request the least restrictive rule whenever possible. The logic of which rule should be requested should follow these general concepts:

Department Business Requirement	Rule Type to Request
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• ISA</li> <li>• Settlement/Judgment</li> <li>• Terminal Leave</li> <li>• Cross Dept/Reimbursement</li> <li>• Position X in Account Y to Account Z</li> </ul>	POAA – Position Specific
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• All Positions in Account Y to Account Z</li> </ul>	POAA – Account Specific
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Any Position in Any Account to Any Account</li> </ul>	POAA – Department Specific
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Event XX to any employee always to Account Y</li> </ul>	DEACC – Dept/Unit Specific
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Anytime insufficient Account X to Account Y</li> </ul>	PALT – Account Specific

Rules

Position Accounting Rules (Continued)

Identify your department's payroll/business requirement:

- One time payments - since these payments are specific to the employee, a position specific rule should be requested. In the LCM, the period of time the rule remains in effect can be entered.
- ISA's (Interdepartmental Service Agreements) – All ISA's require a position specific rule.
- Cost Sharing - if every employee assigned to the appropriation is eligible for the cost sharing, whether or not you actually plan to share expenditures for every employee, an account specific rule should be requested. In other words, the sharing of costs may be done regardless of which employee defaults or exceptions are changed to make the actual expenditure.
- Administrative Convenience Accounts – In these situations, a rule that any position can charge any account may be appropriate. Formally known as a position assigned Rule 4, now referred to as department specific. (Limited use and applicability)

Department Event Accounting Rule (DEACC)

The Department Event Accounting Rule is the only LCM Rule that is not only a permission, but also an action. The Comptroller's Office authorizes the department to distribute labor at the pay event level by entering the event transaction into the Department Event Accounting Information table (DEACC), which in turn will automatically distribute payroll dollars to desired appropriation(s) based on the Event Type, Home Unit (optional), and Labor Distribution Override Options set in this table.

Not every department is granted this permission. See the Comptroller web site for Payroll Policy and Procedures regarding Department Event Accounting Rules. See the e-Learning modules on Labor Distribution Profiles and Distribute Labor for more information on Labor Distribution Override Options.

Departments will request Department Event Accounting Rules directly from the Comptroller's Office, with no LCM system transaction. Departments can later view approved Event Accounting Rules through the Department Event Accounting Information table (DEACC) if and when approved.

Alternate Account Rule

LCM has the capability to establish alternate accounts for a department, so that if during the Funds Availability process a primary account is insufficiently funded, alternate funding source(s) may be used to pay employees or contractors. Please note that more than one fund may be designated as an alternate.

Not every department is granted this permission. See the Comptroller web site for Payroll Policy and Procedures regarding Alternate Account Rules.

The department will be authorized to enter data into LCM by using the Payroll Alternate Accounting Information document (PALT) to submit requested Alternate Account Rules through workflow for approval.

The completed and signed LCM Rules Request Form should be kept on file at your department; any backup documentation that does not fit in Document Comments field in LCM should be sent to LCMRules@osc.state.ma.us with your rule Document ID in the subject.

Departments can later view approved Alternate Account Rules through the Payroll Alternate Accounting Information table (PAYA).

General Guidelines for Rules Applications:

- Rule Requests must be signed and approved by a person with written signatory authority on file with the Comptroller.
- Departments must provide the authorizing language that demonstrates the authority by which the rule may be approved. (See Rule guideline grid.)
- Rules are fiscal year based.
- CTR approves rules based on the language authorizing the expenditure. Unless the language restricts employee expenditures by position or position type, the least restrictive rule should be used.

Procedure

- Within the Labor Cost Management system, enter the rule information for which you wish to apply. Enter the document into LCM, there will be an automated work-flow to notify CTR a Rule has been requested for review/approval. You should enter your Justification and/or Statutory language in the Document Comments section of your rule document in LCM.
- The Comptroller's office will approve or reject your LCM rule document, at which point the status of the document will change from Pending Approval to Final or Rejected. You can view approved rules in LCM using the PAUTH Activity Folder (see LCM Rules E-Learning and Job Aid).

View Account Specific Rule in Funds Availability Control Table (FACTR)

This Job Aid shows how to:

- View approved Account Specific Rule
- Define and State the purpose of the Account Specific Rule

Background:

Funds Availability Control Table (FACTR): is used to designate the Budget Tracking Amounts to which the summarized payroll expense line amounts will be compared to in order to determine if there are sufficient funds available.

Budget Tracking Amounts are the balances or “buckets” that LCM Funds Availability will retrieve from MMARS for each summarized Budget Structure.

NOTE: Refer to the CTR Knowledge Center for additional Policy information.
