National Award Bestowed Upon Peter Scavotto, Director Quality Assurance, Office of the Comptroller

Comptroller Thomas Shack is pleased to announce that the Association of Government Accountants (AGA) has awarded Peter Scavotto, Director of the Comptroller's Statewide Quality Assurance Group, its National President's Award at the 2016 National Professional Development Training. The award ceremony was held in Anaheim, California.

Scavotto was recognized nationally for his leadership of AGA's Internal Controls Working Group and his work spearheading development of several online fraud prevention tools that provide a universal best-practice approach to combating state level fraud, waste and abuse.

The Office of the Comptroller is honored to have Peter join a number of leaders of this office having received national recognition for their contributions to our field and serving as national leaders within their disciplines.

"Peter Scavotto has once again shown how creative and innovative leadership in the Commonwealth can have a national impact. As a key member of our leadership team, Peter brings remarkable talents and the Commonwealth benefits from his skills everyday" said Comptroller Shack.
