Guidelines for Determining Medicare Tax Status

The term "Employee" used in this document refers to both state and contract employees

#	Scenario	Has Break in Service Occurred?	Explanation	Employee's Medicare Tax Status Setup in HR/CMS
First Time Hires
1	Employee was hired before April 1, 1986 into a Commonwealth Department and has worked continuously for that Department since that time	No	Employee was hired before April 1, 1986, which qualifies them as exempt from Medicare tax withholding	Exempt (E)
2	Employee is hired on or after April 1, 1986 into a Commonwealth Department	N/A	Employee was hired on or after April 1, 1986, which requires them to pay Medicare tax	Medicare only (M)
Transfers
3	Employee was hired before April 1, 1986 into a Commonwealth Department. He/she transfers after April 1, 1986 from one Commonwealth employer to another Commonwealth employer (both of which use the same Employer identification number for tax reporting). The employee begins working for the new Commonwealth employer on the next business day after leaving their last Commonwealth employer	No	If employee begins work with the new Commonwealth employer on the next business day after leaving their old Commonwealth employer, no break in service has occurred	Exempt (E)
Concurrent Jobs
4	Employee was hired before April 1, 1986 into a Commonwealth Department. He/she transfers after April 1, 1986 from one Commonwealth employer to another Commonwealth employer (both of which use the same Employer Identification number for tax reporting). The employee begins working for the new	Yes	If employee takes time off before going to work for their new Commonwealth employer that is considered a break in service	Medicare only (M)

	Commonwealth employer after taking a week off between jobs.
5	Employee was hired before April 1, 1986 by an authority or a local, municipal, federal, county or other state government. He/she was hired after April 1, 1986 to a Commonwealth employer, who does not use the same Employer Identification number for tax reporting	Yes	Employee is going to work for a Commonwealth employer, who does not report under the same Employer Identification Number (EIN) as the local, municipal, authorities, federal, county or another state, therefore it is a new employee relationship	Medicare only (M)
6	Employee was hired before April 1, 1986 into a Commonwealth Department. Employee starts a part time job after April 1, 1986 with another Commonwealth employer, who uses the same Employer Identification number for tax reporting as the original Department. The employee works both jobs concurrently (primary and secondary).	No	Employee is exempt from Medicare tax on their primary job due to their hire date (before April 1, 1986).
