Table of Sex Offenses Requiring Notification

of Required Sex Offender Registration, Lifetime Community Parole Supervision, or Potential SDP Eligibility

A judge taking a guilty plea or admission to sufficient facts must notify the defendant if he or she: (1) may be required to register as a sex offender, or (2) may be subject to community parole supervision for life, or (3) may be subject to additional punishment based upon the sexually dangerous persons provisions of the General Laws. Mass. R. Crim. P. 12(c)(3)(B).

A judge accepting a plea for one of the sex offenses indicated below must inform the defendant (and obtain his or her written acknowledgement) that he or she may be subject to the sex offender registration provisions of §§ 178C-178P. G.L. c. 6, § 178E(d). A judge entering a conviction for one of the sex offenses indicated below who does not impose a forthwith committed sentence of 90 days or more must inform the defendant (and obtain his or her written acknowledgement) that he or she must register as a sex offender in Massachusetts and in any state of residence. G.L. c. 6, § 178E(c).

NOTES

² Community parole supervision for life is mandatory upon conviction of these offenses if the defendant has "one or more prior convictions of indecent assault and battery, rape, assault with intent to commit rape, unnatural and lascivious acts, drugging for sex, kidnap or of any offense which is the same as or necessarily includes the same elements of said offense." G.L. c. 265, § 45; c. 275, § 18. Commonwealth v. Pagan, 445 Mass. 161, 834 N.E.2d 240 (2005), held to be unconstitutionally vague the portions of § 18 which permit the optional imposition of lifetime community parole supervision for first-offense convictions.

Lifetime community parole supervision is also required for anyone convicted of failing to register as a sex offender if: (1) they have been categorized as a level 2 or 3 sex offender, or (2) their underlying sex offense was G.L. c. 265, §§ 13B (indecent A&B on a child under 14), 13F (indecent A&B on a retarded person), 22A (rape of a child with force), 23 (statutory rape), 24B (assault to rape a child), or 26 ¶ 4 (kidnapping of a child under 16), or conspiracy or accessory to such an offense, or a like violation in another jurisdiction. G.L. c. 6, § 178H(a)(1)-(3).

³ Among the requirements for commitment as a sexually dangerous person is a prior conviction, or a delinquency or youthful offender adjudication, for one of these sex offenses. See G.L. c. 123A, §§ 1, 12.

⁴ These offenses are neither "sex offenses involving a child" nor "sexually violent offenses" (as defined in G.L. c. 6, § 178C) and therefore, subject to other specified requirements, the offender may be eligible under § 178E(e) or (f) for exemption from registration. Section 178E(e) permits a sentencing judge, on motion of the prosecutor, to exempt an eligible defendant from the registration requirement if "the circumstances of the offense in conjunction with the offender's criminal history does not indicate a risk of reoffense or a danger to the public." Section 178E(f) directs the sentencing judge to consider the same issue sua sponte within 14 days of sentencing if an eligible defendant is not sentenced to immediate confinement.
