This is a request for a civil order to protect the Plaintiff from future abuse or harassment. The actions of the Defendant may also constitute a crime subject to criminal penalties. For information about filing a criminal complaint, you may talk with the District Attorney's Office for the location where the alleged harassment occurred.

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE PLAINTIFF

HARASSMENT PREVENTION ORDERS

Under Massachusetts General Laws chapter 258E, people who have suffered harassment may ask a judge to issue an Order to protect them from further harassment or abuse. These Orders will be recorded and enforced by law enforcement agencies. They are commonly called “Harassment Prevention Orders” or “Restraining Orders” or “258E Orders.” In any emergency that occurs after court hours or on weekends, you may ask your local police to put you in contact with a judge.

YOU MUST COMPLETE 4 FORMS:

1. COMPLAINT FORM

To request a Harassment Prevention Order, you must fill out a Complaint form and other appropriate forms. There is no filing fee. You are the “Plaintiff.” The person who you allege has harassed you is the “Defendant.” Please print in ballpoint pen and press hard enough so that all four parts are legible.

If either party is under 18. You are asked to indicate on the form whether you and the Defendant are under 18 years of age because the law provides that if either you or the Defendant is under the age of 18, such cases are not open to public inspection and are available only to the Plaintiff, the Plaintiff’s attorney, the person under 18 and his or her parent, guardian and attorney.

Other prior or pending actions. If there are any prior or pending actions in any state or country between you and the Defendant, please bring any legal papers you have from such actions with you to the courthouse.

Financial compensation. You may request that a judge order the Defendant to compensate you for any financial losses suffered as a direct result of the harassment. These may include, but are not limited to, lost earnings, out-of-pocket losses for injuries sustained or property damaged, the costs for replacement of locks, medical expenses, or obtaining an unlisted phone number, and reasonable attorney’s fees.

2. AFFIDAVIT

When you have completed the Complaint form, turn over the first (white) part and fill out the affidavit on the back. Describe the details of the harassment. If the harassment consisted only of conduct that was willful and malicious but was not a violation of the criminal statutes listed on the front of the complaint form, you must describe at least 3 separate incidents of such harassment to be eligible for a Harassment Prevention Order. Fill out the affidavit even if you are requesting relief after court hours unless a judge directs otherwise.

3. PLAINTIFF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION FORM

You must also fill out a Plaintiff Confidential Information Form, which lists your address, telephone number, and related information. The information in this form is confidential and this form is not available to the public, the defendant or the defendant’s attorney. Except with a judge’s permission, this form is available only to you, to your attorney, to those you authorize to have access, and to certain persons when access is necessary in the performance of their duties (prosecutors, law enforcement officers, victim-witness advocates and sexual assault counselors).

However, if you request that the defendant be ordered to remain away from your residence or workplace addresses, those addresses will appear in the court Order. They will not be available to the public but they will be disclosed to the defendant. If you do not want those addresses to appear in the court Order and thereby be disclosed to the Defendant, you should specifically request that they be omitted from the court Order.

If you have good reasons why your addresses or other confidential information in this case should not be disclosed to those who would otherwise have access in the course of their duties (prosecutors, law enforcement officers, victim-witness advocates and sexual assault counselors), you may file a Motion for Impoundment under Trial Court Uniform Rule VIII on Impoundment Procedure.

Other court records of this matter will generally be open to public inspection. You may also file a Motion for Impoundment if you have good reasons to ask a judge to keep other parts of the court record from public inspection. Usually a general preference for privacy is not alone a sufficient reason for a judge to impound court records from public inspection.

4. DEFENDANT INFORMATION FORM

The Plaintiff must also fill out the Defendant Information Form. Please provide the requested information to the best of your ability in order to identify the Defendant and where the Defendant can be found. If an Order is issued, this information will be used by law enforcement officers to locate the Defendant to deliver the Order.
