

2011 Adams Pro Bono Publico Awards

Standing Committee on Pro Bono Legal Services of the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court Invites Nominations for the 2011 Adams Pro Bono Publico Awards

Program Overview

In furtherance of SJC Rule 6.1, Voluntary Pro Bono Publico Service, the SJC Standing Committee on Pro Bono Legal Services will present awards to individual lawyers, law firms, government attorneys, corporate law departments and other institutions in the legal profession that have demonstrated outstanding commitment to volunteer legal services for the poor and disadvantaged including CPCS, legal services or similar providers who conduct non-program pro bono work. The awards will be presented in a ceremony at the John Adams Courthouse on October 26, 2011, in conjunction with the American Bar Association's recognition of National Pro Bono Week.

It is through "... commitment and hard work, [that] we can move closer to our goal of providing access to justice for all."

– Retired SJC Chief Justice Herbert P. Wilkins, upon establishment of the Standing Committee on Pro Bono Legal Services.

Program Statement

The Adams Pro Bono Publico Awards Program seeks to identify and honor individual lawyers, small and large law firms, government attorney offices, corporate law departments and other institutions in the legal profession that have enhanced the human dignity of others by improving or delivering volunteer legal services to our Commonwealth's poor and disadvantaged. These services are of critical importance to the increasing number of people living in poverty who are in need of legal representation to improve their lives.

Award Criteria

Awardees will be selected from those who have excelled in providing volunteer services in one or more of the following ways:

1. volunteer participation in an activity or pro bono program which resulted in satisfying previously unmet needs or in extending services to underserved segments of the population;
2. successfully litigated pro bono cases that favorably affected the provision of other services to the poor; and/or
3. successfully achieved legislation that contributed substantially to legal services to the poor.

Nomination Guidelines

- Kindly submit a brief narrative explaining how the candidate meets the criteria for The Adams Pro Bono Publico Awards. Specify the nature of the pro bono contribution and identify those who have benefited.
- Information that would be helpful includes principal areas of practice, the number of years practicing law, hours spent on pro bono activities, other public service contributions, educational background, supporting documents and bar association activities.
- Include up to 3 letters of support, if available, from other individuals and organizations who are aware of the candidate's pro bono contribution.
- Nominations submitted in 2010 remain active for consideration in the 2011 Awards program.

Selection Process

- Nominations should be received no later than July 15, 2011.
- Submit written nominations and all materials to: Richard McMahon, Esq., The 2011 Adams Pro Bono Publico Awards, c/o South Coastal Counties Legal Services, Inc., P.O.
