Massachusetts law requires that you must, at all times, maintain a Massachusetts motor vehicle liability insurance policy in order to operate your motor vehicle on the ways of the Commonwealth.

If you have not obtained a new Massachusetts insurance policy or you elect not to obtain new Massachusetts insurance, or you have moved out of state, you must cease operation of your motor vehicle and you must surrender your registration and plates at the nearest Registry of Motor Vehicles' office immediately. Otherwise, you are required, with the help of your agent/insurance company, to have your insurance company electronically submit proof of insurance coverage to the Registry of Motor Vehicles prior to the effective revocation date shown above. If you do not obtain a new Massachusetts insurance policy until after the revocation date, you must obtain a stamped RMV-3 form from your agent/insurance company. You will have to pay the appropriate registration reinstatement fee of $50.00.

You may request a hearing concerning the matter at the RMV branches located in Brockton, Worcester, Springfield, Lawrence, or 630 Washington St., Boston. If you are aggrieved by a decision or order of the Registrar you may, within 10 days of the effective date of the Registrar's order, appeal to the Board of Appeal on Motor Vehicle Liability, Policies and Bonds, One South Station, 5th Floor, Boston, MA 02110. You can also download an appeal application from their website at WWW.STATE.MA.US DOI or call them at 617-351-9710. No appeal will stay the revocation order and you must still comply with the above directive to turn in your registration forthwith.

Remember, you must immediately cease operation of your motor vehicle if it is not properly insured.
