Thursday, April 16, 7:10 AM – 10:45 AM (3 shows for High School students)
- County: Barnstable County
- Location: Barnstable High School
- What: Barnstable County Superior Court Sesquicentennial School Outreach Program. A series of two performances acted out by students, members of the Barnstable Bar Association, volunteers from the Barnstable Police Department and Superior Court personnel. Each performance was a script written from civil and criminal vignettes of real cases. Following the performances a question and answer period for the students presided over by Judge Robert Rufo took place. Over the three days approximately 2500 students saw the plays.
