

Middlesex County

Honorable Christine M McEvoy - Chair

- Kickoff Event at University of Massachusetts-Lowell ~ April 30, Panel 5-6:30 PM, Reception 6:30-8 PM
  - Panel discussion on the Belmont murder trial that was the subject of Sebastian Junger's book A Death in Belmont. Panelists will include participants from the actual trial as well as Sebastian Junger, F. Lee Bailey (who represented the Boston Strangler), and commentary by Middlesex District Attorney Gerard Leone.
  - A reception will follow at the Chancellor's Residence hosted by Chancellor Martin Meehan.
- Law Day Celebration, Lowell Superior Courthouse ~ May 1, 2009, 8AM - 3PM
  - Co-sponsored with the Greater Lowell Bar Association, Inc.
  - Presentations of the history of the Superior Court and the Lowell Superior Courthouse, speeches from dignitaries, and tour of the courthouse.
  - High school students who are selected as winners of an essay contest regarding Abraham Lincoln will be recognized.
- The People's Law School ~ September through October 2009, exact dates, times and location to be determined.
  - Six weekly classes on various legal and judicial topics, taught by lawyers and judges, and open to interested members of the public.
  - Individuals who attend all six classes will receive certificates of completion.