STATEMENT ON MILTON HOMICIDE

Contact: D. Traub, 781-830-4800 x 217

MILTON – District Attorney Michael W. Morrissey and Massachusetts State Police Detectives attached to the Norfolk District Attorney's Office are in Milton tonight, working with the Milton Police Department investigating an apparent homicide in the Hudson Street area of that town.

Preliminary investigation suggests that at approximately 10 p.m. April 14, 2013, the deceased male, Jordan Baskin, 22, of 84 Hudson Street, Milton, may have been stabbed not far from his residence. He reportedly made his way home and was discovered injured by a family member and transported to the nearby Beth Israel/Deaconess – Milton Hospital. He did not survive his injuries.

The investigation is ongoing at this hour and anyone who believes they may have information concerning this incident is encouraged to contact the Massachusetts State Police or Milton detectives
