

The Plymouth County Drug Abuse Task Force presents:

Plymouth County Speaks Up Against Drugs The Role of Educators in the Opioid Crisis

May 17, 2016
8:30 am-3:00 pm
(Registration opens at 7:30 am)

Bridgewater State University- Rondileau Campus Center
19 Park Avenue, Bridgewater, MA 02325

This conference is for educators and those who work with schools on prevention and intervention strategies. A focus will be on solutions to address the "Drug Endangered Child", Child and Families in recovery, new legislation and requirements of Screening Brief Intervention and Referral for Treatment (SBIRT), "Helping Traumatized Children Learn" and the exciting Drug Story Theater which delivers powerful real-life stories of teens who have struggled against drug and alcohol abuse.

RSVP by May 10th by e-mail to either:

Patrick Nevins: brian.p.nevins@state.ma.us

OR

Barbara Faherty: barbara.j.faherty@state.ma.us

Seating is Limited**

Open to all

College Educators,
Superintendents,
Principals,
Teachers,
Adjustment/Guidance
Counselors, School
Nurses, School
Committee Members,
Police Chiefs, SRO's,
DARE/DRUG
Awareness Officers

The Plymouth County Drug Abuse Task Force Presents

Plymouth County SPEAKS UP Against Drugs

The Role of Educators in the Opioid Crisis
2016 Annual Conference
May 17, 2016
Bridgewater State University

Timothy J. Cruz
District Attorney

BRIDGEWATER
STATE UNIVERSITY

Joseph D. McDonald, Jr.
Sheriff

Lunch will be provided

Parking in the West
Lot: 34 Park Ave
or 45 Plymouth Street

Overflow Parking is available in the Parking Garage,
301 Great Hill Drive,
Bridgewater