BROCKTON, MA – Plymouth County District Attorney Timothy J. Cruz announced today that State and Brockton Police are seeking the public's assistance with any information regarding the Sunday, September 28, 2014 hit and run death of Carl-Evan O. Yancey on Belmont Street in Brockton. Investigators are seeking to speak with the operator of a silver or gray minivan that passed eastbound through the intersection of Belmont Street and West Street (the area of the 7-11 and Shaw's Supermarket) at approximately 9:22 pm. It is believed that the operator and occupants, if any, of this vehicle may have information regarding this incident. This vehicle may have sustained damage to the front passenger bumper or wheel well.

The below surveillance video still of this vehicle is intended for public dissemination. The surveillance video may be viewed at the Plymouth County District Attorney's Office website at www.mass.gov/da/plymouth. Anyone with information on this matter is urged to contact Trooper Joseph Kalil at the State Police Detectives Unit at (508) 947-8087 or the Brockton Police Detective Unit at (508) 941-0234.
