Fly Tying

Saturday, February 21, 2009

MA DFW Connecticut Valley District Office

Belchertown, MA • 9:00 AM - 2:00 PM

Tying an imitation fly and using it to catch a fish is a thrilling and memorable experience, and winter is a great time to create fishing flies as you contemplate your spring fishing. Jim Lafley of the Federation of Fly Fishers will teach you the skills to get you started in flytying. The class will cover materials, tools and various types of fishing flies. You will have the opportunity to tie at least two patterns during the class. All materials and equipment will be provided for the class session and the instructor will answer questions about the basic equipment to get you started on your own.

Cost: $30 • Limited to 10 participants

All materials and lunch will be provided.

 Print, Clip, Fill In and Return!
