This Informational Guideline Release (IGR) informs assessors of the social security deduction to be used in determining exemption eligibility in Fiscal Year 2005 under Clauses 41, 41B or 41C.
The Commissioner of Revenue has determined the allowable deduction from federal social security or railroad retirement, and from federal, Massachusetts or Massachusetts political subdivision employee pensions, annuities or retirement plans for the purposes of computing gross receipts under General Laws Chapter 59, Section 5, Clauses 41, 41B or 41C.

The amount to be deducted by the assessors when computing gross receipts for applicants seeking FY2005 exemptions under those clauses has been increased by 2.1% above the amount allowed for FY2004.

GUIDELINES:

1. The following amounts should be deducted when computing the gross receipts for applicants who received income from Federal social security or railroad retirement, or from government employee pensions, annuities or retirement plans for all of 2003:

   Annual Minimum Payments 2003

   Worker $3,477
   Spouse 1,739
   $5,216

2. For applicants who received income from those sources for only a part of 2003, the following amount for each month for which the income was received should be deducted, provided that the total amount deducted does not exceed the total amount of such payments received:

   Monthly Minimum Payments 2003

   Worker $291
   Spouse 147
   $438
