Would You Like to Throw This Form Away?

You Can If You E-File!

What Is E-File?

E-File is filing your state personal income tax return electronically through one of three methods offered by the Massachusetts Department of Revenue (DOR). Last year, more than one million taxpayers electronically filed their state income tax returns in the Commonwealth. On average, they received their refunds in three days.

Telefile

Telefile allows eligible taxpayers to E-File by telephone. Millions of taxpayers have used Telefile, completing their calls in minutes. It's free and available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Call (617) 660-2006 or (413) 827-7100 to see if you qualify. The Telefile worksheet and instructions can be found in your Form 1 instruction booklet.

Paid Preparer

Millions of taxpayers have had their returns electronically filed through DOR-approved tax preparers. If your tax preparer does not offer E-File, ask him or her to give it a try!

Note: For tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, income tax return preparers who completed 100 or more original Massachusetts Forms 1 and 1-NR/PY, including those E-Filed, during the previous calendar year are required to use electronic means to file all personal income tax returns, unless the taxpayer specifically directs that the filing be on paper and signs Form EFO, Personal Income Tax Declaration of Paper Filing.

If you prefer to file using paper, your preparer must use a DOR-approved tax preparation software package that supports 2-Dimensional (2-D) barcodes. Visit www.mass.gov/dor for a list of approved preparers.

Be sure to use the proper address when mailing your 2-D barcoded return. Refund/no tax due: Massachusetts Department of Revenue, PO Box 7001, Boston, MA 02204-7001. Payment: Massachusetts Department of Revenue, PO Box 7002, Boston, MA 02204-7002.

Commercial Tax Preparation Software

You can also E-File using DOR-approved commercial tax filing websites or software products or you may be eligible to file your return electronically for free through the Massachusetts Free File Alliance. Visit www.mass.gov/dor for a complete listing of approved websites and products. If you prefer to file using a paper copy, you must use a product that incorporates 2-D barcodes into their software. This will expedite the processing of your return. If your software-generated return does not print with a 2-D barcode in the upper right hand corner of all pages, you may have a problem with your printer. To avoid penalties or having your return rejected, contact your software vendor for instructions on how to print the 2-D barcode.

Be sure to use the proper address when mailing your 2-D barcoded return. Refund/no tax due: Massachusetts Department of Revenue, PO Box 7001, Boston, MA 02204-7001. Payment: Massachusetts Department of Revenue, PO Box 7002, Boston, MA 02204-7002.

Personal Identification Number (PIN)

If you received this booklet in the mail, be sure to retain the PIN printed on the back cover. You will need it to Telefile and to access the Department's telephone and Web-based systems that allow you to check the status of your refund and perform other actions. If you did not get this booklet in the mail and do not have a PIN, you will need the amount of your requested refund or tax due from your 2005 Massachusetts tax return to access these systems. If you are a first-time filer, you will still be able to access these systems without a PIN.

Why Should You E-File?

- Less stress. If you E-File you will not have to worry about math errors, missing schedules or other common mistakes which could delay your refund or cause other problems that take time to resolve. And E-File is safe. Plus, you will receive immediate confirmation that serves as proof you filed.
- Fast refunds. Whether you E-File in January or mid-April, you will receive your refund, on average, in three days. You also have the option of having your refund deposited directly into your bank account. (Some commercial tax preparation products may not offer direct deposit.)
- Easy to use. Whether you call or click to file your return, or have your preparer E-File for you, the E-File system walks you through it step by step, and does the calculations for you.
- Convenient payment options. If you have a tax due, you can file now and pay later (by April 17, 2007) through Web Services for Income at www.mass.gov/dor or by Electronic Funds Withdrawal, credit or check card. You can also file now and pay later using Form PV, Massachusetts Income Tax Payment Voucher (by April 17, 2007). Form PV is attached to the back of the envelope found in this booklet. If you choose to pay by check, be sure to include Form PV to ensure proper crediting of your account.

Automatic Extension Granted if 100% Tax Due is Paid by Tax Return Due Date

If line 3 of the worksheet below is "0" and 100% of the tax due for 2006 has been paid through:

- withholding;
 - timely estimated payments of tax;
 - credits from your 2006 return; and
 - a refund from the prior tax year applied to the next year's tax liability,
- you are no longer required to file Form M-4868, Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File Massachusetts Income Tax Return. However, if you do choose to file Form M-4868 in this instance, you must do so electronically, either by telephone or via DOR's website. See TIR 06-21 for more information.

Also, if you owe no tax or you are making a payment of $5,000 or more, you are required to file your extension by telephone or via the web. If you are making a payment of less than $5,000, you also have the option of filing your extension electronically. If there is a tax due with your extension, payment can be made through Electronic Funds Withdrawal.

Call (617) 660-2222 to file your extension by telephone or visit www.mass.gov/dor to file via the Web or to obtain Form M-4868.

- Visit www.mass.gov/dor to see the fill-in version of Form 1 and schedules. They are easier and quicker to process.
- See page 3 for the correct PO boxes if you are using a tax software product.

Health Care Reform Act

The Health Care Reform Act of 2006 requires all (with few exceptions) Massachusetts residents 18 and over to carry health insurance as of July 1, 2007. Failure to show proof of coverage in effect December 31, 2007 will result in a loss of your personal tax exemption when filing your 2007 personal income tax return next year. Failure to comply in the following year will result in harsher penalties.

Major 2006 Tax Changes

IMPORTANT: At the time of the printing of these forms, state legislation to provide relief from the May 2006 flooding for taxpayers in areas declared federal disaster areas in the counties of Essex, Middlesex, Norfolk, Suffolk and Worcester was pending in the legislature but had not been enacted. Please go to the Department of Revenue's website at www.mass.gov/dor for further news and instructions. Also, check the department's website for any state changes caused by federal legislation signed after December 1, 2006.

Personal Exemptions Increased

Recent legislation provides that personal exemptions may increase for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2004 if tax revenues increase. Applicable for the 2006 tax year, the personal income tax exemptions have increased from $3,575 to $3,850 for single and married filing separately filers, from $5,525 to $5,950 for head of household filers, and from $7,150 to $7,700 for joint filers.

No Tax Status/Limited Income Credit Thresholds

Because the income level for No Tax Status for joint filers and heads of household is based in part on the personal exemption amounts, the threshold for No Tax Status for these taxpayers has been changed to reflect changes to the personal exemptions. The Limited Income Credit calculation is similarly affected.

Joint Filers. No tax is imposed if the Massachusetts adjusted gross income (AGI) does not exceed $15,300 plus $1,000 per dependent. Joint filers are eligible for the Limited Income Credit if Massachusetts AGI does not exceed $26,775 plus $1,750 per dependent.

Head of Household. No tax is imposed if the Massachusetts AGI does not exceed $13,550 plus $1,000 per dependent. Heads of household are eligible for the Limited Income Credit if Massachusetts AGI does not exceed $23,713 plus $1,750 per dependent.

Single Filers. No Tax Status for single filers is unaffected by the increase in the personal exemption amount. For single filers, no tax is imposed if the taxpayer's Massachusetts AGI does not exceed $8,000. Single filers are eligible for the Limited Income Credit if Massachusetts AGI does not exceed $14,000.

Note: If married filing separately, you do not qualify for No Tax Status or the Limited Income Credit.

Circuit Breaker Tax Credit Increased

A credit is allowed to an owner or tenant of residential property located in Massachusetts equal to the amount by which the real estate tax payment or 25% of the rent constituting real estate tax payment exceeds 10% of the taxpayer's total income, not to exceed $870. The amount of the credit is subject to limitations based on the taxpayer's total income and the assessed value of the real estate, which must not exceed $684,000. For tax year 2006, an eligible taxpayer's total income cannot exceed $46,000 for a single individual who is not the head of a household, $58,000 for a head of household, and $70,000 for a husband and wife filing a joint return. In order to qualify for the credit, a taxpayer must be age 65 or older and must occupy the property as his or her principal residence. See TIR 06-17 for more information.

Home Heating Fuel Deduction

For 2006, certain taxpayers may take a deduction for expenses incurred for home heating oil, natural gas or propane purchased between January 1, 2006 and March 31, 2006, but only if they did not take the full $800 deduction for home heating fuel in 2005. The deduction is available to single taxpayers with adjusted gross income of $50,000 or less and to joint filers and heads of household with adjusted gross income of $75,000 or less. A qualifying taxpayer who did not take the full $800 deduction in 2005 may take the remainder in 2006 for purchases made between January 1, 2006 and March 31, 2006. See the Schedule Y, line 14 worksheet to calculate the amount of the home heating fuel deduction. Special rules apply for renters and owners of condominiums and cooperative dwellings. See TIR 05-18, available at www.mass.gov/dor, for more information.

Home Energy Efficiency Tax Credit

Recent legislation provides the owner of residential property located in Massachusetts a credit for certain energy efficient heating items purchased between November 1, 2005 and March 31, 2006 for installation in such property. Qualifying purchases include home insulation, new window installation, advanced programmable thermostats, solar hot water systems, fuel-efficient furnaces, boilers, oil, gas, propane, or electric heating systems, certain weather sealing, and other approved purchases. The credit allowed for installation of qualifying purchases in any one residential building is 30% of the cost; however, the credit cannot exceed $600 for a residential dwelling or $1,000 for a multi-unit dwelling. Joint owners of a residential property share any credit available to the property in the same proportion as their ownership interest. The credit allowed under this section may be taken in 2005 or 2006, regardless of the exact date on which any qualifying purchases were made. The amount of credit that exceeds the total tax due for 2005 may be carried over, as reduced, and applied against the tax liability for 2006. To take this credit, see Schedule Z, line 8. For more information, see TIR 05-18.

Claim of Right Deduction

For tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, taxpayers who have paid Massachusetts personal income taxes in a prior year on income attributed to them under a “claim of right” may deduct the amount of that income from their gross income if it later develops that they were not in fact entitled to the income, and have repaid the amounts in question. The deduction is allowed in the year of repayment, provided that the repayment is not otherwise deductible in determining Massachusetts income taxable under M.G.L. ch. 62. For more information, see Schedule Y, line 15 and TIR 06-4.

Commuter Deduction

For tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2006, individuals may deduct certain commuting costs paid in excess of $150 for:

- ▶ tolls paid through the Massachusetts FastLane account; and
- ▶ the cost of weekly or monthly passes for MBTA transit, bus, commuter rail or commuter boat.

The total amount deducted may not exceed $750 per individual. Amounts paid must be reduced by any amounts reimbursed or otherwise deductible. For more information, see TIR 06-14 and the Schedule Y, line 16 worksheet.

Brownfields Credit

Recent legislation extends the Brownfields credit to nonprofit organizations, extends the time frame for eligibility for the credit, and permits the credit to be transferred, sold, or assigned. Under prior law, net response and removal costs incurred by a taxpayer between August 1, 1998 and August 5, 2005, were eligible for the credit provided that the taxpayer commenced and diligently pursued an environmental response action before August 5, 2005. As a result of the recent legislation, the environmental response action commencement cut-off date is changed from August 5, 2005 to August 5, 2011, and the time for incurring eligible costs that qualify for the credit is extended to January 1, 2012. For more information, see TIR 06-16.

Historic Rehabilitation Credit Increased

Recent legislation extends the time period and increases the amount of the Historic Rehabilitation Credit. Under prior law, the credit was available from January 1, 2005 to December 31, 2009, and was limited to $15,000,000 per year. As a result of the recent legislation, credit availability is extended through December 31, 2011, in an amount not to exceed $50,000,000 per year. The credit is also transferable. For more information, see TIR 06-16.

Film Incentive Credits

For tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2006 and before January 1, 2013, motion picture production companies may claim (1) a credit equal to 20% of the total qualifying aggregate payroll for employing persons within the Commonwealth in connection with the filming and production of a motion picture and (2) a credit equal to 25% of their Massachusetts production expenses. Each credit has its own qualification requirements and a taxpayer is allowed to qualify for and claim both credits. However, the total amount of tax credits allowed for any one motion picture may not exceed $7,000,000. The credits are also transferable. For more information, see TIR 06-1 and Schedule Z, line 9.

Medical Device Tax Credit

For tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2006, medical device companies that develop or manufacture medical devices in Massachusetts can claim a credit equal to 100% of the user fees paid by them when submitting certain medical device applications and supplements to the United States Food and Drug Administration. The credit is also transferable. For more information, see TIR 06-22, and Schedule Z, line 10.

New Current Code Provision

As a general rule, Massachusetts will not adopt any federal tax law changes incorporated into the Code after January 1, 2005. However, certain specific provisions of the personal income tax automatically adopt the current Code. Effective for tax years on or after January 1, 2006, a new current Code provision has been adopted. The Massachusetts Health Care bill adopted Health Savings Accounts on a current Code basis. See, St. 2006, c. 58, sec. 10, An Act Providing Access to Affordable, Quality, Accountable Health Care. Other provisions of the Code adopted on a current Code basis are (i) Roth IRAs, (ii) Education IRAs, (iii) the exclusion for gain on the sale of a principal residence, (iv) trade or business expenses, (v) travel expenses, (vi) meals and entertainment expenses, (vii) the maximum deferral amount of government employees' deferred compensation plans, (viii) deduction for health insurance costs of self-employed, (ix) medical and dental expenses and (x) annuities. See TIRs 98-8 and 02-11 for further details on Massachusetts' personal income tax current Code provisions.

Expired Deductions — No Longer Allowed

Massachusetts allows certain federal deductions based on the Internal Revenue Code (the “Code”) as amended and in effect on January 1, 2005. Under the January 1, 2005 Code, certain federal deductions previously allowed have now expired. Even if the deductions are renewed federally, Massachusetts will not adopt the renewal because it will occur after January 1, 2005.

Tuition and Fees Deduction — IRC secs. 62(a)(18) and 222

Effective for tax years on or after January 1, 2006, Massachusetts does not allow the federal deduction for qualified higher education expenses.

Educators Deduction — IRC sec. 62(a)(2)(D)

Effective for tax years on or after January 1, 2006, Massachusetts does not allow the federal deduction for expenses paid or incurred by an eligible educator for books, supplies, equipment and other qualified materials used in the classroom.

Expired Deduction — Allowed Deduction for Clean-Fuel Vehicles and Certain Refueling Property IRC secs. 62(a)(14) and 179A

Under the January 1, 2005 Code, the federal deduction for clean-fuel vehicles is due to expire for tax years after December 31, 2006. The federal Energy Policy Act of 2005 (P.L. 109-58, enacted August 8, 2005) replaced the deduction for clean-fuel vehicles with a tax credit for hybrid vehicles effective for vehicles purchased or placed in service on or after January 1, 2006. This Act changed the expiration date for the deduction from December 31, 2006 to December 31, 2005. However, given the change in effective date was not part of the January 1, 2005 Code, Massachusetts continues to adopt the deduction for the 2006 tax year. See instructions to Schedule Y, line 9.

New Deduction — Not Allowed Deduction for Energy Efficient Improvements to Depreciable Buildings IRC sec. 179C

The federal Energy Policy Act of 2005 (P.L. 109-58, enacted August 8, 2005) added this federal deduction. Massachusetts does not adopt this deduction given it was enacted after January 1, 2005.

Tax-Free Distributions from Individual Retirement Accounts Qualified Charitable Distribution from an Individual Retirement Account (“IRA”) IRC sec. 408(d)(8)

The Pension Protection Act of 2006 (P.L. 109-280, enacted August 17, 2006) allows taxpayers age 70½ or greater to make tax-free distributions from traditional and Roth IRAs to qualified charities for the 2006 and 2007 tax years, not to exceed $100,000 per tax year. Even though this federal Act was enacted after January 1, 2005, Massachusetts adopts this exclusion from gross income given this federal Code provision for IRAs is adopted by Massachusetts on a current Code basis. See TIR 06-20 and Schedule X, line 2 for further details.

Privacy Act Notice

Under the authority of 42 U.S.C. sec. 405(c)(2)(C)(i), and M.G.L. c. 62C, sec. 5, the Department of Revenue has the right to require an individual to furnish his or her Social Security number on a state tax return. This information is mandatory. The Department of Revenue uses Social Security numbers for taxpayer identification to assist in processing and keeping track of returns and in determining and collecting the proper amount of tax due. Under M.G.L. c. 62C, sec. 40, the taxpayer's identifying number is required to process a refund of overpaid taxes. Although tax return information is generally confidential pursuant to M.G.L. c. 62C, sec. 21, the Department of Revenue may disclose return information to other taxing authorities and those entities specified in M.G.L. c. 62C, secs. 21, 22 or 23, and as otherwise authorized by law.

Common Form 1 Mistakes

An incomplete or incorrect return can delay the processing of your return. Listed below are a number of tips to help us process your return as quickly as possible.

Note: You should not staple any items, other than any required Form(s) W-2 or 1099, to Form 1. Any enclosures such as schedules, statements, Form PV, etc. should simply be placed in the envelope along with Form 1 when mailing.

▶ Missing Social Security number(s). Be sure to enter your Social Security number(s) in the spaces provided.

▶ Incorrect computation. The Department corrects many returns each year due to errors in computation. Before mailing your return, check your arithmetic to make sure the computations are correct.

▶ Filing status. Be sure to fill in the correct oval in line 1, Filing Status. This line is frequently overlooked.

▶ Exemptions. Be sure that you specify the number of exemptions you are claiming in line 2, items b, c and d. Enter the appropriate number(s) in the small white box(es). Note: You must complete Schedule DI, Dependent Information, if claiming a dependent exemption in line 2b.

▶ Missing withholding statement(s). Be sure the state copy of Form(s) W-2 (Wages), W-2G (Winings), PWH-WA (Promoter Withholding), 2G and any Form 1099 that show Massachusetts income tax withheld are attached with a single staple. These forms are frequently missing and must be obtained later from you in order to process the return.

▶ Missing supporting schedules. Be sure all required schedules are enclosed to support the information on your Form 1. These include Massachusetts Schedules X, Y, Z, B, C, C-2, D, DI, E, and CB. We cannot process your return without these forms.

▶ Government employee pension contributions. If you were a state, local or county employee and made contributions to a Massachusetts state or local pension plan, your total wages for state purposes will be different from the amount you report on your U.S. return. Report your total state wages from your Form(s) W-2 on Form 1. This is generally box 16 of Form W-2.

▶ Earned Income Credit. You must have your federal earned income credit amount from your U.S. return or as computed by the IRS if you wish to claim the Earned Income Credit on Form 1.

Also, you must complete Schedule DI, Dependent Information, if you have one or more qualifying children/dependents for the Earned Income Credit.

▶ Missing signatures. Thousands of unsigned returns are received by the Department every year. These returns must be returned to the taxpayers for signatures. If a joint return is filed, both spouses must sign the return. Make sure signatures are on the correct lines. Remember to sign your return at the bottom of page 1 of Form 1.

▶ Missing Form PV. If you are making a payment, make certain you fill out Form PV, Massachusetts Income Tax Payment Voucher. Form PV is attached to the back of the envelope found in this booklet. Enclose Form PV and your check with your return. Be sure to use the light blue mailing label when mailing your Form 1 with the Form PV. Note: Go to www.mass.gov/dor and click on Web Services for Income for online payment options.

Filing Your Massachusetts Return

If you were a legal resident of Massachusetts and your gross income was more than $8,000 — whether received from sources inside or outside of Massachusetts — you are required to file a Massachusetts income tax return. If your gross income was $8,000 or less, you do not need to file a return.

If you did not live in Massachusetts but received Massachusetts source income in excess of your personal exemption amount multiplied by the ratio of your Massachusetts income to your total income, you must file as a nonresident on the Nonresident/Part-Year Resident Income Tax Return,

Form 1-NR/PY. Generally, this means you must file Form 1-NR/PY if you were a nonresident of Massachusetts and you received Massachusetts source income in excess of $3,850 if single or married filing separately, $5,950 if head of household or $7,700 if married filing jointly.

If, during the taxable year, you either moved to Massachusetts or terminated your status as a Massachusetts resident to establish residency outside the state, and your gross income was more than $8,000 — whether received from sources inside or outside of Massachusetts — you must file as a part-year resident on the Nonresident/Part-Year Resident Income Tax Return, Form 1-NR/PY.

What Is Gross Income?

Massachusetts gross income includes the following:

- ▶ all wages, salaries, tips, bonuses, fees and other compensation;
- ▶ taxable pensions and annuities;
- ▶ pension income from another state or political subdivision before any deduction;
- ▶ taxable IRA/Keogh and Roth IRA distributions;
- ▶ alimony;
- ▶ income from a business, trade, profession, partnership, S corporation, trust or estate;
- ▶ rental, royalty and REMIC income;
- ▶ unemployment compensation;
- ▶ taxable interest and dividends;
- ▶ gambling winnings;
- ▶ capital gains;
- ▶ taxable portion of scholarships and fellowships; and
- ▶ any other income not specifically exempt.

Massachusetts gross income also includes the following which are not subject to U.S. income tax:

- ▶ interest from obligations of states and their political subdivisions, other than Massachusetts and its political subdivisions; and
- ▶ income earned by a resident from foreign employment.

Massachusetts gross income does not include:

- ▶ interest on obligations of the U.S. and U.S. territories;
- ▶ amounts received as U.S. Social Security, public welfare assistance, Veterans Administration disability payments, G.I. Bill education payments, worker's compensation, gifts, accident or life insurance payments, or certain payments received by Holocaust survivors; and
- ▶ compensation earned by members of the armed forces for service in a combat zone (excluded to the same extent as under federal law).

Am I a Resident, Nonresident, or Part-Year Resident?

There are three different categories of resident status under Massachusetts tax law:

1. You are a Full-Year Resident if your legal residence (domicile) is in Massachusetts or if you maintain a permanent place of abode in Massachusetts and during the year spend more than 183 days, in the aggregate, in the state. If you fit this description you should file a Massachusetts Resident Income Tax Return, Form 1.

2. You are a Nonresident if you were not a resident of Massachusetts but earned Massachusetts income (e.g., from a job in Massachusetts). You must report such income by filing a Massachusetts Nonresident/Part-Year Resident Income Tax Return, Form 1-NR/PY.

3. You are a Part-Year Resident if you either moved into or moved out of Massachusetts during the taxable year. In this case, you must reduce certain income, deductions and exemptions based on the number of days you were a resident or on the amount of your income that is subject to Massachusetts tax. Part-year residents must file a Massachusetts Nonresident/Part-Year Resident Income Tax Return, Form 1-NR/PY.

If both categories 2 and 3 apply to you, you will have to file both as a nonresident and as a part-year resident. In these cases, you must file one Massachusetts Form 1-NR/PY and complete the Resident/Nonresident Worksheet, Schedule R/NR, to calculate the portion of income earned while a part-year resident and the portion of income earned while a nonresident. If you are required to file as both a part-year resident and a nonresident, be sure to fill in the oval below the address section of Form 1-NR/PY to indicate that you are completing Schedule R/NR and enclose Schedule R/NR with your return.

See TIR 95-7 for more information regarding resident status. For information on how to file as a part-year resident/nonresident, visit DOR's website at www.mass.gov/dor or call (617) 887-MDOR or toll-free in Massachusetts 1-800-392-6089.

Are Military Personnel Required to File?

If you enlisted in the service as a Massachusetts resident and have not established a new domicile (legal residence) elsewhere, and if your gross income is more than $8,000, you are required to file a Massachusetts resident income tax return. This applies even though you may be stationed outside of Massachusetts. The terms "legal residence" and "domicile" are used to denote that place where you have your permanent home and to which, whenever you are absent, you have the intention of returning. Nonresident military personnel stationed in Massachusetts may be subject to Massachusetts taxes and should file Form 1-NR/PY if they earn income other than from military sources.

The following example illustrates circumstances under which military pay is or is not taxable in Massachusetts. No guidance is intended on the tax status of such pay under the laws of other states. Generally, when income is taxable in two jurisdictions, a credit for taxes paid to the other jurisdiction is allowed on the taxpayer's return in the state of his/her residence.

Example: Betsy enlisted in the Navy in Massachusetts, but moved with her husband, Eric, from Massachusetts to Delaware when she was stationed there. They did not change their domicile to Delaware. She received military income while her husband received income working as a reporter for a local newspaper.*

Betsy's income from the Navy, as well as her husband's income from the newspaper, are both subject to Massachusetts income tax since she enlisted in the Navy in Massachusetts and they did not become legal residents of Delaware. Betsy and her husband are, therefore, Massachusetts residents, and any income they receive, whether derived in Massachusetts or not, is included in their Massachusetts gross income.

What Are the Rules for Filing a Joint Return?

A joint Form 1 is not allowed if both spouses were not Massachusetts residents for the same portion of 2006.

If you are legally married, you have the option of filing either a joint return or a married filing separate return. Married taxpayers who file a joint return are allowed to claim the following exemptions, deductions and credits which married taxpayers filing separate returns may not claim:

- ▶ a deduction of $3,600 ($7,200 for two or more dependents) for a dependent member of household under age 12, or dependent age 65 or over as of December 31, 2006 (not you or your spouse) or a disabled dependent;
- ▶ No Tax Status if joint Massachusetts AGI was $15,300 or less plus $1,000 for each dependent;
- ▶ Limited Income Credit if joint Massachusetts AGI is between $15,300 and $26,775 plus $1,750 for each dependent;
- ▶ excess unused exemptions against interest income (other than interest from Massachusetts banks), dividends or capital gain income; and
- ▶ a senior circuit breaker tax credit which allows senior citizens meeting certain eligibility criteria to claim a refundable credit on their state income taxes for the real estate taxes paid on the Massachusetts residential property they own or rent, and which they occupy as their principal residence. The credit is the amount by which the real estate tax payment or 25% of the rent constituting real estate tax payments exceeds 10% of their total income, but not more than $870. The credit is refundable to the extent the credit exceeds the taxpayer's tax liability.

If your spouse died during 2006, you may still choose to file a joint return.

How Do I File a Decedent's Return?

A final income tax return must be filed for a taxpayer who died during the taxable year. This return should include income received until date of death. It must be signed and filed by his/her executor, administrator or surviving spouse for the portion of the year before the taxpayer's death. Be sure to fill in oval 1 if the taxpayer who was listed first on last year's income tax return is deceased, or oval 2 if the taxpayer who was listed second on last year's income tax return is deceased. Also, enclose a statement with the refund claimant's name and Social Security number clearly printed.

A joint return may be filed by a surviving spouse. In the case of the death of both spouses, a final return must be filed by their legal representative.

Any income received for the decedent for the taxable year after the decedent's death, and for succeeding taxable years until the estate is completed, must be reported each year on Massachusetts Form 2, Massachusetts Fiduciary Income Tax Return. Form 2 is available online at www.mass.gov/dor.

If the decedent's return shows a refund due, and if the Probate Court has not appointed a legal representative and none is contemplated, a Massachusetts Form M-1310, Statement of Claimant to Refund Due on Behalf of Deceased Taxpayer, must be enclosed with the return so the refund check may be made payable to the proper person.

Should I Make Estimated Tax Payments in 2007?

Every resident or nonresident who expects to pay more than $400 in Massachusetts income tax on income which is not covered by Massachusetts withholding must pay Massachusetts estimated taxes. Estimated tax payments can be made online by using Web Services for Income by visiting www.mass.gov/dor or by filing Massachusetts Form 1-ES. See line 37 instructions and TIR 04-25 for more information.

8 Line by Line Instructions

When to File Your Return

Your Massachusetts Form 1 is due on or before April 17, 2007.

Automatic Extension Granted if 100% Tax Due is Paid by Tax Return Due Date

If line 3 of the Extension Worksheet on page 3 is "0" and 100% of the tax due for 2006 has been paid through:

- withholding;
- timely estimated payments of tax;
- credits from your 2006 return; and
- a refund from the prior tax year applied to the next year's tax liability,

you are no longer required to file Form M-4868, Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File Massachusetts Income Tax Return. However, if you do choose to file Form M-4868 in this instance, you must do so electronically, either by telephone or via DOR's website. See TIR 06-21 for more information.

Also, if you owe no tax or you are making a payment of $5,000 or more, you are required to file your extension by telephone or via the web. If you are making a payment of less than $5,000, you also have the option of filing your extension electronically. If there is a tax due with your extension, payment can be made through Electronic Funds Withdrawal.

Call (617) 660-2222 to file your extension by telephone or visit www.mass.gov/dor to file via the Web.

Note: Your extension will not be valid if you fail to pay 80% of your total tax liability through withholding, estimated tax payments or with your extension. Form M-4868 is available at www.mass.gov/dor or by calling (617) 887-MDOR or toll-free in Massachusetts 1-800-392-6089.

Must I File on a Calendar Year Basis?

No. You may file on a fiscal year basis if you keep your books and records on that fiscal year basis and if you receive permission from the Commissioner of Revenue. If you file on a fiscal year basis, you must file on or before the fifteenth day of the fourth month after the end of your fiscal year. Taxpayers filing on a fiscal year basis must complete and file Form 13, Notice of Designation of Fiscal Year, available at www.mass.gov/dor or by calling (617) 887-MDOR or toll-free in Massachusetts 1-800-392-6089.

What Should I Do If I Make a Mistake or Leave Something Off My Return?

If, after filing your income tax return, you receive an additional tax statement or discover that an error was made, do not submit a second tax return. If corrections are necessary, go to www.mass.gov/dor and use DOR's online abatement application or file Form CA-6, Application for Abatement/Amended Return. Form CA-6 is available at www.mass.gov/dor, or you may have one mailed to you by calling (617) 887-MDOR or toll-free in Massachusetts 1-800-392-6089.

What If I am Unable to Pay?

If you are unable to pay the full amount of tax that you owe, you should pay as much of your tax liability as possible with this return. You will receive a bill from the Department for the remaining amount of tax due plus accrued interest and penalty charges. If the amount of that bill is less than $5,000 and you still cannot pay it in full, you must apply formally to the Department for a small payment agreement in order to avoid collection activity. You can apply for a small payment agreement by visiting Web Services for Income at www.mass.gov/dor.

Note: Do not mail your request for a payment agreement with your tax return. Requests can also be made once a bill is received by calling the Department at (617) 887-MDOR or toll-free in Massachusetts 1-800-392-6089. Setting up a small payment agreement will allow you to make monthly payments within a set time period to meet your unpaid liability.

Name and Address

Print the full name, address, and Social Security number of each person filing the return in the spaces provided. Enter names as they appear on your federal return. Be sure to retain the four-digit Personal Identification Number (PIN) printed on the back cover. You will need it to use DOR's Web-based and/or Interactive Voice Response (IVR) applications, such as checking the status of your refund.

Social Security Number(s)

Be sure to enter your Social Security number(s) on your return. Also, enter your Social Security number on page 2 of Form 1 and on page 2 of Schedules B or C, if filed. Failure to show the correct Social Security number in the space provided will delay the processing of your return. If filing jointly, list your numbers in the order they appear on your federal return. Taxpayers filing their U.S. return using an Individual Taxpayer Identification number (ITIN) should enter that ITIN as their Social Security number in the appropriate space. Also, be sure your employer has listed the correct Social Security number on your Form W-2. If you are married, you must list your spouse's Social Security number even if you are filing a separate return.

To apply for an SSN, you must complete Form SS-5. Form SS-5 is available online at www.socialsecurity.gov, from your local Social Security Administration (SSA) office, or by calling the SSA at 1-800-772-1213. It usually takes about 2 weeks to receive an SSN. If you are a nonresident or resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, you must apply for an ITIN. For details on how to do so, see Form W-7 and its instructions. Form W-7 is available online at www.irs.gov or by calling the IRS at 1-800-829-1040. It usually takes about four to six weeks to receive an ITIN.

Name/Address Change

If you legally changed your name or address in 2006, fill in the oval. If you changed your name, enclose a copy of your Social Security card or driver's license showing your new name. Failure to include this documentation could delay processing of your return. If you move after filing, be sure to leave a forwarding address with your local post office and file a Change of Address Form with the Massachusetts Department of Revenue. This form is available to be filed online at www.mass.gov/dor, or by calling (617) 887-MDOR or toll-free in Massachusetts 1-800-392-6089.

Deceased Taxpayer

Be sure to fill in the appropriate oval if a taxpayer died during the taxable year. For further information, refer to the section "How Do I File a Decedent's Return?"

Voluntary Contribution to State Election Campaign Fund

You, and your spouse if filing jointly, may voluntarily contribute $1 each to the State Election Campaign Fund. The purpose of this fund is to provide limited public financing for campaigns of eligible candidates for statewide and elective office. This contribution will not change your tax or reduce your refund.

Note: Lines without specific instructions are considered to be self-explanatory.

Line 1. Filing Status

Note: More than one filing status may apply to you. If so, you may wish to figure your taxes based upon more than one filing status to see which status is to your benefit.

Single

Fill in the “Single” oval if you were single as of December 31, 2006. This status applies to you if at the close of the taxable year you fit into any of the following categories:

- ▶ you were unmarried;
- ▶ you were a widow or widower whose spouse died before 2006; or
- ▶ you were legally separated under a final judgment of the probate court.

Please note that you are not single if: (1) you have obtained a judgment of divorce which has not yet become final; (2) you have a temporary support order; or (3) you and your spouse simply choose to live apart.

Married Filing Joint Return

Fill in the “Married filing joint return” oval if you were legally married as of December 31, 2006. Both spouses are responsible for the accuracy of all information entered on a joint return and both must sign. A joint return is allowed even if only one spouse had income or if one spouse died during 2006. For further information, refer to the section “What Are the Rules for Filing a Joint Return?”

Note: Same-sex spouses filing a Massachusetts joint return should combine their figures from their separate U.S. returns.

Married Filing Separate Return

Fill in the “Married filing separate return” oval if you were legally married as of December 31, 2006, and if you and your spouse are not filing a joint return. Be sure to enter your spouse’s Social Security number in the space provided.

Head of Household

Fill in the “Head of household” oval if you qualify to file this status federally. This status is for unmarried people who paid over half the cost of keeping up a home for a qualifying person, such as a child who lived with you or your dependent parent. Certain married people who lived apart from their spouse for the last six months of 2006 may also be able to use this status. See IRS Publication 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for more information.

Noncustodial Parent

Fill in this oval if you are a “noncustodial parent.” A noncustodial parent is defined as a person who has a minor child, but does not live with the child.

Note: If you are the biological parent of a child, but your parental rights have been terminated, you are not the noncustodial parent of that child.

Schedule TDS — Inconsistent Filing Position Penalty

Fill in the oval and attach Schedule TDS, Taxpayer Disclosure Statement, if you are disclosing any inconsistent filing positions. Schedule TDS is available on our website at www.mass.gov/dor. The inconsistent filing position penalty (see TIR 06-5, section IV) applies to taxpayers that take an inconsistent position in reporting income. These taxpayers must “disclose the inconsistency” when filing their Massachusetts return. If such inconsistency is not disclosed, the taxpayer will be subject to a penalty equal to the amount of tax attributable to the inconsistency. This penalty is in addition to any other penalties that may apply.

A taxpayer is deemed to have taken an “inconsistent position” when the taxpayer pays less tax in Massachusetts based upon an interpretation of Massachusetts law that differs from the position taken by the taxpayer in another state where the taxpayer files a return and the governing law in that other state “is the same in all material respects” as the Massachusetts law. The Commissioner may waive or abate the penalty if the inconsistency or failure to disclose was attributable to reasonable cause and not willful neglect.

New — Whole Dollar Method Now Required

The Department of Revenue now requires that the whole dollar method be used for entries made on forms or schedules. For example, amounts between $1.00 and $1.49 should be entered as $1.00 and amounts between $1.50 and $2.00 should be entered as $2.00. However, calculations on worksheets used to reach amounts shown on the return may be made in one of two ways: (1) round amounts before adding them up and enter the resulting total on the form, or (2) add amounts to the penny, and then round to the whole dollar for entry on the form. Either method is acceptable as long as one method is used consistently throughout the return.

Line 2. ExemptionsLine 2a: Personal Exemptions

Each taxpayer is entitled to claim a personal exemption. The amount of your personal exemption depends on your filing status as filled in line 1.

- ▶ If you are single or married filing a separate return, enter $3,850 in line 2a.
- ▶ If filing as head of household, enter $5,950 in line 2a.
- ▶ If married filing a joint return, enter $7,700 in line 2a.

Line 2b: Number of Dependents

You may claim a $1,000 exemption for each of your dependents if you claimed them on your U.S. return. Enter in the box in item b the number of dependents you listed on U.S. Form 1040, line 6c or U.S. Form 1040A, line 6c. Do not include yourself or your spouse. Then, multiply that total by $1,000 and enter the total amount in line 2b. Be sure to fill out Schedule DI, Dependent Information, if you are claiming a dependent exemption(s). Failure to do so will delay the processing of your return.

Note: In a few cases, the number of dependents claimed for Massachusetts purposes and for U.S. purposes may differ. For U.S. tax purposes, a dependent exemption is not allowed for a person who would otherwise be a dependent but who files his/her own income tax return and claims a personal exemption. For Massachusetts tax purposes, you can claim a dependent exemption for such a person. If you claim such a dependent in Massachusetts, increase the number reported in item b from your U.S. return by the number of such additional dependents. Also, same-sex joint filers should combine the number of dependents from their federal returns to arrive at the number of Massachusetts dependents. See TIR 04-17 for more information.

Line 2c: Age 65 or Over Before 2007

You are allowed an additional $700 exemption if you were age 65 or over before January 1, 2007. If your spouse was age 65 or over and you are filing a joint return, you may also claim a $700 exemption for your spouse. Fill in the appropriate oval(s) and enter the total number of persons age 65 or over in the small box. Multiply that total by $700 and enter the total in line 2c.

Line 2d: Blindness Exemption

You are allowed an additional $2,200 exemption if you are legally blind. If your spouse is also legally blind and you are filing a joint return, you may also claim a $2,200 exemption for your spouse. Fill in the appropriate oval(s) and enter the total number of blindness exemptions in the small box. Multiply that total by $2,200 and enter the total in line 2d.

Legal Definition of Blindness

You are legally blind and qualify for the blindness exemption if your visual acuity with correction is 20/200 or less in the better eye, or if your peripheral field of vision has been contracted to a 10-degree radius or less, regardless of visual acuity.

Line 2e: Other: Medical/Dental Expenses and Adoption Agency Fee

You may claim an exemption for medical and dental expenses paid during 2006 only if you itemized these expenses on your U.S. Form 1040, Schedule A. If you are married filing a joint U.S. Form 1040, you must file a joint Massachusetts Form 1 to claim this exemption. Enter in line 2e, item 1 the amount reported on your U.S. Form 1040, Schedule A, line 4.

Note: Same-sex joint filers should recalculate their U.S. Form 1040, Schedule A by combining allowable expenses as reported on U.S. Form 1040, Schedule A, line 1 and their adjusted gross incomes as reported on U.S. Form 1040, Schedule A, line 2 in calculating U.S. Form 1040, Schedule A, line 4.

If you paid adoption fees to a licensed adoption agency during 2006, you are eligible for an exemption of the total amount of the fees paid during the year. Fees paid during 2006 to an agency licensed to place children for adoption on account of the adoption process of a minor child regardless of whether an adoption actually took place during 2006 should also be included for this exemption. Enter this amount in line 2e, item 2.

Add items 1 and 2 and enter the total in line 2e.

Line 2f: Total Exemptions

Add items 2a through 2e and enter the total in line 2f. This amount should also be entered on line 18 of Form 1.

5.3% Income

Note: DOR and the IRS maintain an extensive exchange program, routinely sharing computer tapes and audit results. Discrepancies between income, deductions, and schedules reported federally and on this return, except those allowed under state law, will be identified and may result in a state audit or further investigation.

Line 3. Wages, Salaries, Tips and Other Employee Compensation

Report in line 3 total state wages and allocated tips from Form(s) W-2. Income earned by a Massachusetts resident in another state is subject to taxation in Massachusetts. Generally, your total wages and allocated tips will be the same amount reported on your U.S. 1040 or 1040A, line 7; or 1040EZ, line 1. Following are instances that require an adjustment to these amounts.

Massachusetts Legal Residents Working in a Foreign Country

Income earned by a Massachusetts resident in a foreign country is subject to taxation in Massachusetts. If you excluded part or all of the compensation earned in a foreign country on your U.S. return (under Section 911 of the U.S. IRC), you must include any such amount in line 3 for Massachusetts tax purposes.

State or Local Employees Contributing to Pension Plans

If you are a Massachusetts state, city, town or county employee and contributed to your pension plan, enter in line 3 the Massachusetts W-2 state wage amount. This is generally box 16 of Form W-2. This amount will be higher than the U.S. amount because your pension contributions are excluded from your income for U.S. tax purposes. Contributions up to $2,000 per taxpayer may still be deducted in line 11.

Line 4. Taxable Pensions and Annuities

Income from most private pensions or annuity plans is taxable in Massachusetts. Certain government pensions, however, are exempt under Massachusetts law. In general, exempt pensions include contributory pensions from the U.S. Government or the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and its political subdivisions, and noncontributory military pensions. The following section describes some specific pensions which are exempt. If your pension is exempt, enter "0" in line 4 and note the source on the dotted line to the left.

If your pension is not exempt, you should generally enter in line 4 the taxable amount reported on your U.S. Form 1040, line 16b, or U.S. Form 1040A, line 12b. In some cases, however, Massachusetts law requires an adjustment to the federal amount. Distributions from annuity, stock bonus, pension, profit-sharing or deferred payment plans or contracts described in Sections 403(b) and 404 of the U.S. IRC must be adjusted to account for your contributions that have been previously taxed. Subtract from such income (as reported on your U.S. Form 1040, line 16a, or U.S. Form 1040A, line 12a) the amount of your contributions which was previously taxed by Massachusetts until the total of your taxed contributions is received. If your pension falls into this category, enter the adjusted amount in line 4. If you are receiving distributions from an IRA or Keogh plan, do not report the income here; instead, see the instructions for Schedule X, line 2.

Note: Massachusetts does not tax Social Security income; therefore, you should not report such income on Massachusetts Form 1.

What pensions are exempt?

- ▶ Pension income received from a contributory annuity, pension, endowment or retirement fund of the U.S. Government or the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and its political subdivisions.
- ▶ Pensions from other states or its political subdivisions which do not tax such income from Massachusetts or its political subdivisions may be eligible to be deducted from Massachusetts taxable income. This pension income, however, should be reported in line 4. Refer to Schedule Y, line 13 instructions to determine eligibility for this deduction.
- ▶ Noncontributory pension income or survivorship benefits received from the U.S. uniformed services (Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force, Coast Guard, commissioned corps of the Public Health Service and National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration) is exempt from taxation in Massachusetts.
- ▶ Massachusetts state court judges who were appointed on or after January 2, 1975 are participants in the Massachusetts contributory retirement system and their pensions are nontaxable. State court judges who were appointed prior to January 2, 1975 receive taxable noncontributory pensions.

If you retired under Chapter 32, Sections 56–60 of Massachusetts General Laws and are a veteran who began Massachusetts state service prior to July 1, 1939, all or part of your pension income may be subject to tax. If you elected to receive your proceeds from contributions in one lump-sum distribution, your original contributions to the retirement system are not taxable. Noncontributory pension income received after a lump-sum distribution is fully taxable and should be reported in line 4.

How do I report lump-sum distributions?

If you were an employee of the U.S., Massachusetts or one of its political subdivisions and left public employment prior to retirement, you are not required to report as income the lump-sum distribution.

Lump-sum distributions of qualified employee benefit plans in excess of the employee's contributions which were previously subject to Massachusetts tax (or not previously excluded from Massachusetts tax) must be reported in line 4. Generally, qualified rollovers are not taxable in Massachusetts to the extent they are not taxable on your U.S. return. Lump-sum distributions related to IRA/Keogh and Roth IRA distributions should be reported in line 9.

Rollover from a traditional IRA to a Roth IRA. Taxpayers with $100,000 or less in federal adjusted gross income are allowed to make partial or complete rollovers from existing IRAs to Roth IRAs. Any taxable portion of these rollovers included in federal gross income is also included in Massachusetts gross income, except for amounts previously subject to Massachusetts personal income tax. See Schedule X, line 2 instructions for further details.

Line 5. Interest from Massachusetts Banks

Note: This exemption amount does not apply to your U.S. tax return.

Do not subtract interest forfeited or penalties charged to you for early savings withdrawal. You will be allowed to deduct these amounts on Schedule Y, line 2. All other interest, unless exempt, should be entered on Massachusetts Schedule B. Interest on an IRA/Keogh is not taxable until distributed.

Note: You may substitute U.S. Schedule C or C-EZ for Massachusetts Schedule C if there are no differences between the amounts reported on U.S. Schedule C or C-EZ and amounts that would be reported on Massachusetts Schedule C. Be sure to write "No Massachusetts Differences" on the top of the U.S. Schedule C or C-EZ.

If you operate a farm as an individual or cooperative, enter the amount of income or loss from operating a farm from U.S. Schedule F, Profit or Loss from Farming, line 36. Enclose a copy of U.S. Schedule F. Complete a pro-forma U.S. Schedule F to report Massachusetts differences, such as bonus depreciation.

Line 7. Rental, Royalty, REMIC, Partnership, S Corporation, Trust Income or Loss

Enter in line 7 the total of: Massachusetts Schedule E, Part I, line 5; Part II, line 8; and Part III, line 11. Remember to subtract losses when calculating the total. You must enclose Massachusetts Schedule E. You must retain with your records documentation to substantiate any differences in amounts entered on the Massachusetts and U.S. schedules. See Massachusetts Schedule E instructions for an explanation of possible differences.

Line 8a. Unemployment Compensation

If you received unemployment compensation, enter in line 8a the amount reported on U.S. Form 1040, line 19; 1040A, line 13; or 1040EZ, line 3. If you elected voluntary withholding of Massachusetts state income taxes on your unemployment compensation, be sure to include the amount of Massachusetts state income tax withheld, as reported on Form 1099-G, on Form 1, line 35 and attach with a single staple, where indicated on the return, Form 1099-G.

Note: DOR routinely matches the amounts in line 8a with files from the Division of Unemployment Assistance.

Line 8b. Massachusetts State Lottery Winnings

Enter in line 8b all winnings from the Massachusetts state lottery. Do not enter less than "0." You may only deduct the price of your winning ticket. Lottery losses claimed as itemized deductions on U.S. Form 1040, Schedule A are not allowed on your Massachusetts return.

Note: DOR routinely matches the amounts in line 8b with files from the Lottery Commission.

Add lines 8a and 8b and enter the result in line 8.

Deductions

Lines 11 through 15

Massachusetts allowable deductions differ from "Itemized Deductions" on Schedule A of U.S. Form 1040. You may claim only the deductions specified on Massachusetts Form 1, lines 11 through 14 and Schedule Y.

Please read the instructions for lines 12 and 13 to determine which deduction you qualify for or which is better for you. You cannot claim a deduction in both lines 12 and 13.

You are not allowed to deduct amounts unless they are directly related to income that is subject to taxation and reported on Massachusetts Form 1.

Line 11. Amount Paid to Social Security (FICA), Medicare, Railroad, U.S. or Massachusetts Retirement Systems

If you have paid into any of the retirement systems listed above during 2006, you may deduct those contributions, up to a maximum of $2,000.

Enter in lines 11a and 11b the amount you, and your spouse if filing jointly, paid to Social Security (FICA), Medicare or Railroad Retirement and the U.S. or Massachusetts retirement systems during 2006 as shown on your Form W-2, but not more than $2,000 each. Payment amounts may not be combined or transferred from one spouse to the other. Add lines 11a and 11b and enter the result in line 11. Be sure to add any amount of Medicare tax withheld as shown on Form W-2 and any amount of self-employment tax as reported on your U.S. Form 1040 to the amount of Social Security tax withheld, the total not to exceed $2,000 per person.

Note: Medicare premiums deducted from your Social Security or retirement payments are not deductible.

Payments to an IRA, Keogh, Simplified Employee Pension Plan (SEP), or Savings Incentive Match Plan for Employees (SIMPLE) Account are not deductible for Massachusetts income tax purposes.

Line 12. Child Under Age 13, or Disabled Dependent/Spouse Care Expenses

Massachusetts now allows taxpayers to exceed the federal limit on employment-related expenses for the care of a qualified child under the age of 13, a disabled dependent or a disabled spouse. The maximum deduction is $4,800 for one qualifying individual, and $9,600 for two or more qualifying individuals. Complete the following worksheet to calculate your Massachusetts child or disabled dependent/spouse care expense deduction.

Note: You cannot claim this deduction if married filing a separate return.

Taxpayers who received dependent care benefits should complete a pro forma U.S. Form 2441 or U.S. Form 1040A, Schedule 2. When completing this pro forma form, taxpayers should enter $4,800 (or $9,600 for two or more qualifying persons) in line 29 of U.S. Form 2441 or line 23 of U.S. Form 1040A, Schedule 2. The amount from this pro forma Form 2441, line 33 or U.S. Form 1040A, Schedule 2, line 27 should then be entered in line 1 of the following worksheet.

Note: Same-sex joint filers should complete a pro forma U.S. Form 2441 or U.S. Form 1040A, Schedule 2. In addition to changing the maximum amount of the deduction allowed on U.S. Form 2441 or U.S. Form 1040A, Schedule 2 (see preceding paragraph), same-sex spouses should prepare the pro forma federal forms as though they were filing a joint federal return. See TIR 04-17 for more information.

Use this worksheet to calculate your Massachusetts child under age 13 or disabled dependent/spouse care deduction.

1. Enter the amount of qualified expenses you incurred and paid in 2006 for a qualifying person(s). This amount may exceed the federal limit of $3,000 for one qualifying person or $6,000 for two or more persons. However, do not enter more than $4,800 for one qualifying person or $9,600 for two or more persons
2. Enter the amount from U.S. Form 2441, line 4, or U.S. Form 1040A, Schedule 2, line 4
3. Enter the amount from U.S. Form 2441, line 5, or U.S. Form 1040A, Schedule 2, line 5
4. Enter the smallest of line 1, 2 or 3
5. If you paid 2005 expenses in 2006, enter the amount of the allowed 2005 expenses used to compute the credit on U.S. Form 2441, line 9, or U.S. Form 1040A, Schedule 2, line 9. Otherwise, enter "0"
6. Add lines 4 and 5. Enter here and in Form 1, line 12

Note: If you choose to take a deduction in line 12, you cannot take the deduction in line 13.

Line 13. Dependent Member(s) of Household Under Age 12, or Dependents Age 65 or Over (not you or your spouse) as of December 31, 2006, or Disabled Dependent

You may deduct $3,600 for a dependent member of household, or $7,200 for two or more dependents, under age 12, or dependent age 65 or over (not you or your spouse) as of December 31, 2006, or disabled dependent. Enter the number of qualified dependents in line 13a, not to exceed two, and multiply that amount by $3,600. Enter the result in line 13. Only if single, head of household or married filing jointly. You cannot claim this deduction if married filing a separate return.

Note: You may claim an amount in line 13 only if there is no entry in line 12.

Line 14. 50% Rental Deduction

You may be entitled to a rental deduction equal to one-half (50%) of the rent you paid during 2006 (up to a maximum of $3,000 per return) for your principal residence in Massachusetts. Enter the total amount of qualified rent paid by you during 2006 in line 14a. Divide line 14a by 2 and enter the result, or $3,000 ($1,500 if married filing a separate return) — whichever is smaller — in line 14.

Note: This deduction amount does not apply to your U.S. tax return.

What Qualifies for the Rental Deduction?

The deduction must be for rent you paid to a landlord for the rental or lease of your principal residence in Massachusetts.

If two or more persons jointly rent a unit, each occupant using it as his/her principal residence is entitled to a deduction based on the amount of rent that each person paid.

If the rent is paid by a third party (such as a parent) who maintains a principal residence elsewhere, no 50% rental deduction is allowed for either party.

A principal residence does not include any residence for vacation, an apartment for a person on a temporary assignment or a student or faculty member who has a principal residence elsewhere. It also does not include any apartment or house in Massachusetts of a nonresident who has a legal residence in another state or country.

Payment for occupying a hotel, motel or rooming house is not considered rent unless a rental agreement exists. All separately stated charges such as utilities, furnishings or parking cannot be included in rent for purposes of this deduction. Also, rent does not include any advance payments (such as security deposit, last month's rent, etc.) until actually applied as rent.

How Do I Calculate My Rental Deduction If I Am Married Filing Separately?

If a husband and wife file separate returns, they are each entitled to a rental deduction equal to 50% of the rent each pays, not to exceed $1,500 per return. However, a married couple filing separately may allocate the rent deduction differently, provided the amount taken by each spouse does not exceed 50% of the rent actually paid by that spouse, and provided their combined rental deductions do not exceed $3,000. If the allocation results in one spouse claiming a deduction in excess of $1,500, that spouse must enclose with his/her return a statement signed by the other spouse indicating consent to the allocation. The statement must contain the name, address and Social Security number of the consenting spouse and the amount of rental deduction taken by that spouse.

Line 15. Other Deductions (from Schedule Y)

Enter the total from Schedule Y, line 17. Be sure to enclose Schedule Y with your return. Failure to do so will delay the processing of your return.

If line 21 is more than $24,000, multiply the amount in line 21 by .053 and enter the result in line 22. You must use the tax table if line 21 is $24,000 or less.

Note: Personal income tax forms must provide an election to voluntarily pay tax at a rate of 5.85% on taxable income which would otherwise be taxed at a rate of 5.3%. The election to pay tax at the rate of 5.85% does not apply to items of income taxed at 12% (short-term capital gains and gains on collectibles). Any remaining excess amount may then be applied against all your long-term capital gain income. Complete the following worksheet only if line 17 is less than line 18 to determine if you qualify for the excess exemption and the Schedule Y, Line 14 Worksheet on page 20 to determine if you qualify for the excess deduction. This fund has helped restore and conserve in the Commonwealth populations of the Bald Eagle, Hessel's Hairstreak Butterfly, the Redbelly Turtle and the Plymouth Gentian.

b. Organ Transplant Fund: The Organ Transplant Fund is administered by the Massachusetts Department of Public Health. All contributions received by the Fund assist patients with the costs of medications without which they might lose their transplanted organs.

c. Massachusetts AIDS Fund: The Massachusetts AIDS Fund is administered by the Massachusetts Department of Public Health. Contributions are used for research, experimental treatment and education related to Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS). Massachusetts residents living with AIDS receive experimental treatment through clinical trials which are wholly supported with this Fund. The Fund also educates people with AIDS about treatment options and how to gain access to medication and experimental treatment.

The use tax does not apply to out-of-state purchases that are exempt from the sales tax (for example, clothing that costs $175 or less). Examples of taxable items include automobiles, computers, furniture, jewelry, cameras, appliances, and any other item that is not exempt. Generally, anyone who pays a sales or use tax to another state or territory of the United States on tangible personal property to be used in Massachusetts is entitled to a credit against the Massachusetts use tax, up to 5%. This credit is allowed for sales or use tax paid to another state only if that state has a corresponding credit similar to the Massachusetts credit. See TIR 03-1 for more information. Prepare and retain with your records a list of your purchases in 2006 that are subject to the Massachusetts use tax.

Taxpayers may use the following table to self-report a “safe-harbor” amount of use tax based on their Massachusetts adjusted gross income. A taxpayer may pay this amount in lieu of the actual amount of use tax that would otherwise be due with respect to such purchases. Individual taxpayers electing to report use tax under this method will not be assessed additional use tax on audit, even if the actual amount of use tax due would have been greater than the amount from the schedule.

The estimated liability applies only to purchases of any individual items each having a total sales price of less than $1,000. For each taxable item purchased at a sales price of $1,000 or greater, the actual use tax liability for each purchase must be added to the amount of the estimated liability derived from the table below. See TIR 04-26.

Line 37. 2006 Massachusetts Estimated Tax Payments

If you paid Massachusetts estimated income tax for 2006, enter in line 37 the total of all Massachusetts estimated tax payments. Be sure to include any last quarter (of 2006) payment made on or before January 15, 2007. Do not include any 2005 overpayment applied to your 2006 estimated tax. Every resident who expects to pay more than $400 in Massachusetts income tax on income which is not covered by Massachusetts withholding must pay Massachusetts estimated taxes. Estimated tax payments can be made online by using Web Services for Income by visiting www.mass.gov/dor or by filing Massachusetts Form 1-ES.

Income which is not subject to withholding includes:

- salaries and wages where the employer is not subject to Massachusetts withholding;
- dividends and interest, including interest from Massachusetts banks;
- gains from capital assets;
- income from an individual trade, business, profession, partnership or S corporation;
- income from any estate or trust not taxed directly;
- certain pensions;
- taxable Keogh or IRA distributions;
- rental, royalty or REMIC income;
- unemployment compensation (from which no Massachusetts income tax was withheld);
- alimony received;
- contributions to SIMPLE accounts;
- illegal income; and
- any other income received while a Massachusetts resident from which Massachusetts tax will not be withheld.

Generally, the first payment must be filed on or before April 15 of the taxable year. The estimated tax may be paid in full with the first payment or in four installments on or before April 15, June 15, September 15 of the current taxable year and January 15 of the following year.

If you wish to verify estimated tax payments that have already been made, check the Estimated Tax Payment History Application at www.mass.gov/dor. You will need to know the PIN that appeared on the back of your Form 1 booklet or the amount of last year’s refund or balance due to access your account.

You may request your employer to withhold additional amounts from your salary on Form M-4, Massachusetts Employee’s Withholding Exemption Certificate to cover the taxes on other income so that you do not have to file and pay estimated taxes.

If 80% of the tax is not paid throughout the year through withholding and/or estimated payments, a penalty may be imposed.

Line 38. Earned Income Credit

The earned income credit is a tax credit for certain taxpayers who work and have earned income under $38,348. Taxpayers who qualify for and claim the federal earned income credit are allowed a refundable credit equal to 15% of the federal amount. If the credit due the taxpayer exceeds the amount of the total income tax payable for the year by the taxpayer, the excess amount of the credit will be refunded to the taxpayer without interest. You must enter the number of qualifying children, if any, in line 38a. Then, enter the federal earned income credit amount from your U.S. Form 1040, line 66a, 1040A, line 40a; or 1040EZ, line 8a. Multiply this amount by .15 (15%) and enter the result in line 38. Be sure to fill out Schedule DI, Dependent Information, if you are claiming this credit for one or more qualifying children/dependents. Failure to do so will delay the processing of your return.

If you choose to have the IRS compute your federal earned income credit, wait until the IRS notifies you of that amount before making an entry in line 38. If you have not received your earned income credit amount as computed by the IRS by April 17, 2007, you may file Massachusetts Form M-4868, Application for Automatic Six-Month Extension of Time to File Massachusetts Income Tax Return. See page 3 for information about filing your extension by telephone or via the Web. For more information about the federal earned income tax credit, see IRS publication 596, available at www.irs.gov.

Line 39. Senior Circuit Breaker Credit

Certain senior citizens in Massachusetts may be eligible to claim a refundable credit on their state income taxes for the real estate taxes paid on the Massachusetts residential property they own or rent and which they occupy as their principal residence. The maximum credit allowed is $870 for the tax year beginning January 1, 2006. If the credit due the taxpayer exceeds the amount of the total income tax payable for the year by the taxpayer, the excess amount of the credit will be refunded to the taxpayer without interest. To determine if you qualify for this credit, refer to the Senior Circuit Breaker Credit instructions in this booklet.

If you qualify for this credit and you are a homeowner, enter the amount from Schedule CB, Circuit Breaker Credit, line 20; if you are a renter, enter the amount from line 24. Be sure to complete and enclose Schedule CB with your return.

Line 40. Payments Made with Extension

If you filed Massachusetts Form M-4868, Application for Automatic Six-Month Extension of Time to File Massachusetts Income Tax Return, for 2006 on or before April 17, 2007, enter in line 40 the amount you paid with Massachusetts Form M-4868.

Refund AmountLine 42. Overpayment

If line 34 is smaller than line 41, subtract line 34 from line 41 and enter the result in line 42. This is the amount of your overpayment. If line 34 is larger than line 41, go to line 45. If line 34 and line 41 are equal, enter "0" in line 44.

Line 43. Amount of Overpayment You Want Applied to Your 2007 Massachusetts Estimated Tax

Enter the amount of your 2006 overpayment that you wish to apply to your 2007 Massachusetts estimated tax. Once an election is made to apply your overpayment to your 2007 estimated tax, it cannot be refunded later or applied to any additional tax you may owe for 2006. The amount entered in this line can only be claimed as a credit on your 2007 Massachusetts return.

Line 44. Refund Amount

Subtract line 43 from line 42. Enter the result in line 44. This is the amount of your refund.

Note: Your state tax refund may be taxable on your U.S. tax return if you deducted state income tax paid as an itemized deduction on U.S. Schedule A.

Direct Deposit

You may elect to have your refund deposited directly into your savings or checking account. Check with your financial institution to make sure that it accepts direct deposit and verify the routing transit number (RTN) of the issuing financial institution. If we are unable to honor your request for a direct deposit, a paper check will be sent to you.

A sample check from JANE TAXPAYER and JOHN TAXPAYER, 123 Main Street, Anyplace, MA 02000. The check number is 1234. It is dated 12/31/06 and payable to the order of $1,000.00. The routing number is 020250025 and the account number is 02020186. The check is from YOUR BANK, Anyplace, MA 02000.

The routing number of your financial institution is nine digits and begins with 01 through 12 or 21 through 32. The account number can be up to 17 characters (both numbers and letters). Omit hyphens, spaces and special symbols. Enter the number from left to right and leave any unused boxes blank. You must enter the routing number and the account number in the spaces provided in line 44 if you are requesting direct deposit. Failure to do so will result in your request for direct deposit being denied. See sample check for location of this information.

Note: Only one direct deposit is allowed per account number.

Tax DueLine 45. Tax Due

If line 34 is larger than line 41, subtract line 41 from line 34, and enter the result in line 45. This is the amount of tax you owe with your return. Pay in full with your return. Go to Web Services for Income at www.mass.gov/dor for online payment options. If you need to mail your payment, make your check or money order payable to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and write your Social Security number on the front of your check or money order in the lower left corner. Complete and remove Form PV, Massachusetts Income Tax Payment Voucher, attached to the back of the envelope included in this booklet. Enclose the check and Form PV with your return. Form PV must be included with your check to ensure proper crediting of your account. Be sure to use the light blue mailing label when mailing your Form 1 with the Form PV.

Failure to file or failure to pay the proper amount of tax when due will result in an increasing amount of interest and penalties. It is to your advantage to file when your return is due, whether or not you are able to make full payment.

If you owe any interest, penalty or addition for the underpayment of estimated tax, add those amounts to the tax you owe and enter the total amount in line 45.

What Are Interest and Penalties?

Interest: If you fail to pay the tax when due, interest will be charged. For an explanation of how interest is compounded in Massachusetts, see TIR 92-6 or call the Customer Service Bureau at (617) 887-MDOR or toll-free, in Massachusetts at 1-800-392-6089.

Penalty for Late Payment: The penalty for late payment is ½% per month (or fraction thereof) of the tax due, up to a maximum of 25%.

Penalty for Failure to File: The penalty for failure to file a tax return by the due date is 1% per month (or fraction thereof) of the tax due, up to a maximum of 25%. If you were required to file a tax return for income received in any prior year and you did not file, you must file for that prior year.

Penalty for Protested ("Bad") Check: If your check is not honored by your bank because of insufficient funds or any other reason, a penalty may be added equal to 2% of the amount of the check or $10, whichever is greater (but no more than the amount of the check).

Addition for Underpayment of Estimated Tax: You will generally be subject to this addition to tax if you did not have withholding and/or estimated payments equal to 80% of the total tax liability required to be paid and your 2006 tax due after credits and withholding is greater than $400. The 80% requirement is reduced to 66⅔% for individuals who receive two-thirds of their income from fishing or farming. If you failed to meet these requirements, you must complete and enclose Massachusetts Form M-2210 to calculate the amount you must add to line 45. You do not have to complete Form M-2210 if the balance due with your return is $400 or less.

You may not be subject to an underpayment penalty if you qualify for one of the following exceptions:

- you are a qualified farmer or fisherman and are paying the full amount of the tax due on or before March 1, 2007;
- you were a Massachusetts resident and were not liable for 2005 taxes (where the taxable year was 12 months); or
- the sum of your estimated payments and withholding equals or exceeds your 2005 total tax due (where the taxable year was 12 months and a return was filed).

If you qualify for one of these exceptions, please fill in the oval marked "EX" under line 45 on Form 1 and enclose Form M-2210 indicating which of the exceptions applies to your circumstances.

A limited number of taxpayers may also qualify for a waiver of the underpayment penalty for one or more installments if:

- ▶ the underpayment was because of casualty or disaster; or
- ▶ during 2005 or 2006 you retired after reaching age 62 or became disabled and the underpayment was due to reasonable cause and not willful neglect.

If you think you qualify for one of these waivers, go to www.mass.gov/dor and use DOR's online application for abatement/amended return at www.mass.gov/dor or enclose Form M-2210 and an explanatory statement with your return and fill in the oval marked "EX" under line 45. If your waiver is not for all four installments, complete Form M-2210 to calculate the underpayment penalty for the installments which are not covered by the waiver. Form M-2210 is available by visiting www.mass.gov/dor.

Penalty for Failure to Report Federal Change: If the U.S. Internal Revenue Service changes your income for a prior year (generally through audit), file an online application for abatement/amended return at www.mass.gov/dor within one year of the final federal determination to avoid this penalty. This penalty is equal to 10% of the additional tax due or $100, whichever is smaller. If the change indicates a refund, file an online application for abatement/amended return within one year, including acceptance of an amended federal return by the Internal Revenue Service.

Sign Here

Now that you have completed Form 1, sign your name. Your spouse must also sign if this is a joint return. Write the date you signed the return. Remember to sign your name(s) at the bottom of page 1 of Form 1.

Attach to your Form 1, with a single staple, all state copies of your Forms W-2, W-2G, PWH-WA, 2G and any Forms 1099 which included Massachusetts withholding. If making a payment, be sure to enclose Form PV with your Form 1. Form PV is attached to the back of the envelope found in this booklet. Form PV must be included with your check to ensure proper crediting of your account. Make your check or money order payable to Commonwealth of Massachusetts and be sure to sign the check and write your Social Security number on it. Also, be sure to use the light blue mailing label when mailing your Form 1 with the Form PV.

Paid Preparer Must Sign Your Return

Generally, anyone you pay to prepare your return must sign it in the space provided. Tax return preparers are authorized to sign the return by means of a rubber stamp, mechanical device, or computer software program, which must include either a facsimile or printed name of the preparer. Preparers are personally responsible for affixing their signatures to returns. Preparers must also provide their Social Security Number (SSN) or Preparer Tax Identification Number (PTIN) and Employer Identification Number (EIN) in the spaces provided. The preparer must give you a copy of the return for your records. Someone who prepares your return but does not charge you should not sign your return.

Paid Preparer Authorization

If you want to allow the Massachusetts Department of Revenue (DOR) to discuss your 2006 tax return with the paid preparer who signed it, fill in the "Yes" oval in the signature area of the return. This authorization applies only to the individual whose signature appears in the "Paid Preparer" section of your return. It does not apply to the firm, if any, shown in that section.

If you fill in the "Yes" oval, you, and your spouse if filing a joint return, are authorizing DOR to call the paid preparer to answer any questions that may arise during the processing of your return. You are also authorizing the paid preparer to:

- ▶ give DOR any information that is missing from your return;
- ▶ call DOR for information about the processing of your return or the status of your refund or payment(s); and
- ▶ respond to certain DOR notices that you have shared with the preparer about math errors, offsets and return preparation. The notices will not be sent to the preparer.

You are not authorizing the paid preparer to receive any refund check, bind you to anything (including any additional tax liability), or otherwise represent you before DOR. If you want to expand the paid preparer's authorization, see Form M-2848, Power of Attorney and Declaration of Representative. Form M-2848 is available by visiting www.mass.gov/dor.

The authorization cannot be revoked. However, the authorization will automatically end no later than the due date (without regard to extensions) for filing your 2007 tax return. This is April 15, 2008 for most people.

E-File Opt Out

For tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, income tax return preparers who completed 100 or more original Massachusetts Forms 1 and 1-NR/PY, including those E-filed, during the previous calendar year are required to use electronic means to file all personal income tax returns, unless the taxpayer specifically directs on the paper form that the filing be on paper and signs Form EFO, Personal Income Tax Declaration of Paper Filing. Fill in oval if you do not want your preparer to file your return electronically. See TIR 04-30 for more information.

Schedule X

Other Income

Be sure to enclose with Form 1.

Line 1. Alimony Received

Enter in Schedule X, line 1 the total amount of all periodic payments of alimony or separate maintenance received under a court judgment or decree, or for excess alimony amounts recaptured, as reported on U.S. Form 1040, line 11. Payments specified as child support are not taxable.

Line 2. Taxable IRA/Keogh, Qualified Charitable IRA Distributions and Roth IRA Conversion Distributions

Complete the Schedule X, line 2 worksheet to calculate the taxable portion of any amount you received as an Individual Retirement Account (IRA), Keogh, qualified charitable IRA distribution or Roth IRA conversion distribution. Since Massachusetts does not allow a deduction for amounts originally contributed to an IRA or Keogh, the distributions are not taxable until the full amount of your contributions which were previously subject to Massachusetts taxes are recovered.

Contributions made to Keogh accounts prior to 1975 were deductible when made. Therefore, no deduction may be taken from a Keogh distribution for amounts contributed before 1975.

Massachusetts generally adopts the federal conversion rules for partial or complete rollovers from existing IRAs to Roth IRAs. Generally, the rollover amount is treated as a distribution and included in federal gross income to the extent it is attributable to investment growth or previously deducted contributions. See TIR 98-8, Massachusetts 1998 Reducing Income Taxes Act, for further details.

Note: Massachusetts adopts the federal exclusion for qualified charitable distributions from IRAs and Roth IRAs. See TIR 06-20, The Pension Protection Act of 2006: Charitable IRA Distributions, for further information.

7. Taxable IRA/Keogh distributions or Roth IRA conversion distributions. Subtract line 6 from line 5 and enter result here. Not less than "0"

Note: You must complete separate worksheets if married filing a joint return and both you and your spouse received IRA/Keogh Plan, qualified charitable IRA distributions, and/or Roth IRA conversion distributions.

Line 3. Other Gambling Winnings

Enter in Schedule X, line 3 all gambling winnings from casinos, raffles, races, beano or other events of chance, wherever held, and winnings from non-Massachusetts lotteries. Do not enter less than "0." You may only deduct the price of the winning ticket. Gambling losses are not deductible under Massachusetts law. Gambling losses claimed as itemized deductions on U.S. Form 1040, Schedule A are not allowed on your Massachusetts return.

Note: Do not report Massachusetts state lottery winnings in Schedule X, line 3. Instead, report them on Form 1, line 8b.

Line 4. Fees and Other 5.3% Income

The following items should be reported on line 4 of Schedule X. Do not enter less than "0." Enclose additional statements if more space is needed.

- All fee income, such as payments for jury duty, election worker payments, director's fees, compensation received as executor or administrator of an estate, and commission income or tips not reported in line 3 of Form 1 are taxable. Also, report all bartering income not reported on Schedule C (the fair market value of goods or services received in payment for your services).

- All prizes and awards won in a quiz program, drawing, beauty contest, etc. are taxable at fair market value. Awards and bonuses received from your employer for performance of services not part of a qualified award plan are also taxable.
- Other Massachusetts 5.3% income reported on U.S. Form 1040, line 21 and not reported elsewhere in Form 1, lines 3 through 8 or Schedule X, lines 1 through 3 must be reported in line 4 of Schedule X.
- Pre-1996 installment sales classified as ordinary income for Massachusetts purposes (from Massachusetts Schedule D, line 9) are taxed as 5.3% income and must be reported on line 4 of Schedule X.
- Embezzled or other income from illegal activities is taxable and should be reported on Schedule X, line 4.

The following items should not be reported on your Massachusetts return:

- Any "net operating loss" reported as a negative amount on U.S. Form 1040, line 21 cannot be entered on Schedule X. A net operating loss from a business or profession cannot be carried forward or backward to offset individual income in any other year under Massachusetts law.
- Refunds of U.S. and Massachusetts income taxes are not considered income under Massachusetts law. If you received interest on refunds, report such interest on Massachusetts Schedule B.

Tuition payments for students pursuing graduate degrees at such a college or university are not eligible for the college tuition deduction. The deduction is equal to the amount by which the tuition payments, less any scholarships, grants or financial aid received, exceed 25% of Massachusetts AGI. Qualified tuition expenses include only those expenses designated as tuition or mandatory fees required for the enrollment or attendance of the taxpayer or any dependent of the taxpayer at an eligible educational institution. No deduction is allowed for any amount paid for room and board, books, supplies, equipment, personal living expenses, meals, lodging, travel or research, athletic fees, insurance expenses or other expenses unrelated to an individual's academic course of instruction. For tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, taxpayers who have paid Massachusetts personal income taxes in a prior year on income attributed to them under a "claim of right" may deduct the amount of that income from their gross income if it later develops that they were not in fact entitled to the income, and have repaid the amounts in question. The deduction is allowed in the year of repayment, provided that the repayment is not otherwise deductible in determining Massachusetts income taxable under M.G.L. ch. 62. Some examples in which the claim of right may be applied for are:

- ▶ Stock under claim of ownership. Gains from sales of stock under a claim of ownership must be included, regardless of whether the taxpayer actually owned it;
- ▶ Employment contracts. Amounts in settlement of employment contracts must be included notwithstanding the prospect of eventual repayment to the employer of an amount equivalent to or greater than the amount received;
- ▶ Dividends. Where a taxpayer receives a dividend that must be repaid in a later year (e.g., because it impaired corporate capital), the dividend must be included in the year of receipt;
- ▶ Corporate notes. Where a taxpayer receives a distribution with respect to holding of notes, the income must be included regardless of whether it could be challenged by senior creditors;
- ▶ Mistake in validity of claim. The claim of right doctrine applies where a taxpayer merely mistakes the validity of his claim; or

Enter the smaller of line 9 or line 19 (considered as a positive amount). Not more than $2,000.

Schedule D

Note: If showing a loss, be sure to mark over the "X" in the box to the left.

Long-Term Capital Gains and Losses Excluding Collectibles

You must complete Massachusetts Schedule D if you had long-term gains or losses from the sale or exchange of capital assets or from similar transactions which are granted capital gain or loss treatment on your U.S. return, or if you had capital gain distributions. If you did not file U.S. Schedule D but are reporting capital gain distributions on U.S. Form 1040, line 13 or 1040A, line 10, you must complete Massachusetts Schedule D (see line 5 instructions). Include gains from all property, wherever located. Long-term capital gains are gains on the sale or exchange of capital assets that have been held for more than one year on the date of the sale or exchange. Long-term capital losses are losses on the sale or exchange of capital assets that have been held for more than one year on the date of the sale or exchange.

The law defines "capital gain income" as gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset. The definition of "capital asset" includes: (1) an asset which is a capital asset under IRC sec. 1221, or (2) property that is used in a trade or business within the meaning of IRC sec. 1231(b) without regard to the holding period as defined in said sec. 1231(b).

Differences

Significant differences between the U.S. and Massachusetts capital gain provisions are:

- ▶ IRC sec. 1244 losses reported as ordinary losses on your U.S. return must be reported on Massachusetts Schedule D;
- ▶ If you made a federal election under § 3181 of the Tax Relief Act of 1997 to recognize gain on the deemed sale of a capital asset held on January 1, 2001, Massachusetts does not follow the federal rules at § 311 for determining the basis of the asset. See TIR 02-3. If you sold a capital asset in 2006 for which you made a federal § 311 election, the Massachusetts initial basis will not be the federal basis. The Massachusetts initial basis will be determined as of the date the asset was first acquired;
- ▶ Upon the sale of stock of an S corporation, the federal basis must be modified according to Massachusetts Income Tax Regulation, 830 CMR 62.17A.1; and
- ▶ Massachusetts has adopted basis adjustment rules to take into account differences between Massachusetts and federal tax laws. For more information regarding basis adjustment rules, see TIR 88-7.

Net ordinary losses that are itemized deductions on U.S. Schedule A are not allowable.

Installment Sales

If a sale was treated as an installment sale for U.S. income tax purposes, it may be treated the same way on your Massachusetts income tax return. Gains from pre-1996 installment sales are classified as either capital gains or ordinary income under the Massachusetts law in effect on the date the sale or exchange took place.

Gains from pre-1996 installment sales that are classified as capital gains should be reported as 12% income on Massachusetts Schedule B. If the asset was held for more than one year when it was sold, the gain will be eligible for a 50% long-term deduction. Gains from pre-1996 installment sales that are classified as capital gains included on Massachusetts Schedule D, line 3 should be reported on Massachusetts Schedule D, line 11 ("Long-term gains on collectibles and pre-1996 installment sales"). The amount of such gain is then reported on Massachusetts Schedule B, Part 2, line 11.

Gains from pre-1996 installment sales classified as ordinary income and that are included on Massachusetts Schedule D, line 3 should be reported on Massachusetts Schedule D, line 9 (“Differences”). The amount of such gain classified as ordinary income should then be reported on Form 1, line 9 (“Other income”) and included on Schedule X, line 4 and identified as “2006 gain from pre-1996 installment sale.”

Note: If you are reporting capital gains on installment sales that occurred during January 1, 1996 through December 31, 2002, do not file Schedule D. Instead, you must file Schedule D-IS, Installment Sales. If you are reporting an installment sale occurring on or after January 1, 2003, report those gains on Schedule D. Schedule D-IS can be obtained on DOR’s website at www.mass.gov/dor.

Effective for sales on or after January 1, 2005, if you wish to report a sale on your Massachusetts return as an installment sale and the Massachusetts gain is $1 million or greater, you must apply in writing to the Department of Revenue’s Installment Sales Unit. See TIR 04-28. The Commissioner of Revenue must approve your application to report the sale on the installment basis in Massachusetts before you file your return, and appropriate security must be posted. An explanatory statement must be enclosed with each return for the life of the installment sale. For further information contact the Installment Sales Unit at (617) 887-6950.

Enter the appropriate amount from Massachusetts Schedule C-2 if you qualify for an excess trade or business deduction. Generally, taxpayers may not use excess 5.3% deductions to offset other income. However, where the taxpayer files a Massachusetts Schedule C or Schedule E, Massachusetts law allows such offsets if the following requirements are met: the excess 5.3% deductions must be adjusted gross income deductions allowed under MGL Ch. 62, sec. 2(d); and these excess deductions may only be used to offset other income which is effectively connected with the active conduct of a trade or business or any other income allowed under IRC, sec. 469(d)(1)(B) to offset losses from passive activities.

For more information, contact the Division of Energy Resources by calling (617) 727-4732. If such approved patent income is other than royalty income, use the applicable schedule and explain.

Passive Losses

As a result of differences in U.S. and Massachusetts rules in 1987, the calculations you made for passive losses on your 1987 U.S. and Massachusetts returns may have differed. Differences in amounts reported in 1987 for U.S. and Massachusetts tax purposes should be adjusted when the property is disposed of or the deduction is used up. In addition, passive losses allowed for Massachusetts tax purposes in 1987, but carried over for U.S. tax purposes, cannot be used again for Massachusetts tax purposes when such carryover losses are eventually allowed for U.S. tax purposes.

To the extent there are applicable adjustments for Massachusetts differences, taxpayers must calculate allowable losses on a pro forma U.S. Form 8582, Passive Activity Loss Limitations.

Note: Same-sex joint filers should use Federal Form 8582 to recalculate their loss limitations as though they were filing a joint federal return. See TIR 04-17 for more information.

Profit or Loss from Business or Profession

Massachusetts Schedule C is provided to report income and deductions from each business or profession operated as a sole proprietorship.

If your business deductions, excluding the Abandoned Building Renovation Deduction, exceed Schedule C income and any other income taxable at the 5.3% rate, such excess deductions may be subtracted from the other income that is effectively connected with the active conduct of your trade or business and any other income allowed under IRC Section 469(d)(1)(B) to offset losses from passive activities. To compute the excess trade or business deductions use Massachusetts Schedule C-2. This form is available by visiting www.mass.gov/dor, or you may have one mailed to you by calling (617) 887-MDOR.

Registration Information

In the space provided, describe the business or professional activity that provided your principal source of income reported on line 1. If you owned more than one business, you must complete a separate Schedule C for each business. Give the general field or activity and the type of product or service.

Employer Identification Number

You need an Employer Identification number (EIN) only if you had a Keogh plan, were required to file an employment, excise, estate, trust, or alcohol, tobacco and firearms tax return or employ contract labor. If you do not have an EIN, leave the line blank. Do not enter your Social Security number.

Small Business Energy Exemption

If you are claiming the small business energy exemption from the sales tax on purchases of taxable energy or heating fuel during 2006, you must have five or fewer employees. You must enter the number of your employees in the space provided.

Accounting Method

If you filed a return on the accrual basis last year, your return for this year must be on the same basis. If a taxpayer requesting permission to change an accounting method for Massachusetts purposes is eligible for an automatic change of accounting method federally, and has correctly followed the most recently issued federal revenue procedure for requesting an automatic change, then the taxpayer should file his/her annual return using the new method and write at the top, "Automatic Change of Accounting Method — filed in compliance with DOR Directive 02-13." The taxpayer should enclose a copy of federal Form 3115, together with any required statements. See DOR Directive 02-13 for further information.

Material Participation

Indicate if you materially participated in the operation of this business during 2006. If you did not materially participate and have a loss from this business, see line 33 for further instructions.

Line 1a. Gross Receipts or Sales

In the boxes provided, enter gross receipts or sales from your business. Be sure to include on this line amounts you received in your trade or business as shown on Form 1099-MISC, Miscellaneous Income. If the nature of your business is such that you have gross or other income that is interest (other than from Massachusetts banks) and dividend income, exclude this income from lines 1 and 4 on Massachusetts Schedule C and include it in line 32 and in Schedule B, line 3. Examples of interest (other than from Massachusetts banks) and dividend income are interest received on loans, notes receivable or charge accounts that you accept in the ordinary course of business, and dividends on stocks received in payment for goods and services. Capital gains from the sale or exchange of assets used in your business are not reported on Schedule C. Use U.S. Form 4797 and report the amount in Form 1, Schedule B and/or Schedule D. You must also exclude from Schedule C any income and expenses that pertain to activities for yourself as distinguished from those performed for your customers. Such income must be reported by class of income in Schedules B and D. Personal expenses are not deductible.

If you received Form W-2 and the "Statutory employee" box in item 13 of that form was checked, report your income and expenses related to that income on Schedule C. Enter your statutory employee income from box 1 of Form W-2 on line 1 of Schedule C and fill in the oval. Statutory employees include full-time life insurance agents, certain agent or commission drivers and traveling salespersons and certain homeworkers. If you had both self-employment income and statutory employee income, do not combine these amounts on a single Schedule C. In this case, you must file two Schedules C.

Line 4. Other Income

If you received bartering income, you must report the fair market value of goods or services received in payment for your goods and services in line 4. Do not include interest income (other than from Massachusetts banks) and dividends here (see line 32).

Line 7. Bad Debts From Sales or Services

Include debts and partial debts from sales or services that were included in income and are definitely known to be worthless. If you later collect a debt that you deducted as a bad debt, include it as income in the year collected.

Note: Cash method taxpayers cannot take a bad debt deduction unless the amount was previously included in income.

Line 11. Depreciation and Section 179 Deduction

Massachusetts adopts the current federal rules at section 179 for expensing certain depreciable business assets. For property placed in service in tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2006, the maximum section 179 expensing allowance is $108,000.

Line 17. Pension and Profit-Sharing Plans

Enter your deduction for contributions to a pension, profit-sharing or annuity plan, or plans for the benefit of your employees. If the plan includes you as a self-employed person, do not include contributions made as an employer on your behalf. See TIR 02-18 for more information.

Line 23. Meals and Entertainment

Line 23a. Enter your total business meal and entertainment expenses. Include meals while traveling away from home for business. Instead of the actual cost of your meals while traveling away from home, you may use the standard meal allowance. Business meal expenses are deductible only if they are (a) directly related to or associated with the conduct of your trade or business, (b) not lavish or extravagant and (c) incurred while you or your employee is present at the meal. Club dues are not allowed as a business deduction.

Line 23b. Generally, you may deduct only 50% of your business meal and entertainment expenses, including meals incurred while traveling away from home on business. However, you may fully deduct meals and entertainment furnished or reimbursed to an employee if you properly treat the expense as wages subject to withholding. You may also fully deduct meals and entertainment provided to a nonemployee to the extent the expenses are includible in the gross income of that person and reported on Form 1099-MISC. Figure how much of the amount on line 23a is subject to the 50% limit. Then, enter 50% of that amount on line 23b. This amount should be subtracted from the amount in line 23a. Enter the result in line 23 of Massachusetts Schedule C.

Line 30. Abandoned Building Renovation Deduction

Massachusetts allows businesses to deduct 10% of the costs incurred in renovating certain buildings located in an Economic Opportunity Area (EOA). The buildings must be designated as abandoned by the Economic Assistance Coordinating Council. The renovation deduction may be taken in addition to any other deduction for which the renovation costs may qualify. For more information, contact the Massachusetts Office of Business Development.

In line 30 enter 10% of the costs of renovating a qualifying abandoned building.

Line 33. If You Have a Loss

Fill in the oval in line 33a if all of your investment is at risk. Enter your loss from line 31 on Form 1, line 6 unless you answered "no" to the question on material participation on the front of Schedule C. If you answered "no" to this question, complete a pro forma copy of U.S. Form 8582 that reflects only income being reported on your Massachusetts return. Enter in Massachusetts Schedule C, line 31 your allowable loss calculated on Form 8582.

Fill in the oval in line 33b if only some of your investment is at risk. To determine the amount of your allowable loss, complete a pro forma copy of U.S. Form 6198 that reflects only income being reported on your Massachusetts return. Enter the amount calculated on U.S. Form 6198 in line 31 unless you answered "no" to the question on material participation on the front of Schedule C. In this case, your loss is further limited. Use the amounts calculated on your pro forma U.S. Form 6198 to complete a pro forma U.S. Form 8582. If your at-risk amount is "0" or less, enter "0" in line 31.

Senior Circuit Breaker Tax Credit

What Is It?

For tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2001, senior citizens in Massachusetts may be eligible to claim a refundable credit on their state income taxes for the real estate taxes they paid on the Massachusetts residential property they own or rent and which they occupy as their principal residence. The maximum credit allowed is $870 for the tax year beginning January 1, 2006. See TIR 06-17 for more information.

Eligible taxpayers who own their property may claim a credit equal to the amount by which their property tax payments in tax year 2006 (excluding any exemptions and/or abatements), including water and sewer debt charges, exceed 10% of their "total income" for the same current tax year. Taxpayers residing in communities that do not include water and sewer debt service in their property tax assessments may claim, in addition to their property tax payments, 50% of the water and sewer use charges actually paid during the tax year when figuring their credit.

Renters may claim a credit in the amount by which 25% of their annual rental payment is more than 10% of their total income.

For purposes of the tax credit, a taxpayer's "total income" includes taxable income as well as exempt income such as Social Security, Treasury bills and public pensions. For a complete list of what constitutes "total income," see TIR 01-19.

Who Is Eligible for the Credit?

To be eligible for the credit for the 2006 tax year, a taxpayer must be 65 years of age or older before January 1, 2007 (for joint filers, it is sufficient if one taxpayer is 65 years of age or older), must own or rent residential property in Massachusetts and occupy the property as his or her principal residence, and must not be the dependent of another taxpayer. The taxpayer's total income cannot exceed $46,000 for a single filer who is not the head of a household, $58,000 for a head of household, or $70,000 for taxpayers filing jointly. No credit is allowed for a married taxpayer unless a joint return is filed. Moreover, the assessed valuation of the real estate cannot exceed $684,000.

No credit is allowed if the taxpayer claims the "married filing separate" status, receives a federal or state rent subsidy, rents from a tax-exempt entity, or is the dependent of another taxpayer.

Is the Tax Credit Considered Income?

Tax credits received by eligible taxpayers are not considered income for the purpose of obtaining eligibility or benefits under other means-tested assistance programs including food, medical, housing, energy and educational assistance programs.

How Does a Taxpayer Claim the Credit?

Taxpayers who are eligible for the tax credit in the 2006 tax year can claim the credit by submitting a completed Schedule CB, Circuit Breaker Credit, with their 2006 state income tax return. Eligible taxpayers who do not normally file a state income tax return may obtain a refund by filing a return with Schedule CB. As with all claimed tax credits and deductions, the taxpayer must keep all pertinent records, receipts and other documentation supporting his or her claim for the credit.

Line 1. Living Quarters Status During 2006

Be sure to fill in the appropriate oval. If you were a renter in 2006 and you received any federal and/or state subsidy, or you rent from a tax-exempt entity, you do not qualify for the Circuit Breaker Credit.

Line 2. Assessed Value of Principal Residence as of January 1, 2006

Enter the amount of the assessed value of your principal residence as of January 1, 2006. If you own a multi-family home, mixed-use property, or more than one acre of land, only the assessed value of the principal residence, together with the land that immediately surrounds and is associated with that residence, not to exceed one acre, should be used. If the assessed value is over $684,000, you do not qualify for the credit. Contact your local city or town's assessors' office if you have any questions in determining the amount of the assessed value of your principal residence as of January 1, 2006.

Income Calculation

Qualifying income for the Circuit Breaker Credit (Schedule CB, lines 3 through 12) is the taxpayer's Massachusetts AGI as defined in MGL Ch. 62, sec. 2 increased by various amounts that may have been excluded or subtracted when originally calculating the taxpayer's Massachusetts AGI, less certain exemptions claimed by the taxpayer. Amounts added back to Massachusetts AGI in computing qualifying income include income from Social Security, retirement, pension or annuities, cash public assistance, tax-exempt interest and dividends, net capital losses, long-term capital losses, certain capital gains, income from a partnership or trust not otherwise included in the taxpayer's Massachusetts AGI, and gross receipts (for example, the return of capital or gifts) from any other source except the tax credit itself. The exemptions allowed which decrease the total income amount are those allowed for blindness, dependents and taxpayers who are at least age 65 by the end of the tax year.

Line 4. Total Social Security Benefits Received

Enter in line 4 the amount of Social Security benefits received in 2006. Social Security benefits include retirement, disability, dependent and survivorship.

Line 5. Pension, Annuities, IRA/Keogh Distributions Not Taxed on Your Massachusetts Tax Return

Enter in line 5 the amount of pension, annuities, IRA/Keogh distributions not taxed on your Massachusetts Form 1. See Form 1, line 4 instructions, Pension and Annuities, for a list of exempt items that must be included in Schedule CB, line 5 as part of total income for the purposes of calculating the Circuit Breaker Credit.

Line 6. Miscellaneous Income Including Cash Public Assistance

Enter the amount of miscellaneous income, including cash public assistance, received during 2006. This includes but is not limited to food stamps and welfare payments, disability income, gifts, sick pay and worker's compensation.

Line 12. Qualifying Income

Subtract line 11 from line 7. You do not qualify for the Circuit Breaker Credit if you are filing as "Single" and line 12 is greater than $46,000; or if you are filing as "Head of household" and line 12 is greater than $58,000; or if you are filing as "Married filing jointly" and line 12 is greater than $70,000.

Credit Calculation

If you filled in the "Homeowner" oval in line 1, complete lines 13 through 20, if you filled in the "Renter" oval in line 1, go to line 21.

Line 13. Real Estate Taxes Paid in Calendar Year 2006 for Your Principal Residence

Enter the amount of real estate taxes paid in calendar year 2006. Be sure to include real estate tax payments made pursuant to the Community Preservation Act, the Cape Cod Open Space Land Acquisition Program and/or paid to a tax-levying district.

Note: Real estate taxes paid in a calendar or taxable year generally reflect taxes assessed for two different fiscal years. If a community collects taxes quarterly, a taxpayer may have made four payments during a calendar year. These payments are billed as due on the following dates: February 1, May 1, August 1, and November 1. If a community collects taxes semi-annually, a taxpayer may have made two payments during the calendar year. The first payment is billed as due on May 1 and the second as due on November 1, or thirty days after it is mailed, if the bill is mailed after October 1. If you own a multi-family home, mixed-use property, or your principal residence has a land area in excess of one acre, contact your local city or town's collector's office if you have any questions in determining the amount of real estate taxes paid in calendar year 2006 for your principal residence.

Line 14. Adjustments to Real Estate Taxes Paid

Enter the amount from line 4 of the Adjustments to Real Estate Taxes Paid Worksheet for Schedule CB, line 14, on page 2 of Schedule CB. Adjustments to real estate taxes paid include:

- ▶ Abatements granted by local assessors or earned through the Senior Work Program*;

- ▶ Exemptions granted by cities or towns to qualifying veterans, surviving spouses, blind persons and the elderly*;

- ▶ Interest charges assessed due to delinquent payments; and

- ▶ Betterments or special assessments levied upon the property.

*Do not exclude this amount if it was already reflected on your tax bill and you did not pay it.

Line 16. Water and Sewer Use Charges Paid in 2006

Contact your town official to determine if your community has elected to include water and sewer debt charges in the property tax assessment. Taxpayers residing in communities that do not include water and sewer debt charges in the property tax assessments may include 50% of the actual water and sewer use charges paid during the taxable year. If they have elected to include those charges in the property tax assessment, enter "0" in line 16. If they have not elected to include those charges, enter 50% of your actual water and sewer use charges paid in 2006 in line 16.

If you own a multi-family home, mixed-use property, or your principal residence has a land area in excess of one acre, see TIR 01-19 for information on how to prorate water and sewer use charges.

Line 20. Credit

Enter the lesser of line 19 or $870 here and on Form 1, line 39.

Line 21. Rent Paid for Your Principal Residence in 2006

Enter in line 21a the total amount of rent paid for your principal residence in 2006. Divide that amount by 4 (25%) and enter the result in line 21. In the space provided, be sure to enter your landlord's name and address. If you received any federal and/or state rent subsidy, or you rent from a tax-exempt entity, you do not qualify for the Circuit Breaker Credit.

Line 24. Credit

Enter the lesser of line 23 or $870 here and on Form 1, line 39.

2006 Massachusetts Income Tax Table at the 5.3% Rate

Use this table to calculate tax for taxable 5.3% income (line 21) of not more than $24,000.

Line 22 instructions: To find your tax on 5.3% Income (line 22), read down the tax table income column to the line containing the amount you entered in line 21. Then read across to the TAX column and enter this amount in line 22. If your taxable 5.3% income in line 21 is greater than $24,000, multiply the amount by .053. Enter the result in line 22.

Note: If choosing the optional 5.85% tax rate, multiply line 21 and the amount in Schedule D, line 20 by .0585.

Dear Taxpayer,

Each year, more and more Massachusetts taxpayers are realizing the benefits of filing their state tax returns electronically. Whether through Telefile, DOR-approved commercial software products or a tax preparer, each e-file method is easy to use, secure and convenient. If you have not tried e-filing yet, the Department of Revenue (DOR) encourages you to use one of these methods to file your return this year.

State tax law changes in the past year have increased the personal exemption amounts and the Circuit Breaker Tax Credit. In addition, the Home Heating Fuel deduction is available to qualifying taxpayers who did not take the full $800 deduction in 2005. Individuals also may deduct certain commuting costs.

Also, be sure to see if your income level qualifies you to claim the Earned Income Credit. This credit is a refundable federal income tax credit for low-income working individuals and families. The Massachusetts credit is 15% of the allowable federal credit. Taxpayers may claim the Earned Income Credit even if they do not owe any tax. Please refer to the instructions in this booklet for more information.

To improve access to its online services, the Department of Revenue is launching a redesigned website this year. All of the information and online tools taxpayers are already acquainted with will still be available, but will be presented in a more user-friendly fashion. In addition, the redesign simplifies access to all of the Commonwealth's information and services by adopting the look and feel of the Commonwealth's government website, Mass.Gov.

We also are pleased to introduce streaming video to our website, through which we will be able to provide instructions on using DOR applications and communicate important messages to taxpayers. Please visit our website at www.mass.gov/dor for more information. You may also call our Customer Service Bureau at (617) 887-MDOR or toll-free in Massachusetts at (800) 392-6089.

We remain committed to making this tax season as efficient as possible. If you have ideas that you would like to share, or you would like to comment on our efforts, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,
