

Cluster of Canine Influenza cases in Essex County Massachusetts

The Division of Animal Health has been alerted to a cluster of confirmed Canine Influenza (K-9 Flu) cases in Essex County. Dog owners with concerns regarding the health status of their pet are encouraged to consult with their veterinarian. Any veterinarians dealing with an increased number of apparent "kennel cough cases" should contact the Department.