

Suggested Day Hikes

Mount Greylock State Reservation

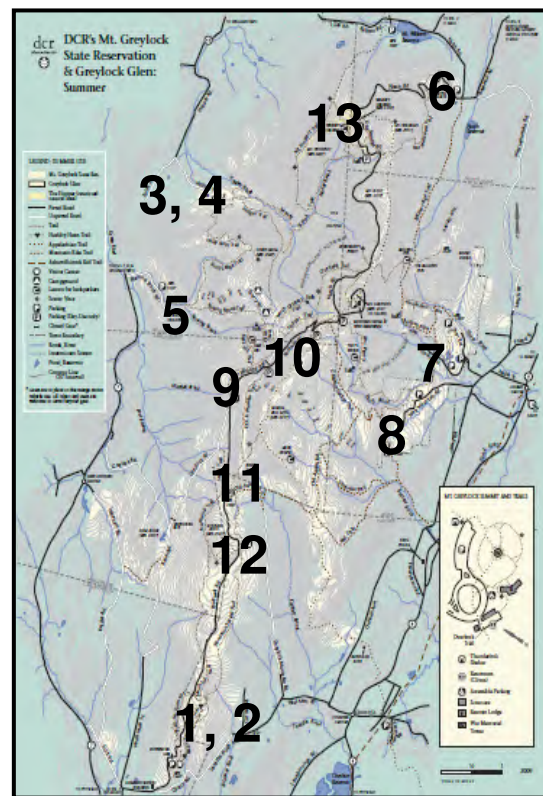

Take a Hike!

This guide offers suggested day hike routes in two parts: 1) Year-round Hikes and 2) Seasonal Hikes (late-May to Nov.1). Use this guide with the Mt. Greylock State Reservation & Greylock Glen Trail Map available at the park and at this link:

<http://www.mass.gov/dcr/parks/mtGreylock/brochures.htm>.

Things to remember:

- Time, distance, difficulty: average hiker pace estimate 1.5 miles per hour. All distances are round-trip. Plan conservatively, start early. Be aware of weather and sunset. Trail difficulty ratings based on distance and gradient: easy, moderate, strenuous, aggressive.
- Wear weather appropriate clothing, layer for temperature changes. Sturdy waterproof boots are recommended, trails can be wet.
- Parking at trailheads: Space may be limited. Be courteous to avoid blocking in others. Keep valuables out of sight.
- Drinking water available at Visitor Center (year-round) and behind Bascom Lodge on the summit (late-May–October 31). Trailside water sources should be treated.
- Stay on designated trails: Blue vertical, dollar bill-sized blazes on trees indicate designated trails. White blazes indicate Appalachian Trail (AT). Double blazes indicate intersection or direction change. Be aware that signage is posted at trail intersections.
- Pace & group size: keep your group together; hike only as fast as your group's slowest hiker. Limit group size to 12 people or less to lessen impacts.
- Carry-in, carry-out all trash: Leave No Trace outdoor ethics are strongly encouraged. For more information visit <http://www.lnt.org/programs/principles.php>
- Pets are permitted on 10-foot maximum leash, attended at all times, current proof of rabies vaccine. Please clean up after your pet and dispose of all waste outside of park.
- Be aware of hunting seasons and wear blaze orange when appropriate. For season info visit: http://www.mass.gov/dfwele/dfw/regulations/abstracts/hunting_dates.pdf
