Welcome to DCNR's Mt. Greylock State Reservation

As a 1,991-foot summit, Mount Greylock anchors the northern portion of the Berkshires, providing expansive views of the surrounding area.

The summit is a popular destination for hikers, climbers, and observers of the natural environment. The trail system includes a network of marked paths and routes, offering a variety of experiences for visitors of all skill levels.

Here are some tips for your visit:

- Wear appropriate clothing and footwear: The weather can be unpredictable, so it's essential to dress in layers and wear sturdy, non-slip shoes.
- Carry plenty of water: It's crucial to stay hydrated, especially in warmer months.
- Respect wildlife: Keep a safe distance from animals, and avoid feeding them.
- Enjoy the view: Take time to appreciate the natural beauty of the area.
- Be mindful of other trail users:遵循所有标志和指示，以确保每个人都能安全愉快地享受徒步旅行。

Additional information:

- Please note that parking is limited, so consider carpooling or using public transportation.
- Restrooms are available at the reservation entrance and are located throughout the trails.
- For more detailed information about the trails and facilities, visit the website of the Mount Greylock State Reservation.

Please remember to maintain the natural beauty of this area by leaving it as you found it, respecting the wildlife, and adhering to all regulations.

Thank you for visiting Mount Greylock State Reservation!
