Welcome to DCR's Mt. Greylock State Reservation

At 4,180 feet, Mount Greylock is the highest point in Massachusetts. Dramatic views of 60-90 miles distance may be seen. It encompasses Massachusetts' first wilderness state park, acquired by the Commonwealth in 1918, to preserve its natural environment for public enjoyment.

Mt. Greylock is part of the Massachusetts state park system and is managed by the Massachusetts Department of Conservation and Recreation (DCR), an agency of the Executive Office of Energy and Environmental Affairs.

DCR over 65,000 acres of parks, forests, beaches, bike trails, waterbodies, and dams. Its mission is to protect, promote, and enhance the state's natural, cultural, and recreational resources. To learn more about DCR and to discover more parks and recreational opportunities within the Massachusetts state parks, visit www.mass.gov/dcr.

Heart of the Heart: DCR invites you to make them the heart of a healthy lifestyle. Designated by a heart symbol, the Healthy Trails are pathways or trails used for hiking or walking that are easy to moderate in activity level, and intended for use to help build a healthy heart.
