Welcome to DCR’s Joseph Allen Skinner State Park

Once the home of a prestigious hotel, Skinner State Park offers outstanding views of the Connecticut Valley and is primarily used for hiking, picnicking, and scenic viewing. It is part of the Massachusetts Department of Conservation and Recreation (DCR), an agency of the Executive Office of Energy and Environmental Affairs.

SKP comprises 650 acres of woods, forests, beaches, bike trails, waterholes, and more. It is missioned to preserve, protect, and enhance the state’s natural, cultural, and recreational resources. To learn about SKP and to discover more parks and recreational opportunities within the Massachusetts state parks, visit www.mass.gov/parks.
