

SELLING TOBACCO PRODUCTS TEST

For each question, please check (✓) the correct answer.

1. It is against the law to sell tobacco products to anyone under age:

- 18
- 21
- 27

2. According to state law, you must check the I.D. of customers wishing to purchase tobacco products if they look younger than:

- 18
- 21
- 27

3. If a young person gives you a note from his/her parent, giving permission to buy cigarettes, you should:

- Refuse the sale
- Proceed with the sale
- Proceed with sale only if the note is signed by the parent

4. Which of the following I.D.'s can you accept as proof of age for someone buying tobacco?

- Library card
- College I.D.
- Video Club Membership
- Out-of-State Driver's License

5. If today's date is July 26, 2007, which of the following people may legally buy tobacco products?

- Birthday is July 27, 1989
- Birthday is July 25, 1989
- Birthday is July 24, 1990

6. Which of the following are ways youth try to outsmart sales clerks?

- Telling the clerk the cigarettes are for a parent
- Going to a store where a friend works
- Both of the above

7. Which of the following are acceptable forms of I.D.?

- State- Issued Driver's License
- Military I.D.
- State- Issued Liquor License
- All of the Above

8. Cigarettes may be sold in amounts smaller than the smallest package made by the manufacturer.

- True
- False

For more information, contact your Board of Health or visit www.under27.org

