DTA Partnerships Frequently Asked Questions

1. How does it work?

When you arrive at the museum, you should show your EBT card at the ticket counter and you will receive a discounted admission price.

2. How many people can I bring with me to the museum?

The number of people that can receive discounted admission to a museum using the same EBT card varies by institution. This information can be found on our Partnerships Flyer at www.mass.gov/dta or you can always call the museum directly to ask them about their admission policies.

3. If I am taking my child to the museum and they want to bring their friend, can I still receive the EBT-discounted admission?

Yes. You can use your EBT card for admission regardless of whether or not the people that you are bringing with you are members of your household.

4. Can I only receive the discounted admission on a certain day of the week?

You can use your EBT card for admission any day of the week.

5. How many times can I use my EBT card at a museum?

There is no limit to the number of times that you can use your EBT card, so feel free to use it often!

6. How much will admission cost with my EBT discount?

The EBT admission prices vary by institution, but none are higher than $3 per person. The specific prices can be found on our Partnerships Flyer at www.mass.gov/dta or you can always call the museum directly to ask them about their admission policies.
