Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP):

Those accounting principles promulgated by the bodies designated by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants' code of professional ethics and otherwise recognized as generally accepted. For Governments the primary standard setting body is the Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB). Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) - A set of standard accounting principles established and recommended for use by the National Council of Governmental Accounting and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

Non GAAP Fixed Asset: Non-GAAP fixed assets are defined as singular assets (including infrastructure) with the following characteristics:

- Vehicles, equipment, furniture, computer software, and all electrical and computer components with (1) a useful life of more than one year and (2) with an original cost between $1,000 and $49,999
- Buildings and other infrastructure with an original cost between $1,000 and $99,999
- Road infrastructure with a cost of less than $99,999 per lane mile for roads and bridges.
- Software costs below $50,000. It is important that software be inventoried for license purposes. Departments are subject to liability if they install non-purchased or non-licensed software. Therefore, departments should maintain close scrutiny on software that is installed on every computer.

Non-GAAP Fixed Assets shall be recorded in a Department's inventory and reconciled at least annually. This inventory may be either electronic or on paper, as long as it records the date of purchase, amount, description, location and disposition of an item. Non-GAAP Fixed Assets Inventory are subject to review in the audit process by the State Auditor's Office or the Commonwealth's independent auditors.

GAAP Fixed Asset: GAAP Fixed Assets are defined as singular assets (including infrastructure) with the following characteristics:

- All land, regardless of cost. The cost at which a fixed asset is entered in MMARS is either the historical acquisition cost, or the appraised, fair market value at date of donation.
- All works of art and historical treasures, regardless of cost, acquired or donated to a department after July 1, 2001. The cost at which it is entered is either the historical acquisition cost or the appraised value at date of donation.

- Vehicles, equipment, furniture, computer software, and all electrical and computer components with a useful life in excess of one year and with a historical cost in excess of $49,999.
- Buildings purchased or constructed (and all other infrastructure assets such as Dams, Boardwalks, Fishing, Boating and Shipping Piers, Beaches, Seawalls, Paved Bike Trails and Pedestrian Paths, Other Recreational Infrastructure, Dam and Lock Systems, Water Systems, Sewer Systems, Other Utilities) with an historical cost of greater than $99,999.
- All road infrastructures with a historical cost in excess of $99,999 per lane mile for road assets. These include interstate roads and bridges, arterial roads and bridges (major non-interstate roads), collector roads and bridges (major non-limited access roads), local roads and bridges, parkways.
- All computer software, whether internally or externally developed, should be capitalized depending on its cost. It is important that software be inventoried for license purposes. Departments are subject to liability if they install non-purchased or non-licensed software. Therefore, departments should maintain close scrutiny on software that is installed on every computer. Software costs above $50,000, but below $1,000,000, are considered a GAAP fixed asset, and shall be reported on the Fixed Assets component of MMARS, as Asset Type K. This software is depreciated over three years. Software costs above $1,000,000 are also a GAAP fixed asset, and should be recorded as Asset Type S. This software is depreciated over seven (7) years.

All activities in these groups and other long-lived assets shall be capitalized for GAAP purposes. All activity for infrastructure shall be recorded in the Fixed Assets Subsystem, if the Commonwealth retains ownership of the infrastructure. If the infrastructure is deeded over to another government, authority or municipality, the activity is an expenditure as a grant. All costs, from initial design and permitting to point of in-service shall be included in the cost of the infrastructure asset.
