INSTRUCTIONS
PLEASE READ ALL INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY BEFORE COMPLETING THIS FORM.

Anti-Discrimination Notice. It is illegal to discriminate against any individual (other than an alien not authorized to work in the U.S.) in hiring, discharging, or recruiting or referring for a fee because of that individual's national origin or citizenship status. It is illegal to discriminate against work eligible individuals. Employers CANNOT specify which document(s) they will accept from an employee. The refusal to hire an individual because of a future expiration date may also constitute illegal discrimination.

Section 1 - Employee. All employees, citizens and noncitizens, hired after November 6, 1986, must complete Section 1 of this form at the time of hire, which is the actual beginning of employment. The employer is responsible for ensuring that Section 1 is timely and properly completed.

Preparer/Translator Certification. The Preparer/Translator Certification must be completed if Section 1 is prepared by a person other than the employee. A preparer/translator may be used only when the employee is unable to complete Section 1 on his/her own. However, the employee must still sign Section 1 personally.

Section 2 - Employer. For the purpose of completing this form, the term "employer" includes those recruiters and referrers for a fee who are agricultural associations, agricultural employers or farm labor contractors.

Employers must complete Section 2 by examining evidence of identity and employment eligibility within three (3) business days of the date employment begins. If employees are authorized to work, but are unable to present the required document(s) within three business days, they must present a receipt for the application of the document(s) within three business days and the actual document(s) within ninety (90) days. However, if employers hire individuals for a duration of less than three business days, Section 2 must be completed at the time employment begins. Employers must record:

1) document title; 2) issuing authority; 3) document number, 4) expiration date, if any; and 5) the date employment begins.

Employers must sign and date the certification. Employees must present original documents. Employers may, but are not required to, photocopy the document(s) presented. These photocopies may only be used for the verification process and must be retained with the I-9. However, employers are still responsible for completing the I-9.

Section 3 - Updating and Reverification. Employers must complete Section 3 when updating and/or reverifying the I-9. Employers must reverify employment eligibility of their employees on or before the expiration date recorded in Section 1. Employers CANNOT specify which document(s) they will accept from an employee.

- If an employee's name has changed at the time this form is being updated/reverified, complete Block A.
- If an employee is rehired within three (3) years of the date this form was originally completed and the employee is still eligible to be employed on the same basis as previously indicated on this form (updating), complete Block B and the signature block.
- If an employee is rehired within three (3) years of the date this form was originally completed and the employee's work authorization has expired or if a current employee's work authorization is about to expire (reverification), complete Block B and:

    - examine any document that reflects that the employee is authorized to work in the U.S. (see List A or C),
    - record the document title, document number and expiration date (if any) in Block C, and
    - complete the signature block.

Photocopying and Retaining Form I-9. A blank I-9 may be reproduced, provided both sides are copied. The instructions must be available to all employees completing this form. Employers must retain completed I-9s for three (3) years after the date of hire or one (1) year after the date employment ends, whichever is later.

For more detailed information, you may refer to the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Handbook for Employers, (Form M-274). You may obtain the handbook at your local U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) office.

This information is for employers to verify the eligibility of individuals for employment to preclude the unlawful hiring, or recruiting or referring for a fee, of aliens who are not authorized to work in the United States.

This information will be used by employers as a record of their basis for determining eligibility of an employee to work in the United States. The form will be kept by the employer and made available for inspection by officials of the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, Department of Labor and Office of Special Counsel for Immigration Related Unfair Employment Practices.

Submission of the information required in this form is voluntary. However, an individual may not begin employment unless this form is completed, since employers are subject to civil or criminal penalties if they do not comply with the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986.

Reporting Burden. We try to create forms and instructions that are accurate, can be easily understood and which impose the least possible burden on you to provide us with information. Often this is difficult because some immigration laws are very complex.

Accordingly, the reporting burden for this collection of information is computed as follows: 1) learning about this form, 5 minutes; 2) completing the form, 5 minutes; and 3) assembling and filing (recordkeeping) the form, 5 minutes, for an average of 15 minutes per response. If you have comments regarding the accuracy of this burden estimate, or suggestions for making this form simpler, you can write to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, Regulatory Management Division, 111 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, DC 20529. OMB No. 1615-0047.

NOTE: This is the 1991 edition of the Form I-9 that has been rebranded with a current printing date to reflect the recent transition from the INS to DHS and its components.
Please read instructions carefully before completing this form. The instructions must be available during completion of this form. ANTI-DISCRIMINATION NOTICE: It is illegal to discriminate against work eligible individuals. Employers CANNOT specify which document(s) they will accept from an employee. The refusal to hire an individual because of a future expiration date may also constitute illegal discrimination.

PUSH UP
This test measures upper body muscular endurance
Maximum amount with no time limit, total correct will be scored

Hands are placed slightly wider than shoulder width apart with fingers facing forward and palms flat on the floor. A 3 inch sponge is placed under the sternum for males and females. Starting from the up position (elbows extended), back must be kept straight at all times and lower body to the body to the floor until the chest touches the sponge and returns to the up position. Resting should be done only in the up position. Both hands must remain in contact with the floor at all times.

How to prepare: Perform 3-5 sets of 10 repetitions every other day.
SIT UP  This test measures abdominal muscular endurance  Maximum amount of correct sit-ups in one minute

Lie flat on back, knees bent, heels flat on the floor, fingers must be laced (interlocked) behind the head. Avoid pulling on the head with the hands. The buttocks must remain on the floor with no thrusting of the hips. In the up position, the elbows should touch the knees and return until the shoulder blades touch the floor. Any resting should be done only in the up position.

How to prepare:  Practice sit-ups with a partner holding your feet flat on the floor by securing the ankles. Do 3-5 sets of 10 every other day.

SIT AND REACH  This test measures hamstring and lower back flexibility  Best of three attempts will be scored to the nearest ¼ inch.

Take sneakers/shoes off. Sit with legs flat on the floor. Place the bottom of your feet flat against the box, approximately eight inches apart. Keep legs straight. Extend arms forward with hands placed on top of the other, fingertips even. Lean forward with your torso reaching and stretching as far as possible. The hands must stay together and even and the stretch must be held for one second. Neck remains in the neutral position. Do not bounce or jerk your body.

How to prepare:  Warm up muscles first before stretching. Sit on the floor, feet straight out in front of you. Reach forward towards your toes. Hold position for 15-25 seconds. Repeat 3-5 times daily. No bouncing or jerking when stretching.

1.5 MILE RUN  This test measures cardio respiratory endurance and to cover the set distance as fast as possible

Begin at the start line of a 440 yard track or equivalent. Begin running a total of 6 laps or a measured 1.5 mile for time. The accumulation of minutes and seconds for each individual from start to finish will be recorded and scored.

How to prepare:  Slowly start and build up gradually. Combine walking and jogging for short periods per session. Practice 3-4 times a week. Gradually add distance to each session building up until you are able to score a comfortable time and distance.
