

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE.

Wednesday, April 6, 2016.

Met according to adjournment at eleven o'clock A.M., with Mrs. Haddad of Somerset in the Chair (having been appointed by the Speaker, under authority conferred by Rule 5, to perform the duties of the Chair).

At the request of the Chair (Mrs. Haddad), the members, guests and employees joined with her in reciting the pledge of allegiance to the flag. Pledge of allegiance.

Silent Prayers.

During the session (Mrs. Haddad of Somerset being in the Chair), at the request of Mr. Collins of Boston, the members, guests and employees stood for a moment of silent tribute in memory of Francis P. Markuns of South Boston, who passed away peacefully on March 31st at age 91. Francis P. Markuns.

At age 18, Francis entered the U.S. Army, landing on Omaha Beach two weeks into the D-Day Invasion.

Francis fought at St. Malo and the Citadel and was among the first group of infantrymen to be awarded the Combat Infantryman's Badge. He later fought in the Hurtgen Forest and in December 1944 was seriously wounded near Duren Germany, earning the Purple Heart.

In 2014, the French government presented him with its highest award, the Legion of Honour, at a ceremony in Sainteny, France.

He is predeceased by his brother Albert Markuns and sister Alice Gudis; and is survived by his wife Virginia, sister Lucy Gaputis, three sons John, James and Richard, two daughters, Ann Marie Arsenault and Joanne Southborough, nine grandchildren, ten great grandchildren and many loving cousins, nieces and nephews.

During the session (Mrs. Haddad of Somerset being in the Chair), at the request of Mr. Madden of Nantucket, the members, guests and employees stood for a moment of silent tribute in memory of former Representative Robert F. Mooney. Mr. Mooney served as Lieutenant in the United States Navy and attended Harvard Law School where he graduated with honors in 1958. Robert F. Mooney.

During his second year in law school, he was elected to the Massachusetts House of Representatives for Nantucket, where he served three terms. Bob's legal career included twelve years of service as Assistant District Attorney for the Cape and the Islands. Bob also served several years on the Massachusetts Board of Library Commissioners, served as President of the Nantucket Athenaeum, was one of the original 9 founding trustees of the Nantucket Conservation Foundation and Nantucket Life Saving Museum, and was an advisor to the Nantucket Historical Association. He was also the author of several books on the history of Nantucket.

Bob, the beloved husband of the late Betty Bowker, leaves behind his sons Robert L. Mooney and his wife Erika, Daniel T. Mooney and his wife Anna, grandchildren Gannon and Marin, and was predeceased by son Michael C. Mooney.

Statement Concerning Representative Donato of Medford.

A statement of Mr. Kafka of Stoughton concerning Mr. Donato of Medford was spread upon the records of the House, as follows:

Statement concerning Mr. Donato of Medford.

MR. SPEAKER: I would like to call to the attention of the House the fact that one of our colleagues, Representative Donato of Medford, was unable to be present in the House Chamber for today's sitting due to illness. If he had been present for the roll call on acceptance of the report of the committee of conference on the Senate Bill relative to solar energy (Senate, No. 1979, amended), he would have voted in the affirmative. His missing of the roll call taken today was due entirely to the reason stated.

Statement Concerning Representative Fernandes of Milford.

A statement of Mr. Bradley of Hingham concerning Mr. Fernandes of Milford was spread upon the records of the House, as follows:

Statement concerning Mr. Fernandes of Milford.

MR. SPEAKER: I would like to call to the attention of the House the fact that one of our colleagues, Representative Fernandes of Milford, was unable to be present in the House Chamber for today's sitting due to the death of his mother-in-law. If he had been present for the roll call on acceptance of the report of the committee of conference on the Senate Bill relative to solar energy (Senate, No. 1979, amended), he would have voted in the affirmative. His missing of the roll call taken today was due entirely to the reason stated.

Statement of Representative Mom of Lowell.

A statement of Mr. Mom of Lowell was spread upon the records of the House, as follows:

Statement of Mr. Mom of Lowell.

MR. SPEAKER: I would like to call to the attention of the House the fact that I will not be present in the House Chamber for the remainder of today's sitting due to a family medical concern. If I could be present for the roll call on acceptance of the report of the committee of conference on the Senate Bill relative to solar energy (Senate, No. 1979, amended), I would vote in the affirmative. My missing of any roll calls today will be due entirely to the reason stated.

Guests of the House.

Prior to the convening of the Joint Session, the Speaker took the Chair, declared a brief recess, and introduced Alexandria Murphy, Massachusetts Cherry Blossom Princess-2016. She was the guest of Senator Rodrigues and Speaker Pro-Tempore Haddad.

Constitution,—judges. The Proposal for a Legislative Amendment to the Constitution relative to the term of judicial officers (see House, No. 1343),— was read twice in accordance with the provisions of the special rules.

The Proposal was as follows:—

ARTICLE OF AMENDMENT.

Article I of Chapter III of Part the Second of the Constitution of Massachusetts is hereby annulled and the following Article is adopted in place thereof:—

Article I. The tenure, that all commissioned officers shall by law have in their offices, shall be expressed in their respective commissions. All judicial officers, duly appointed, commissioned and sworn, shall hold their offices during good behavior, for a period of seven years, excepting such concerning whom there is different provision made in this Constitution. After the expiration of the initial seven-year term, the judicial officer shall be eligible for reappointment; provided, however, that such reappointment shall be by majority vote of the council, after due notice and a public hearing. If the judicial officer fails to receive a majority vote of the council, they shall not be eligible for reappointment to any judicial position. Should the judicial officer receive a vote of affirmation by the council, they shall be eligible for reappointment in like manner every seven years thereafter; provided, however, that the governor, with the consent of the council, may remove them upon the address of both houses of the legislature; and provided, further, that the governor, with the consent of council may, after due notice and hearing, retire them because of advanced age or mental or physical disability. Upon attaining seventy years of age said judges shall be retired. Such retirement shall be subject to any provisions made by law as to pensions or allowances payable to such officers upon their voluntary retirement.

On motion of Mr. Golden of Lowell, the further consideration of the proposal was postponed, until after disposition of the remaining matters in the Orders of the Day.

The Proposal for a Legislative Amendment to the Constitution prohibiting eminent domain takings (see House, No. 1400),— was read twice in accordance with the provisions of the special rules.
