Papers from the Senate.

The House Bill to improve the laws relating to campaign finance, ethics and lobbying (House, No. 3856) (its title having been changed by the Senate committee on Bills in the Third Reading), came from the Senate with the endorsement that it had been passed to be engrossed, in concurrence, by said branch with an amendment striking out all after the enacting clause and inserting in place thereof the text contained in Senate document numbered 2052.

Under suspension of the rules, on motion of Mr. Kocot of Northampton, the amendment was considered forthwith. The House then non-concurred with the Senate in its amendment; and, on further motion of the same member, asked for a committee of conference on the disagreeing votes of the two branches. Representatives Kocot, Vallee of Franklin and Perry of Sandwich then were appointed the committee on the part of the House. Sent to the Senate to be joined.

A message from His Excellency the Governor recommending legislation relating to economic recovery through broadband initiatives in Massachusetts (House, No. 4076), came from the Senate with the endorsement that said branch had non-concurred with the House in its reference to the committee on Telecommunications, Utilities and Energy; and that said message had been referred, in non-concurrence, to the committee on Economic Development and Emerging Technology.

On motion of Mr. Dempsey of Haverhill, the House receded from its reference and concurred with the Senate in its reference to the committee on Economic Development and Emerging Technology.

No. 2046), having been certified by the Clerk to be rightly and truly prepared for final passage, was considered, the question being on adopting the emergency preamble.

A separate vote was taken, as required by the provisions of Article XLVIII (as amended by Article LXVII) of the Amendments to the Constitution; and the preamble was adopted, by a vote of 4 to 0. Sent to the Senate for concurrence.

Bill enacted.

Subsequently, the Senate having concurred in adoption of the emergency preamble, the bill (which originated in the Senate) was passed to be enacted; and it was signed by the acting Speaker and Sent to the Senate.

Orders of the Day.

Third reading bill.

The House Bill authorizing the Department of Fish and Game to acquire conservation restrictions in and to lands owned by the city of Fitchburg (House, No. 3848) (its title having been changed by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading), reported by said committee to be correctly drawn, was read a third time; and it was passed to be engrossed. Sent to the Senate for concurrence.

Second reading bills.

House bills
Relative to betterments in the town of Dracut (House, No. 3833); and Establishing a sick leave bank for Jennifer Moniz, an employee of the Registry of Motor Vehicles (House, No. 4074);
Severally were read a second time; and they were ordered to a third reading.

Recess.

At thirteen minutes after eleven o'clock A.M., on motion of Mr. Straus of Mattapoisett (Mr. Petrolati of Ludlow being in the Chair), the House recessed until the hour of one o'clock P.M.; and at that time the House was called to order with the Speaker in the Chair.

Tanya M. Dubois.

Mr. Petrolati of Ludlow being in the Chair,— the House Bill establishing a sick leave bank for Tanya M. Dubois, an employee of the Trial Court (House, No. 1683), reported by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading to be correctly drawn, was read a third time; and it was passed to be engrossed. Sent to the Senate for concurrence.

Buzzards Bay.

The House Bill preventing oil spills in Buzzards Bay (House, No. 4103) (its title having been changed by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading), reported by said committee to be correctly drawn, was read a third time.
Pending the question on passing the bill to be engrossed, Messrs. Murphy of Burlington and Straus of Mattapoisett moved to amend it by substitution of a bill with the same title (House, No. 4119), which was read. The amendment was adopted.

After debate on the question on passing the substituted bill to be engrossed, the sense of the House was taken by yeas and nays at the request of Mr. Straus; and on the roll call 151 members voted in the affirmative and 0 in the negative.

Bill passed to be engrossed,— yea and nay No. 140.

[See Yea and Nay No. 140 in Supplement.]

Therefore the bill was passed to be engrossed. The bill (House, No. 4119) then was sent to the Senate for concurrence.

Subsequently, identical statements of Representatives Koutoujian of Waltham, Sannicandro of Ashland and Scibak of South Hadley were submitted, as follows:

MR. SPEAKER: During the taking of the yeas and nays on the question on passing to be engrossed the House Bill preventing oil spills in Buzzards Bay, I was absent from the House Chamber on official business in another part of the State House. If I had been present for the taking said roll call, I would have voted in the affirmative.

Statements of Representatives Koutoujian, Sannicandro and Scibak.

The House Bill establishing a sick leave bank for Michael F. Doiron, an employee of the Department of Correction (House, No. 4071) (its title having been changed by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading), reported by said committee to be correctly drawn, was read a third time; and it was passed to be engrossed. Sent to the Senate for concurrence.

Michael F. Doiron,— sick leave.

The Senate Bill establishing a sick leave bank for Nancy Morrison, an employee of the Department of Correction (Senate, No. 2048), reported by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading to be correctly drawn, was read a third time; and it was passed to be engrossed, in concurrence.
