

CONSUMER PROTECTION DIVISION QUIZ

1. A motor vehicle sales contract in Massachusetts can be cancelled within three business days if the consumer changes his or her mind. True False
2. In Massachusetts a gift certificate must be valid for seven years. True False
3. A retail store may record your social security number if you are paying by check. True False
4. If unable to reach a debtor, collectors may contact the employer of the person in question, regarding the debt owed. True False
5. Massachusetts law requires landlords to pay tenants interest on both the last month's rent and the security deposit each year, on the anniversary date of the tenancy. True False
6. Retail stores in Massachusetts are able to set any return policy they chose. True False
7. Unpaid medical bills cannot be recorded on your credit report. True False
8. In Massachusetts automobile dealers are allowed to sell vehicles "as is" as long as this is disclosed to potential buyers. True False
9. If a Massachusetts resident purchases a car out of state, Massachusetts motor vehicle regulations would still apply to the purchase. True False
10. A landlord can terminate the rental arrangement for a tenant-at-will without providing a reason. True False