A Norfolk County Grand Jury today (May 15, 2008) indicted the former Cafeteria Director for the Milton Public Schools for allegedly stealing from the school lunch program in which she worked, Norfolk District Attorney William R. Keating announced.

“This alleged theft is on the magnitude of $83,000 taken between September 2004 and April 2007,” District Attorney Keating said.

Suzanne D. Greene, DOB 04-19-55, of South Boston, faces 3 counts of Larceny of more than $250 one count for alleged theft from the high school, one from the middle school and one from the elementary schools as a group. The maximum penalty for Larceny over $250 is 5 years in State Prison.

“The Massachusetts State Police, the Milton Police, the Massachusetts Department of Revenue and the white collar crime unit in this office worked closely on this investigation,” District Attorney Keating said. “The resources those agencies dedicated to this have helped bring this grand jury investigation to indictment today.”

Any and all defendants mentioned are legally innocent until proven guilty.
