Press Release

Woman found at water's edge Identified No signs of foul play found

Contact: D. Traub, 781-830-4917

Quincy and Massachusetts State Police Detectives attached to Norfolk District Attorney Michael W. Morrissey's Office, working with the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner, have established that the woman found at the water's edge in the vicinity of 734 Sea Street in Quincy: Tamra PIAZZA, age 45, of Curlew Rd. in Quincy.

Curlew Road is less than a mile from the location where she was found by a passer-by shortly before 5 a.m. on Sunday, June 29, 2014.

The Office of the Chief Medical Examiner performed an autopsy on Ms. Piazza late in the day on Monday. The cause and manner of death were left undetermined pending toxicology tests. Detectives have not developed information indicating foul play in her passing. Drowning has not been ruled out.
