

SINEAD O'BRIEN*Public Reprimand No. 2012-11*Order (public reprimand) entered by the Board on May 24, 2012.*SUMMARY¹

On November 21, 2011, the respondent admitted to sufficient facts in the Woburn District Court to the crime of malicious destruction of property in violation of G. L. c. 266, § 127. The conduct occurred when the respondent was taken into protective custody by the police. The case was continued without a finding until May 21, 2012, subject to conditions.

On March 12, 2012, bar counsel filed a petition for discipline, which the respondent answered on March 30, 2012. On April 26, 2012, the respondent filed an amended answer, and the parties filed a stipulation in which they agreed to the sanction of public reprimand. On May 14, 2012, the Board of Bar Overseers voted to sanction the respondent by a public reprimand.
