

The Division of Insurance is Coming to You!

Interested in learning more about insurance?

Find us at mass.gov/doi or on Twitter @MassDOI

We're coming to you!

The Division of Insurance is heading 'on the road' to help consumers Know What You Have, Learn What You Need.

Learn more about types of insurance, your rights and responsibilities. Division staff will be visiting farmers' markets, community centers and civic events across the state this spring to help citizens better understand their choices for health, home, auto and life insurance coverage

WHERE CAN YOU FIND US NEXT?

The winter will keep us from farmers' markets and our outdoor events but check back to find out where we will be next.

If your organization or venue is interested in learning more about insurance, email Patrick.lawlor@state.ma.us

Please check back often as we update the calendar continuously.
