APPLICANT:

1. Once assigned, the vehicle identification number is the identification number to be used for all registration and title purposes in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts or in all other jurisdictions.

2. If your vehicle is currently registered and/or titled:
   A. Contact your insurance agent immediately after the new identification number has been assigned and provide the new number to the agent.
   B. Your agent will complete and stamp an RMV-3 form to correct your registration and an Application to Amend the Certificate of Title (if applicable).
   C. Bring a copy of this form, the completed RMV-3, and a $25.00 registration amendment fee to your local RMV branch office. Also bring the title amendment form, current Certificate of Title, and a $25.00 title amendment fee (if applicable).

3. Failure to notify your insurance carrier and to amend your registration and title may jeopardize continuation of your vehicle registration and title.
