Re: School Closure-Bulletin #1

Date: August 25, 2011

.....

On July 25 ,2011 the Registry of Motor Vehicles (RMV) notified students who attended Garlin Auto School (Kingston, MA) and their parent/guardians to submit copies of payments receipts to the RMV if they believe they are owed a refund for instruction they did not receive.

At this time our records indicate that we have not received payment documentation from you. If you do not provide the required documentation you may not be eligible for a refund. Please be advised that the deadline for submitting documentation is October 25, 2011. If you believe you are owed a refund please submit documentation to the following address:

Registry of Motor Vehicles
Driver Licensing
P.O. Box 55892
Boston, MA 02205-5892

If our records are incorrect, or you have any questions regarding this notification, please contact Driver Licensing directly at 617-351-9931. Additional information regarding the closure of Garlin Auto School, including previous bulletins mailed to parents and students and the status of claims for restitutions, can be found on the RMV webpage at www.mass.gov/rmv in the Teens & Parents section under the heading Out-of-Business Driving Schools - Consumer Information and Updates.
