Commissioners,

We're now two weeks away from the Unity Dinner, but we only have one week left before ticket sales will close on October 7 at 5pm. THIS IS CRUNCH TIME! As of right now, we have only 90 confirmed attendees, including Commissioners. While that number is expected to increase over the next few days, I'm asking each and every Commissioner to encourage friends, family and supporters to purchase tickets and attend the dinner. We need to fill the room and I'm relying on each of you to drive up ticket sales. In recent years, the dinner has drawn approximately 300+ attendees.

To facilitate your efforts, I'm attaching several links below.

For individual ticket(s) please encourage attendees to register using Eventbrite:

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/aacs-2015-unity-dinner-tickets-18334820943>

Non-profit rate is $80 using the promotional code: aacud_nonprofit

For sponsors and group tickets:

https://massgov.formstack.com/forms/2015_aac_unity_dinner

Once they sponsored a table or purchased group tickets, please have them register their guests with:

https://massgov.formstack.com/forms/aac_unity_dinner_guest_list

Remember, as I stated in my last email, our efforts over the next week will determine just how successful this Unity Dinner will turn out to be and exactly how much programming will be able to organize (and afford) for the next year. If we do not significantly increase our ticket sales by this weekend, we might need to increase each Commissioners minimum commitment to purchase 2 full-price tickets.

Also, for potential sponsors that you've contacted, we need a decision by Friday so that we have enough time to acknowledge them in the program brochure.

Thanks for all your efforts on behalf of the AAC. We are stronger together.

Best,

Kajal Chattopadhyay

Chair, Asian American Commission of Massachusetts
