522.001: Massachusetts Insurance Connection for Individuals with AIDS or HIV (Closed to New Applicants)

(A) Introduction. The Massachusetts Insurance Connection (MIC) is a health insurance buy-in program administered by the MassHealth agency for individuals with Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS) or human immunodeficiency virus (HIV). MIC is closed to new applicants effective January 1, 2020. Program participants may continue to receive benefits through MIC for as long as they meet the requirements of 130 CMR 522.001(B).

(B) Eligibility Requirements. The MassHealth agency may pay the monthly private and group health insurance premiums of a program participant (and his or her spouse and dependent children, provided that the program participant

(1) was enrolled in the MIC program as of December 31, 2019, and remains continuously enrolled in the MIC program (continuous enrollment ends when a program participant has not been enrolled in the MIC program for six months);

(2) had a health insurance policy (group or private) before becoming eligible for the MIC program (individuals who elect to continue employer-based group health insurance are subject to the provisions of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1990 (OBRA) and the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 (COBRA), P.L. 99-272) that

(a) has comprehensive coverage, as determined by the MassHealth agency on an individual basis; and

(b) requires premium payments that do not exceed the average monthly cost incurred by the MassHealth agency for the care of an individual with AIDS or HIV;

(3) has a diagnosis of AIDS or HIV;

(4) applies for and meets the Social Security Administration's definition of disability for AIDS or HIV;

(5) is a resident of Massachusetts;

(6) in conjunction with his or her spouse and dependent children, has a gross annual income that does not exceed 300 percent of the annualized federal poverty level income standard for a household of that size; and

(7) is not eligible for a MassHealth coverage type that provides or pays for comprehensive benefits.

(C) Verifications. Applicants must have submitted the following verifications to the MIC program coordinator within 45 days of the receipt of the application by the MassHealth agency:

(1) a written statement of a diagnosis of AIDS or HIV by the examining licensed physician;

(2) documentation of receipt of social security disability benefits or SSI; and

(3) documentation of gross annual income.

(D) Redetermination of Eligibility. The MassHealth agency completes a redetermination of eligibility for each program participant on an annual basis, or as needed.

(E) Termination of Benefits.

(1) When a program participant no longer meets one or more of the conditions in 130 CMR 522.001(B), the MassHealth agency terminates premium payments for that program participant effective on the next premium payment due date. However, the following exceptions apply:

(a) in the event of the death of a qualified individual who has coverage under a family plan, payment for the continuation of the existing plan will not exceed a period of three months following his or her death; and

(b) if a qualified individual relocates to another state, he or she will be afforded one additional premium payment after relocation to cover the transition period.

(2) The MassHealth agency sends written notice to program participants of the termination of premium payments, the reason for the termination, and the individual's right to appeal such termination in accordance with the provisions of 130 CMR 610.000: MassHealth: Fair Hearing Rules.

522.002: Refugee Resettlement Program

(A) Regulatory Authority. The Refugee Resettlement Program (RRP) is regulated pursuant to Chapter 2 of Title IV of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), 8 U.S.C. 1521 et seq. and Refugee Medical Assistance (RMA) is provided in accordance with 45 CFR 400 Subpart G.

(B) Overview.

(1) The RRP was established by the Refugee Act of 1980. The Act authorizes funds for the administration and implementation of social and educational services and employment training and placement, as well as cash assistance and medical assistance to refugees without regard to race, religion, nationality, sex, or political opinion. It is the intent of the Act to promote the resettlement and economic self-sufficiency of refugees within the shortest time frame possible.

Chapter 522 Page 522.003

(2) The Massachusetts Office for Refugees and Immigrants (MORI) is the state agency responsible for the delivery of services to refugees under the Refugee Resettlement Program. The MassHealth agency has been contracted to provide medical benefits to refugees whom MORI has determined meet the requirements of 130 CMR 522.002.

(C) Eligibility Requirements. Individuals must submit an application for MassHealth and meet the following requirements:

(1) have valid documentation of refugee status from INS;

(2) be a resident of Massachusetts;

(3) have modified adjusted gross income of the MassHealth MAGI household that is less than 200 percent of the federal poverty level (FPL) standards or meet a deductible in accordance with 130 CMR 520.028: Eligibility for a Deductible through 520.035: Conclusion of the Deductible Process; and

(4) be ineligible for MassHealth Standard, CommonHealth, CarePlus, and Family Assistance.

(D) Period of Eligibility.

(1) Eight-Month Eligibility Period. A refugee who meets the requirements of the RRP is eligible to receive MassHealth Standard or CarePlus for an eight-month period beginning with the date of entry into the United States.

(2) End of Eight-Month Eligibility Period. A refugee who has been in the country for eight months is no longer eligible for MassHealth under the refugee resettlement program. Such refugee will be notified in advance of termination.

(3) Extended MassHealth Eligibility. A refugee who becomes ineligible for MassHealth solely by reason of increased earnings from employment or increased hours of employment will have coverage extended for four months provided the total period of eligibility does not exceed eight months.

(E) Continuation of Benefits. Individuals who were receiving MassHealth Standard benefits through the RRP as of December 31, 2013, will continue to receive these benefits through the RRP until the end of the eight-month period from the date on which they began receiving benefits, unless MassHealth determines such individuals eligible for MassHealth Standard, CommonHealth, CarePlus, or Family Assistance prior to the end of the eight-month period.

522.003: Adoption Assistance and Foster Care Maintenance

Any child placed in subsidized adoption or foster care under Title IV-E of the Social Security Act is automatically eligible for medical assistance provided by the state where the child resides.

MASSHEALTH OTHER DIVISION PROGRAMS

Chapter 522 Page 522.004 (1 of 3)

(A) Children receiving state-subsidized adoption payments from a state that is a member of the Interstate Compact on Adoption and Medical Assistance (ICAMA) will be eligible for medical assistance provided by the state where the child resides if that state is a member of ICAMA.

(B) Children receiving state-subsidized adoption payments from a state that is not a member of ICAMA, or any child receiving state-subsidized foster-care payments will only be eligible for medical assistance provided by his or her state of origin.

522.004: Children's Medical Security Plan (CMSP)

(A) Regulatory Authority. The Children's Medical Security Plan (CMSP) is administered pursuant to M.G.L. c. 118E, §10F.

(B) Overview. CMSP provides coverage to uninsured children younger than 19 years old who do not qualify for any other MassHealth coverage type, other than MassHealth Limited, and who do not have physician and hospital health-care coverage. To apply for these benefits, an applicant must submit an application as described in 130 CMR 502.001: Application for Benefits and 502.002: Reactivating the Application.

(C) Eligibility Requirements. Children are eligible for CMSP if they are

- (1) a resident of Massachusetts, as defined in 130 CMR 503.002: Residence Requirements;
- (2) younger than 19 years old;

(3) not otherwise eligible for any other MassHealth coverage type, other than MassHealth Limited. Children who are otherwise eligible and who are not receiving MassHealth coverage as a result of not complying with administrative requirements of MassHealth are not eligible for CMSP. Children who lose eligibility for MassHealth Family Assistance as a result of nonpayment of premiums or as a result of not enrolling in employer-sponsored health insurance through Premium Assistance are not eligible for CMSP; and

- (4) uninsured. An applicant or member is uninsured if he or she
 - (a) does not have insurance that provides physician and hospital health-care coverage;
 - (b) has insurance that is in an exclusion period; or
 - (c) had insurance that has expired or has been terminated.

(D) Premiums. The premium schedule and payment policies for CMSP are described in 130 CMR 506.011: MassHealth and the Children's Medical Security Plan (CMSP) Premiums.

 - (b) $4 for each brand-name drug prescription.
- (2) The copayments for dental services are
 - (a) $2 for members with modified adjusted gross income of the MassHealth MAGI household equal to or below 199.9% of the federal poverty level (FPL);

(b) $4 for members with modified adjusted gross income of the MassHealth MAGI household between 200.0% to 400.0% FPL; and

(c) $6 for members with modified adjusted gross income of the MassHealth MAGI household equal to or greater than 400.1% FPL.

(3) The copayments for medical (nonpreventive visits) and mental health services are(a) $2 for members with modified adjusted gross income of the MassHealth MAGI household equal to or below 199.9% FPL;

(b) $5 for members with modified adjusted gross income of the MassHealth MAGI household between 200.0% to 400.0% FPL; and

(c) $8 for members with modified adjusted gross income of the MassHealth MAGI household equal to or greater than 400.1% FPL.

(F) Medical Coverage Date. Except as provided at 130 CMR 522.004(H), coverage begins on the date of the final eligibility determination. The time standards for determining and redetermining eligibility are described at 130 CMR 502.005: Time Standards for an Eligibility Determination and 502.007: Eligibility Review.

(G) Benefits Provided. Benefits provided are described at M.G.L. c. 118E, §10F. Included benefits are

(1) preventive pediatric care;

(2) sick visits;

(3) office visits, first-aid treatment, and follow-up care;

(4) provision of smoking prevention educational information and materials to the parent,

guardian, or the person with whom the enrollee resides, as distributed by the Department of Public Health;

(5) prescription drugs up to $200 per state fiscal year;

(6) urgent care visits, not including emergency care in a hospital outpatient or emergency department;

(7) outpatient surgery and anesthesia that is medically necessary for the treatment of inguinal hernia and ear tubes;

(8) annual and medically necessary eye exams;

Chapter 522 Page 522.004 (3 of 3)

(9) medically necessary mental-health outpatient services, including substance-abuse treatment services, not to exceed 20 visits per fiscal year;

(10) durable medical equipment, up to $200 per state fiscal year, with an additional $300 per state fiscal year for equipment and supplies related to asthma, diabetes, and seizure disorders only;

(11) dental health services, up to $750 per state fiscal year, including preventive dental care, provided that no funds will be expended for cosmetic or surgical dentistry;

(12) auditory screening;

(13) laboratory diagnostic services; and

(14) radiologic diagnostic services.

(H) Enrollment Cap. The MassHealth agency may limit the number of children who can be enrolled in CMSP. When the MassHealth agency imposes such a limit, applicants will be placed on a waiting list when their eligibility has been determined. When the MassHealth agency is able to open enrollment for CMSP, the MassHealth agency will process the applications in the order they were placed on the waiting list.
