PREFACE.

THE statutes prescribing the matter and form of the Auditor's Report require the following exhibit:—

First.—A summary statement of receipts and payments for the preceding year; also a detailed and particular statement of receipts and expenditures belonging to each year; the statement of expenditures showing in separate classifications the expenses incurred for the support of all permanent departments, services, and institutions, and those incurred for special and exceptional purposes, the account being so constructed as to show the expenditures incurred within the year, as far as ascertained, whether paid or unpaid at its close.

Second.—A statement showing the aggregate amount of funded debt and of temporary loans at the beginning and end of the year respectively, the balance of increase or decrease thereof, and the cause of such balance; also the excess of the ordinary expenses of the year over the income thereof, or the contrary, and the amount of such balance.

Third.—A statement of the items of all accounts of expenditure, so far as they may possess public interest or value, showing by proper classification the various officers or boards, under whose direction the same have been incurred; also of all salaries, likewise separated, so as to show the different classes of officers receiving the same; and no expenditure exceeding $500 to be included under any indefinite head, if composed of separate items.

Fourth.—A particular statement of the transactions of the funds belonging to or held in trust by the Commonwealth, and also the manner in which the moiety of the income of the school fund, applicable to educational purposes, has been disbursed.

Fifth.—An estimate for the current year of the ordinary revenue of the Commonwealth, and of such other means as may appear available for the payment of accruing expenses.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

AUDITOR'S DEPARTMENT, BOSTON, Jan. 12, 1882.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives.

The Thirty-third Annual Report of this department is respectfully submitted.

In the preparation and arrangement of its tabulated statements, the special provisions of law in relation to the report have been carefully observed.

The first section of chapter 293 of the Acts of 1881 requires that all reports of the several boards and departments of the government "shall be made as brief as may be without omitting any facts or information which the officers or departments making them are required to furnish."

The Auditor hopes that in this regard the report will be found to be in harmony with the spirit of the above legislative injunction.

Disposition of Cash Balance.

The cash balance as shown in the preceding statement stands to the credit of the following accounts and funds:—

Add revenue cash . . . . .	1,351,639 39
Total cash on hand Jan. 1, 1882 . . . . .	$14,711,952 53

While the above figures seem to show an overflowing treasury, it is to be remembered that only $1,351,639.39 of the grand total can be properly used for the running expenses of the current year. The amount belonging to the several sinking funds is pledged by the Commonwealth for the payment of the public debt.

It is only temporarily in the treasury, because of the difficulty found in profitably investing it.

COMPARATIVE RESULTS.

Comparing the expenses of 1881 with those of 1880, the following aggregates are shown:—

	1881.	1880.
Ordinary expenses . . . . .	$1,617,905 71	$1,594,174 89
Exceptional expenses . . . . .	5,246,003 08	4,532,238 68
Total . . . . .	$6,863,908 79	$6,126,413 57

To more nearly harmonize these aggregates with the actual expenses, the corporation and national bank taxes, collected by the Commonwealth and returned to the cities and towns, should be deducted; viz., $2,243,437.51 in 1881, and $2,038,895.69 in 1880. With these deductions, the expenses of 1881 were $4,620,471.28, and in 1880 $4,087,537.88.

Of the expenses in 1881 the following are the principal items:—

Under chap. 301 . . . . .	307
Under chap. 252 . . . . .	222

The number of persons aided under chap. 301 is as follows:—

Invalid pensioners . . . . .	2,742
Wives of invalid pensioners . . . . .	536

Total . . . . .	6,501

The number of indigent soldiers and sailors aided under chap. 252 is . . . . . 1,937

Whole number of persons aided under both laws in 1881, 8,438; number aided in 1880, 8,637. The valuable services of Surgeon-Gen. Dale were required in the examination of 333 applicants for State aid during the year.

The total payments on this account by the Commonwealth to Jan. 1, 1881, was . . . . . $16,224,619 84
Add amount paid in 1881 . . . . . 418,364 64

Aggregate payments to Jan. 1, 1882 . . . . . $16,642,984 48

In the face of this record of her humanity and patriotism, Massachusetts can never be justly charged with ingratitude to the soldiers and sailors who served on her quota in the late war for the Union. A wise and tender regard for the best interests of those who thus served is the chief consideration manifest in the laws for their relief. State aid is not a pension to which every one disabled in the war is entitled.

It is not for the rich and the well-to-do in the world; nor is it for the idler, the criminal, or the profligate. It is not intended as an encouragement to pauperism, nor as a reward for self-ruined manhood. It is not enough that the applicant was faithful in the dark days of the Rebellion. He must be, at the present time, a worthy citizen of the Commonwealth, and in such necessitous circumstances as to need assistance. He must be a producer, — unless disabled by his service, or by disease, or the infirmities of age, — and contribute his share to the moral and material wealth of the State. The laws make the municipal authorities the watchful guardians of the unfortunate and needy soldiers in their respective localities, and require that they shall be vigilant and humane in their treatment of them. Three commissioners are also appointed to supervise the administration of the laws. Their duties require them to see that no injustice is done to the persons entitled to State aid, and to protect the Commonwealth from imposition and fraud by unworthy applicants and careless officers of towns and cities. Capt. Charles W. Hastings, one of the commissioners, is a soldier, who gives his entire time to these duties. His heart is in closest sympathy with his old comrades-in-arms, and he is a most faithful and conscientious officer, — just, alike to the soldier and the tax-paying people. During the last year he has visited the cities and many of the larger towns of the State, to consult with the authorities in relation to this matter. Reports having been made by speech and through the press, that a large number of returned volunteers were languishing in the almshouses of the State, a circular-letter was sent by the commissioners to the authorities of every town and city, to ascertain the truth of this statement.

The replies showed that about 137 soldiers and sailors were thus supported. It was found, however, by the answers to the circulars, that every one was there either from choice, from necessity on account of his dissolute or intemperate habits, or because of imbecility or insanity and the impossibility of providing any other place for him.

It is due to the commissioners, and more especially to the people who cheerfully contribute over $500,000 annually to this noble charity in behalf of the defenders of their homes in the hour of peril, that these facts should be made public.

THE PUBLIC DEBT.

During the last fiscal year temporary loans were made in anticipation of the receipts to the amount of $800,000. The money was borrowed of the sinking funds, and has been paid from the revenue of 1881. The following is a statement of the public debt, all funded, with its proper classification: —

Aggregate debt Jan. 1, 1881	$32,799,464
Paid in 1881, Harbor Improvement Loan	400,000

Aggregate debt Jan. 1, 1882	$32,399,464
-----------------------------	--------------

Classified as follows: —

Railroad loans	$17,738,996
War loans	10,468,188
Public buildings, etc.	4,192,280
	$32,399,464

Of this amount $300,000 is payable at the option of the Commonwealth, and the scrip is held by the sinking funds. The absolute maturity of the entire debt is shown in the following tabulation: —

1883	$1,088,000	1894	$9,665,244
1888	3,061,300	1895	4,810,260
1889	3,142,128	1896	1,100,000
1890	503,468	1897	520,000
1891	8,815,040	1900	3,599,024
1893	1,065,000

The Harbor Improvement Loan was a 5-20 loan authorized by chap. 320 of the Acts of 1872, and was not absolutely due till 1894.

It was paid last year under the authority given the Treasurer in Resolves, chap. 66, of 1881.

SINKING FUNDS.

The several sinking funds amounted on the 1st of January,
1882, to	$14,080,465 80
Amount of the same Jan. 1, 1881	13,050,192 20
Increase during the year	$1,030,273 60

Of this increase $83,549.75 came from sales of Back Bay lands; $63,903.12 from sales of land of the Old State Prison; $175,000 from payment on account of the principal of the agreement of New York and New England Railroad Company, and $100,000 from taxation for the benefit of the Prison and Hospital Loan Sinking Fund, — the remainder from interest on investments. It will be remembered also that these funds contributed $400,000 to the reduction of the public debt.

The appended statement shows the present condition of the funds, and other resources pledged thereto by existing laws:—

Troy and Greenfield Railroad Sinking Fund . . . . .	$5,230,152	54
Bounty Loan Sinking Fund . . . . .	4,923,892	86
Boston, Hartford, and Erie Railroad Sinking Fund . . . . .	1,283,226	14
War Loan Sinking Fund . . . . .	1,000,000	00
Coast Defence Sinking Fund . . . . .	803,184	45
Prison and Hospital Loan Sinking Fund . . . . .	784,818	99
Commissioners Public Lands Fund . . . . .	55,190	82
	<hr/>
	$14,080,465	80
Add market value in excess of cost . . . . .	900,000	00
	<hr/>
Total sinking funds . . . . .	$14,980,465	80
Estimated value of salable Back Bay lands . . . . .	$300,000
Unsettled claims against the United States, estimated . . . . .	250,000
Unsettled claims against the Boston and Albany Railroad Company . . . . .	105,600
Land in Boston Harbor, cost about . . . . .	800,000
	<hr/>
	1,455,600	00
Total . . . . .	$16,436,065	80

In this connection the Auditor would suggest that the Treasurer be authorized to pay annually to the Prison and Hospital Loan Sinking Fund the income from the Old State Prison, and to transfer to the same fund $14,398.21 and $1,305.59 now standing to the credit of the accounts of State Prison Loans and Worcester Lunatic Hospital Loan respectively.

Part of the Old State Prison property was sold in 1881, as stated above. It seems proper that the income of the remainder should be added to this fund. The amounts above named are balances from the sale of scrip for the erection of the prisons at Concord and Sherborn, and of the new hospital at Worcester. There are no outstanding claims against these accounts, and they may well be closed, and the balances used to increase said fund, thus avoiding to that extent the necessity of a tax for the purpose.

ESTIMATES FOR 1882.

A very material reduction in the revenue will result from the legislation of last year in relation to the taxation of deposits in savings banks.

Chapter 304 exempts from taxation such portion of their deposits as is invested in loans secured by mortgages on taxable real estate, and in real estate used for banking purposes. The amount thus invested in 1881 was over $85,000,000.

Chapter 305 reduces the tax on the amount of deposits from three-quarters to one-half of one per cent, and amends chap. 315 of the Acts of 1873, "so that the amount of the deduction from the tax payable by any savings bank shall not in any year exceed the amount of the tax assessed on account of that portion of its deposits invested in shares of banks and banking associations."

The amount so invested in 1881 was nearly $25,000,000. By this legislation every inducement is offered to savings banks to invest their deposits in real-estate mortgages. All experience proves that the average citizen takes advantage of every method allowed by law to escape taxation.

It will doubtless be found that the managers of these institutions are much like other men in this regard. The recent bank failure in this city sharply emphasizes the hazard of large investments in the shares of national banks.

In view of these and other considerations, and cautioned by such information as he has been able to obtain from other financial officers of the Commonwealth, the Auditor does not feel justified in estimating the revenue from savings banks at over $1,000,000. Last year it was a fraction over $1,613,600. The following are the estimates in detail:—

The amount the Legislature may appropriate, under Resolve, chap. 70, of 1881, in relation to double-tracking the Tunnel Railroad, and any special grant or exceptional expenditure which may be approved, will proportionally increase this deficit. The resolve requires that the work shall be finished in three years, but does not fix the amount to be expended. Last year $200,000, or one-third the estimated expense, was appropriated. The estimate this year, for its completion in two years, is over $500,000; so that, if the appropriation this year is one-half that amount, or $250,000, this item alone will swell the deficit to $955,570.61. A reduction in the revenue of half a million dollars is reasonably certain. The estimated expenditures under existing laws are nearly $350,000 in excess of those of 1881. In view of the foregoing exhibit of the probable resources and expenditures, a tax of $1,500,000 would not leave the treasury in so good condition on the 1st of January next as it is in to-day. What amount will be required at the end of the session can only be determined by the final legislative results.

The statistical tables of the transactions of the year are arranged under the following numbered statements:—

- I. — Receipts and Payments on Account of Ordinary Revenue.
- II. — Receipts and Payments on Account of Sundry Funds.
- III. — Resources and Liabilities.
- IV. — Revenue and Expenditures for 1880 and 1881.
- V. — Revenue properly belonging to 1880 and 1881.
- VI. — Payments in detail from the Revenue in 1881.
- VII. — Resources in detail.
- VIII. — Debts and Liabilities in detail.
- IX. — Stocks of Railroad Corporations.
- X. — Funds, the Income of which is specifically appropriated.
- XI. — Statement of Expenses properly belonging to the year 1880 and 1881, with Appropriations for 1881. (Particulars in detailed statements.)
- XII. — Revenue for 1881, given in detail; summarily given in Statement No. V.
- XIII. — Expenses for 1881, given in detail; summarily given in Statement No. XI.
- XIV. — Statement of the Funds: how invested, etc.; including details of the Transactions thereof during the year 1881.

Respectfully submitted.

Auditor.
