The above table is made from Statement No. I., page 22. The cash in the treasury January 1 was not included in the column of estimates for the year. An examination of the item of actual net revenue from "bank stock taxes" may lead to misapprehension, if not explained. The gross receipts from bank taxes amounted to $1,062,275.29. The amount distributed to savings banks, etc., under the laws, was $1,078,952.81, or $16,677.52 in excess of the amount received. The actual amount of the bank taxes of 1888, so distributed, was $613,821.40, leaving $448,453.89 net reve-due, as shown above. In addition to the amount of the taxes of 1888 distributed, there was also distributed the sum of $465,131.41, which sum was held by the treasurer of the Commonwealth at the date of my last report, awaiting the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States upon the question of the constitutionality of our law taxing the stock of national banks. The court sustained the law, and the amount held by the treasurer was distributed, thus swelling the payments on this account to $1,078,952.81 in 1888, as appears in Statement No. I., on page 25.

GENERAL STATEMENT OF EXPENSES.

INSTITUTIONS, INCOME AND EXPENSES.

The following table shows the expenses of the institutions named, in 1888, the income received from each, and the expenses of the same in excess of the income:—

The expenses on account of the three State prisons were $7,010.75 in excess of last year. The average number of prisoners in each institution for the year ending Sept. 30, 1888, was as follows:—

Reformatory Prison for Women,	216

The cost per week per capita was:—

Massachusetts Reformatory,	$3 80
State Prison,	2 52
Reformatory Prison for Women,	4 25

PRISON INDUSTRIES.

The State Prison at Boston (Charlestown district) is the only State institution in which the prisoners have been employed under the requirements of chapter 447 of the Acts of 1887.

The results shown during the year to December 31 are as follows:—

Expenses of the business,	$116,516 72
Salary of General Superintendent, and other necessary expenses for the work.	20,645 26
Total,	$137,161 98
Receipts from the industries,	71,698 24
Excess of expenditures,	$65,463 74

The average number of persons in the other institutions named in the above table, and the per capita expense per week for the year ending Sept. 30, 1888, were as follows:—

	Average Number.	Cost per Week.
State Primary School at Monson,	321	$3 07
State Industrial School for Girls at Lancaster,	71+	4 30
Lyman School for Boys at Westborough,	127	4 15
State Almshouse at Tewksbury,	873	2 23
State Farm at Bridgewater,	580-	2 02

The books and accounts of the institutions named above, — eight in number, — have been kept under my supervision since Oct. 1, 1887, as directed by chapter 87 of the Acts of that year. The system adopted has given very general satisfaction to the officers and to all persons having dealings with them. In some of the institutions no material change was necessary, as the books were in good condition and properly kept. In others such changes were made as the law required, in order that, as nearly as possible, the system might be uniform in all of them.

A farm account has been opened and kept at seven of these institutions. It is very simple and requires that the farm shall be charged with everything paid out or furnished for it, and credited with what is consumed at the institution and for cash sales of its products.

The results show a profit in favor of the farm at each institution as follows:—

At Monson,	$3,655 36
Westborough,	853 35
Lancaster,	219 04
Tewksbury,	1,010 16
Bridgewater,	1,463 89
Concord,	972 48
Sherborn,	1,282 79
Total,	$9,457 07

TROY AND GREENFIELD RAILROAD AND HOOSAC TUNNEL.

The sale of the Commonwealth's interest in the Troy and Greenfield Railroad and Hoosac Tunnel and in the Southern Vermont Railroad, was completed Feb. 1, 1887, under the authority given to the Governor and Council by chapter 297 of the Acts of 1885. The claims of the Commonwealth for tolls against the Fitchburg Railroad Company, and for rents due from the Troy and Boston Railroad Company, are now in court, and will probably be disposed of during the year 1889. The following payments were made during the year 1888, viz.:—

Salary and expenses of the treasurer of the Troy and Greenfield Railroad Company,	$3,458 21
Purchase of equity, chapter 48, Resolves of 1883,	1,680 00
Interest on loans,	553,374 08
Total payments, 1888,	$558,512 29

There have been no receipts during the year.

STATE AID AND BOUNTIES.

The limitation of time for the payment of State aid to invalid pensioners and their dependent relatives will expire Jan. 1, 1890. The payment of State aid began with the war of the Rebellion, and has continued without interruption ever since. It will be the agreeable duty of the present Legislature to consider the expediency and wisdom of revising the existing laws, to the end that this patriotic and noble charity may be continued still longer to those who served in that war on the quota of the Commonwealth, and to their families.

INVALID PENSIONERS AND THEIR DEPENDANTS.

The amounts reimbursed by the Commonwealth in 1888 to cities and towns for payments made by them in 1887 on account of State and military aid, are shown in the following statement:—

Under chapter 301 of the Acts of 1879,	$296,418 90
Under chapter 252 of the Acts of 1879,	72,759 12
(These Acts are embodied in chapter 30 of the Public Statutes.)
Paid city of Lynn balance of old account,	2,500 00

Paid Trustees of Soldiers' Home in Chelsea (Resolve, chapter 11, 1888),	20,000 00
Total payments for the year,	$391,678 02

The average payment for each day in the year was about $1,073.

Number of cities and towns reimbursed for payments of State aid in 1887:—

Under chapter 301,	329
Under chapter 252,	269

The number of persons aided in 1887, under chapter 301, is classified as follows:—

Invalid pensioners,	2,863
Wives of invalid pensioners,	496
Widows of invalid pensioners,	2,479
Widowed mothers,	763
Fathers,	49
Total,	6,650

The average amount paid by the Commonwealth to each person, under chapter 301, was $44.57.

INDIGENT SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.

The number of indigent soldiers and sailors who received aid in 1887, under chapter 252, was 1,816. The average amount paid by the Commonwealth to each person was $40.06.

The cities and towns paid the same amount that was paid by the Commonwealth to each person, making the average $80.12 for the year.

Surgeon-General Holt examined 282 applicants for State aid during the year.

The aggregate number of persons who received State aid in 1887, under chapter 301, was 6,650. The number in 1886 was 6,471, or 179 less than in 1887. The number of persons aided under chapter 252 in 1887 was 1,816. The number aided in 1886 was 1,809, or 7 less than in 1887. The amount reimbursed for 1887 was $7,375.44 only, in excess of that for 1886.

TOTAL PAYMENTS OF STATE AID.

As the whole subject of revising the State aid laws will be considered by the Legislature now in session, I submit the following statement—detailed by years—of the amount reimbursed to cities and towns by the Commonwealth, and also the amounts paid directly from the treasury under special resolves, from 1861 to the close of the year 1888:—

BOUNTIES.

There were bounties paid in 1888 to the following persons:—

Stephen F. Sullivan,	$253 00
John Turk,	715 00

Total,	$968 00
Bounties paid to Jan. 1, 1888,	17,747,293 93

Total payments to Jan. 1, 1889,	$17,748,261 93

ESTIMATES FOR 1889.

Deficit,	$861,455 51

Of the balance in the treasury, the sum of $523,800 was received late in December from the loan at three per cent. authorized by chapter 349 of the Acts of 1888 for the purchase of land in rear of the State House. No provision was made for establishing a sinking fund for the payment of this loan, due in 1901, and therefore the money must appear as a part of the revenue until otherwise disposed of. The value of the land taken under the Act will doubtless exceed the above amount, and payments will be called for as soon as the titles are found to be good.

The deficit, as estimated above, — $861,455.51, — is $857,164.38 less than at the beginning of the year 1888. It will be the duty of the Legislature to provide the means to meet this deficit, and, in addition, to provide for the payment of whatever special expenditures may be authorized during its present session.

THE PUBLIC DEBT AND THE SEVERAL FUNDS.

All matters relating to the public debt and the transactions on account of the several sinking funds and other funds and accounts will be considered in their proper place, near the end of the report, immediately following Revenue Statement No. VII.
