MASSACHUSETTS DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN CORPORATIONS SUBJECT TO AN EXCISE GENERAL LAWS

CHAPTERS 59, 60A AND 63

This is the list of 2007 Massachusetts Domestic & Foreign Corporations Subject to an Excise. Annually, the Division of Local Services provides a comprehensive listing of all corporations for Massachusetts's assessors for local taxing purposes. We publish this list solely on the Internet to facilitate keyword and community based searches.

The list of 2007 Massachusetts Domestic and Foreign Corporations Subject to an Excise provides a listing of corporations doing business in Massachusetts as of January 1, 2007, subject to tax or excise under General Laws, Chapters 59, 60A, or 63, local property tax, motor vehicle excise, and corporation excises, respectively. This listing of corporations can provide useful information to cities and towns about the taxable status of businesses located within a community. The contents are drawn from data compiled and maintained by the Department of Revenue.

This resource is divided into three sections, 1) corporations conducting business in the Commonwealth, 2) insurance companies, and 3) financial institutions. The Insurance companies and financial institutions are listed separately under their own section headings because they are taxed differently from other corporations. The separate listings for financial institutions and insurance companies are based on returns filed by the entities and not a classification by the Department of Revenue. In total, there are almost 200,000 corporations included in this resource.

What is taxable locally?

Most corporations that own property in Massachusetts are subject to taxation by the local assessors upon their real estate, poles, underground conduits, wires and pipes. All such corporations are also subject to motor vehicle excise on their registered vehicles. For businesses that have been classified by the Commissioner of Revenue as "manufacturing corporations," no other personal property is subject to local property taxation, except certain properties used in the manufacture or generation of electricity.

Utility corporations, financial institutions and qualifying insurance corporations are subject to additional local taxation on machinery used to manufacture, as well as for machinery used to supply or distribute water. They are exempt from taxation on personal property that is not machinery, as well as on machinery used for purposes other than manufacturing or water supply and distribution.

All other incorporated businesses are subject to additional local property taxation by the assessors on "machinery used in the conduct of business." This term does not include stock in trade (machinery that a corporation is in the business of selling or leasing), or any personal property used directly in purchasing, selling, accounting or administrative functions. Such business corporations are also exempt from taxation on machinery used directly in laundering, dry cleaning, refrigeration of goods or the air conditioning of any premises.

Limited Liability Companies (LLCs) filing as corporations for federal tax purposes are also deemed to be business or foreign corporations for local property tax purposes. LLCs may be eligible for manufacturing classification as well. Questions regarding tax liability or exemptions should be directed to DLS' Bureau of Municipal Finance Law.

Reading each Entry

Each entry in the listing includes the name and primary location of a company, and also indicates whether the business has been classified as a manufacturing corporation. The "location" listing is based on the corporation's own reporting to DOR, and identifies the community, state or foreign country (FC) in which the company is headquartered. Please note that businesses may own taxable property in one or more Massachusetts communities, but only the "location" of the headquarters will appear in this listing.

Corporations that have been classified "manufacturing corporations" are designated by the letter "M" to the left of the corporation's name. Businesses that have had their manufacturing status revoked during a given year are identified by the letter "R" to the left of the corporation name.

Informational M/R Updates

The Massachusetts Domestic & Foreign Corporations Subject to an Excise is forwarded to assessors in April each year. In meeting this distribution deadline, the Massachusetts' Department of Revenue's Manufacturing Unit makes every effort to render its manufacturing (M) and revocation (R) decisions in order that all are included in the annual list. However, some decisions are made after publication and are retroactive to January 1 of the current year. It is the policy of DOR to notify assessors of the subsequent decisions by letter. For informational purposes, a compilation of subsequent manufacturing and revocation decisions applicable in the current calendar year will be posted three times during the year—June, September and December. Assessors may check the website for these updates.

Effective January 1, 2007 – Release date April 23, 2007
