Filing Guidance Notice 2008 - C

TO: Insurance Companies Soliciting, Negotiating, Selling or Servicing Private Passenger Motor Vehicle Policies in Massachusetts

FROM: Kevin P. Beagan, Director, State Rating Bureau

DATE: July 15, 2008

RE: Submitting Private Passenger Motor Vehicle Rate Filings in Massachusetts

This Filing Guidance Notice reminds all advisory organizations and insurance companies that the filing requirements of 211 CMR 79.00 apply to all private passenger motor vehicle insurance rate filings and such filings are required to be sent to the Division of Insurance ("Division") and the Attorney General..

Although the Division noted in Filing Guidance Notice 2008-B that companies may submit filing materials via SERFF (System for Electronic Rate and Form Filing), that notice does not supersede the requirement to submit paper copies. As described in 211 CMR 79.06(3), private passenger motor vehicle insurance rate filings are to be submitted to the Division of Insurance in triplicate, with one copy unstapled or unbound, and one copy of such filings is to be submitted simultaneously to the Office of the Attorney General.

If you have any questions regarding this Filing Guidance Notice, please contact Kevin Beagan at (617) 521-7323 or Edward Charbonnier at (617) 521-7481.
