

The Massachusetts Office on Disability
Requests Your Presence at the 2018 Disability Summit

Friday, October 5, 2018

8 am to 12:30 pm at

Partners Healthcare, Assembly Row Campus
399 Revolution Road, Somerville, MA 02145

West Lobby, 1st Floor

Assembly Rooms A, B, C

Parking - First three hours complimentary, nominal hourly rate afterwards

This event is free of charge. Please visit:

www.mass.gov/mod/summit18

Please Note: Registration is General Admission.

Seating is limited and first-come first-serve.

This is a scent-free event. ASL Interpreters & CART will be requested. Reasonable accommodation requests by email at

Evan.Bjorklund@mass.gov or by phone at 617-727-7324 by September 21, 2018*

requests after this date will be considered but may not be possible to fill*

Program

- 8 AM Check-in & Networking Breakfast
Farm fresh buffet
- 9:10 Welcome and Introductions
Margaret Norton, Partners Healthcare
Evan Bjorklund, MOD
- 9:30 Rehabilitation & Healthcare
David Storto, President of Spaulding
Rehabilitation Network and Partners
Continuing Care
- 10:00 Disability Employment Data
Andrew Houtenville, Associate Professor of Economics & Research Director, Institute on Disability, University of New Hampshire
- 10:30 Break
- 10:45 The ADA, Addiction and Recovery
Oce Harrison Ed.D., Project Director
New England ADA Center, Institute for Human Centered Design
- 11:15 Presentation of White Paper - *First Responder Mental Health, Invisible Disability, and Suicide
Miriam Heyman Ph.D., Ruderman Family
Foundation
- 11:30 Health & Human Services Panel
Moderated by Oswald Mondejar, and featuring
Commissioners; Heidi Reed MCDHH, Toni
Wolf MRC, Joan Mikula DMH, Jane Ryder
DDS, and David D'Arcangelo MCB
- 12:10 Thomas P. Hopkins Access Award
Kathy Gips, New England ADA Center,
Institute for Human Centered Design
- 12:25 Closing Remarks & Conclusion