

MCAD 2020 COURSES FOR EEO PROFESSIONALS

The Massachusetts Commission Against Discrimination (MCAD) offers training courses for individuals who provide, or who want to provide, Employment Discrimination Prevention trainings; conduct internal discrimination complaint investigations; or respond to accommodation requests. These courses are designed for the following audiences:

- Human Resources Managers, EEO Officers, Training Directors
- Employment Attorneys, Diversity Consultants and Trainers who investigate and consult on accommodation requests as external consultants to employers.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

➤ Train-the-Trainer: Preventing Workplace Discrimination & Harassment

This course prepares participants to deliver thorough, accurate, interactive training to prevent discrimination and harassment in hiring, benefits, performance management, promotion, termination and other aspects of employment. In addition, participants learn the essential skills of training related to disability and religious accommodation. The course includes model training segments for supervisors and staff, and a practicum where students receive feedback from seasoned discrimination prevention trainers.

Dates: To Be Announced

➤ Conducting Internal Discrimination Complaint Investigations

This hands-on training explores employers' responsibilities to conduct internal discrimination complaint investigations; presents effective methods for conducting a comprehensive investigation; and gives participants the opportunity to practice investigation skills using realistic case scenarios.

Dates: To Be Announced

Responding to Accommodation Requests

This hands-on training explores employers' responsibility to provide disability and religious accommodations at every stage of the employment relationship. It presents effective methods for considering and implementing accommodation requests; and gives participants the opportunity to practice their skills using realistic case scenarios.

Dates: To Be Announced

* Spring 2020 dates in the Boston Office will be added in the Fall
